The Pittsburgh Evening Telegraph says: There is a quiet determination existing throughout the masses of the Republican party, if an objectionable ticket. I to over thirty years since this celebrated remedy was introduced to the American Public. During this time it has performed hundreds and thousands of the most astonishing cures, and its reputation and sale have now reached a point that far surpasses any remedy of the present or past ages. It has required this great reputation, not by a system of puffning, but by the actual merit of the article itself. If you are afflicted with any of the diseases for which it is recommended, such as Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility, or disorder of the Digestive Organs, it will not fail to sustain lia reputation in your case. It is not an

tary of State of the United States, and the Right Honorable Sir Edward Thornton, one of her majesty's mosthonorable masses of the Republican party, if an objectionable ticket is nominated, by the State Convention, to permit the election to go by default—in other words, they will take no part in the canvass, and give the ticket no support.—

There was, recently, an interchange of opinions among prominent Republicans from more than three-fourths of the counties of the State, and this determination was unanimously expressed. We want the managers, therefore, that if obnoxious men are placed before the people, they will inevitably be defeated.
