 Tressurer, Joury Commissioner, Jury Co they shall be nominated. We know at least one case in which this has been done.— The letter in question was written to a Republican in Jackson township, urging the to be opened without breaking the paper. The Jury Commissioners deposit the box Republicant in Jackson township, urging him to become a candidate for Director of the Poor. The significant "all right" means the election of delegates that will further the interests of the infamous League and enable it to organize and con-trol the Convention. Mr. Douglass is the mere stool-pigeon of Mr. Woods, and this political trickster. Mr. Woods has prac-ticed this kind of chicanery so long, and violated his plighted faith so often, that index triester. Mr. woods nas pre-ticed this kind of chieanery so long, and twieated his plighted faits so flex, that he feels that he cannot deceive the people any longer, consequently be makes use of Douglass as a cover to repeat what he has so frequently done before.
We hope that the honest people will not allow themeelves to be hoodwinked in this way. And besides this, what right has so frequently outside of the Republican friends against having any thing to do with the parties who supported to whit. And we here caution our Republican friends against having any thing to do with the parties who supported so the fundependent ticket in the second week of the April term, and thirtee for the speer and the independent ticket in the second week of the April term, and the first week of January term, and the first week as Democrats.

April term, when Wharton had no suits pending, only five were drawn from Hun-tingdoh. This is very clear logic. The Globe proceeds to argue from this that the Globe proceeds to argue from this that the They malign and accuse without the least program bits of the second states of the second stat single purpose, and that is to belabor their adversary. The Globe is a perfect exem-plification of this idea. Its editor hates, with an intensity not human, certain gen-tlemen whom it belabors from week to week. In its efforts to cast odium upon them it seizes every little pretext to pre-sent them in an uncentiated of the seizes every little pretext to pre-sent them in an uncentiate of the seizes every little pretext to pre-sent them in an uncentiate of the seizes every little pretext to pre-sent them in an uncentiate of the seizes every little pretext to pre-ter the high erime of tampering with the ing week. In its efforts to cast odium upon them it seizes every little pretext to pro-sent them in an unfavorable light, and ignorantly charges them with being guilty of crimes which, if perpetrated at all, could only be perpetrated by the connivance of those who are above suspicion. The Globe makes a letter written by we were to large the makes a letter written by the high erime of tampering with the jury anel? We want an answer. No one ex-unable ties the jury to be drawn from the wheel aphabetically or proportionally from all one time all the names in the box from the Globe makes a letter written by The Globe makes a letter written by Mr. Wharton to Judge Dean, requesting the latter to grant him a new trial, in a case which had been tried at the last term of our Court, for what Mr. Wharton t thought were good and sufficient legal treasons, a basis of a two-column article in which it assails the Judge, the Jury Com-missioners, the Sheiff and the Commis-storms, the Sheiff and the Commis-stuffing the jury-box. And not content with this, it endeavors to lug Mr. Scott into its wonderful concortion, The whole story bears upon its face such marks of mendacity and ignorance that any intolli-t gent person, conversant with the progress
