

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-Made and Stolen

Whortleberries are plenty. Huntingdon's scandal monger has arrived. FIFTY CENTS WILL PAY FOR THE JOURNAL FOR THREE MONTHS!

George, whose surname is Black, knows just when he smells it. You can't fool him. Broad Top is still shortening its time between this place and Bedford. They run wickedly now.

Bro. Corman is off to the Bear Meadows on a sporting expedition. We wish him a splendid success.

Hon. Sim. n Cameron took breakfast at the Morrison House, on Monday morning last, on his way to Bedford Springs.

Lytle will take a horn, if he has a chance, when he runs with the engine. But, then, he is no good blower, surely.

Three old cars were ignited and burned near McVeytown, on Wednesday last, detaining the Way Passenger train several hours.

Father Brown, of Dudley, we learn, realized thirteen hundred dollars out of his Festival on the 4th of July. This can't be beaten very readily.

The bearded individual, who was whipping his horse, in the Diamond, on last Thursday evening, should have been arrested for cruelty to animals.

Our neighbor, of the Tyrone Democrat, has taken unto himself a wife. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joys of the many."

Burley Jack Hiestand, of the Lancaster Examiner, and other kindred sports, passed through here the other day, on their return from Bedford Springs.

John J. Kerr, Esq., has been appointed postmaster at Bedford Springs, vice Hon. W. B. Leas, resigned. This is a capital appointment. We congratulate our friend Kerr.

The first floor of Fisher & Sons' Plaster Mill, on Penn Street, gave way on Sunday evening last, and did considerable damage. No one was in the edifice at the time.

Goody, the queen of lady magazines, for August, is upon our table. It is a steadfast friend of the ladies. Price $3 per annum. L. A. Godey, Philadelphia.

Beck, who frightened everybody, last week, by collaring cats, is on his pins again, as a rule, as well as a week as a cat. Three Doctors, however, are enough to this anybody out.

For selling liquor without license, John Lee, of Three Springs, is boarding with Sheriff Hoack. We expect to hear of several parties in this town being similarly situated before court.

Gov. Hartman passed through Huntingdon one evening last week. He didn't notify us to meet him at the depot, and, unfortunately, we remained in blissful ignorance of his contemplated visit.

Benjamin Longenecker, of Middle Woodbury township, Bedford county, aged about 70 years, fell dead in a pasture field where he had gone for his cows, on Monday evening, the 14th of July, inst.

A female passed our office, the other evening, with a severe attack of the "kangaroo hump." It was made up of old dresses, pillowslips, stockings, papers, &c., and from its motion Paul thought that it was alive.

A German named Augustus Ginter, employed by Messrs. Miller & Rhoads, on the Lewisburg, Center and Tyrone Railroad, was killed by a stone falling from a derrick on his head, on Tuesday evening of last week.

When you are coming to Court next week, or the week following, don't forget to put a few dollars in your wallet for the printers. Of course we refer only to those who owe us, and they are a host. We need money badly.

The ladies of Warriorsmark and vicinity propose holding a Festival, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the 7th, 8th and 9th, of August, (day and evening) the proceeds to go towards furnishing the M. E. Church. The public are invited.

Mr. Isaac Fisher has been among the mail bags ever since 1833, and yet he is, comparatively a poor man. Honesty is written all over him. We have heard of fellows picking up fortunes among the bags in one-tenth of this time. But, then, some people are so much luckier than others.

When a visitor to the Bedford Springs asks for better accommodations than he receives, the third rate hotel proprietors, who have mismanaged the establishment for almost a score of years, answer, "If you don't like your accommodations you can leave. We didn't send you!"

Gov. Hartman was in attendance at the Commencement exercises of the State Agricultural College. This week he expects to make a tour through the anthracite coal regions, and thence to Saratoga, accompanied by Attorney General Dimmick. The party will return to the State Capitol about the 5th prox.

In Tyrone a terrible riot occurred on Monday of last week. It was the occasion of a menagerie exhibition, and several employees of the Keystone Bridge Company got drunk in that local option village. The liquor being of a fighting quality, they commenced slashing around loose, beating policemen and unoffending citizens. At latest accounts several of the rioters have been landed in the Hollidaysburg jail.

On Sunday afternoon last a couple of young men were fooling on the old bridge spanning the river at Bedford Springs, when one named Coulter, the military knave, and the other, named Conrad, which struck him and entered his groin to the depth of several inches. The wound is not dangerous however. This ought to be a lesson to those parties to be more careful in throwing their knives about.

Bathurst, he that drives Henry & Co.'s team, has been boasting about the goodness of his mules. On Wednesday last they upset his wagon, dragged it three times around the stable, and cut up mullen generally. He thinks now they were only "foxing" to get a good chance on him. The only time a mule is perfectly safe is when about twenty-five cars have passed directly over it; but, then, this never happens.

If any body wants to get an idea how slowly things are done at Washington let him apply for something to one of the Bureau of the Patent Office for instance—and in nine out of ten cases, we should think, the applicant would die of old age, before it comes to hand. We have been waiting for some copies of record which we suppose will reach here several years after we have left for a better and more healthy climate.

It is related of a Pattonville, Bedford county friend—a widower, by the way, who has raised a family—while on a recent visit to Yellow Springs, Blair county, he was requested to assist an interesting widow lady to secure her ample crop. Our friend shouldered a cradle, and went at it with a will, and it was only with the utmost exertion that four stout young fellows, by alternating, could do anything with him. The widow, no doubt, thought that she would prefer him to the best piece of machinery she had ever heard of. We hope so. He has had much experience in cradling.

A two-year old child of ex-Sheriff Bathurst, of Mt. Union, was run over by a cart, on Friday, the 18th inst., and badly bruised. It is recovering.

A few evenings since, while some young men or boys were passing an unoccupied house in the vicinity of "Manor Hill," their attention was attracted by the falling of some heavy substance upon the roof of an out-building close by. They paid but little attention to this at first, but as they advanced a little further, they changed to cast a glance toward the house, which led to their astonishment at a white object, of mammoth proportions, was about to fall upon the porch. The boys thought an investigation of the matter entirely out of place, and, as a matter of course, they "got up and dusted." They verily believed they had seen the veritable "Old Nick." "Faugh! there isn't any ghosts!"

We have heretofore published the narrative of the reported murder of a child in Saxton, Bedford county, by one Harry May. Says the Hollidaysburg Register: "Harry May, until the last few months, was a resident of Dunsmville, this county. Last winter whilst working in the shops in Altoona, in a quarrel with one of the workmen, he was struck with shovels on the head and so badly injured that it was supposed he would not recover. He, however, got well.

He then left his wife and infant, and came to this place, where he was taken up by the woman who now shares his imprisonment. He is quite simple, and the proper place for him would be in the Lunatic Asylum."

Mr. S. Cresswell, of Petersburg, has a very fine Maltese cat, a great monster, that a short time since, made its appearance with a living member of the rat kind, which it took a great fancy. A basket was prepared for it which it spent hours fondling and caressing its unnatural love. The members of the family fed the rat to the great satisfaction of the cat.

The pet would leave the rat and go in search of prey and on her return she would sit and jump up with her feet upon the basket and mew most motherly and look for the rat. The watch was a very neat one and is valued at $150. People will be more careful for least nine days as to whom they will admit into their houses.

Go to Henry & Co., and buy Delaines at 12 1/2 and 15 cents, which sell elsewhere at 25 cents.

THE BANKRUPTCY LAW.—The case of Lance Walker, recently tried in the United States Court, says the Philadelphia Ledger, is one proof of the efficiency of our bankruptcy laws. Here was a man who, after a tolerably fair start in business, seems to have determined to break with all the laws that govern a society. The jury had found that he had concealed his property, or rather that of his partners and creditors, and wasted their money in an effort to get a divorce. It is small wonder that the merchants to know that the immunity to honest debtors does not apply to the case of a man who willfully and fraudulently conceals his assets, and leaves to the court the possession of a resort to law, which simply takes more money and puts the debtor under no additional penalty. Walker seems to possess an obstinacy of purpose in pursuit of his own ends, that applied to good objects, might command a high degree of success. For nearly two years he has preferred a jail to a compliance with the request of his creditors, his assignees in bankruptcy, and even his own court, to let them what had become of his assets. In old times this would have ended in possibly sixty days imprisonment in our county prison and a discharge under the State insolvent laws. Now, he has stood the test of a jury trial, and the issue has been decided against him. At least one other such case stands for trial in the same court, but the very frequency of such proceedings shows that the United States bankrupt laws, fairly administered, enable honest debtors to get a discharge, and prevent dishonest men from trying to defeat the law and justice.

New Hats and Caps just arriving at Henry & Co's.

ATTACKED BY A PANTHER.—A correspondent of the Pittsburg Commercial writes from Lock Haven as follows: On Thursday last, (the 17th) a party of young women went out from Queen's Run to the mountain just back of the settlement, gathering whortleberries. One of them, Jerasha Bryan, advanced a little further into the woods than the others, when she was attacked by a huge panther. Her companions, hearing the brute scream, sought safety in flight, but Miss Bryan, finding escape impossible, determined to stand ground, and resisting a determined knot, gave her enemy battle. The contest was a close one for a few minutes, until, however, judgment and coolness soon triumphed over brute strength, and the heroic woman soon had the satisfaction of laying the blood-thirsty monster dead at her feet.

Her garments were torn into shreds, and her face and arms badly scratched, but she walked home with a firm step and the light of triumph in her eye, and was able to give a good account of herself. The dead panther was soon afterwards found by the people of Queen's Run and proved on measurement to be six feet seven inches long. Miss Bryan is the hero (or heroine) of the neighborhood, as she well deserves to be. We doubt whether an instance can be found on record, of more cool, heroic bravery and wise discretion, developed by any woman, even in the most heroic and perilous days of Pennsylvania.

BEAUTIFUL Shawls for sale at Henry & Co's.

A DARING LEAP FOR LIBERTY.—About two years ago, a warrant was issued in Huntingdon county for the arrest of a man, whose name we failed to learn, on the charge of fornication and bastardy. He managed to keep out of the way of the officers of the law till last week, when he was captured at some point on the line of the P. & E. railroad by a deputy sheriff of Huntingdon county. He was handcuffed by the deputy sheriff, and after they had proceeded on their journey to within a short distance of the place of destination, the deputy sheriff suddenly remembered that he was thirsty, an unlooked-for bracelet binding him to the prisoner in order that he might visit the water cooler. The train was moving at the usual rate of speed.

So soon as the back of the deputy sheriff was turned, the prisoner deliberately jumped feet foremost through an open window of the car. He alighted in a soft morass, and was not hurt, for he immediately picked himself up and ran to the water cooler, where he was met by the officers, who, in some unaccountable manner he was precipitated beneath the train, his body resting between the tracks, so that his neck was immediately upon one of the rails, and a portion of the train passed over him, severing his head close to his body, as neatly as if it had been done by an expert executioner. The head was dragged several feet from its trunk. The body was but little injured, though almost stripped of every vestige of clothing. His coat was dragged upwards of one hundred yards. He had a companion who had joined him at Altoona, and from him it was learned that the unfortunate man was an Englishman by birth, and that he was seeking the coast to return to England. A few papers were found upon him, but neither from them nor his comrade could his name be ascertained. The railroad company took charge of his remains.

A STORE FOR SALE.—The undersigned being in ill-health, desires to engage in some other business, consequently he will sell his entire store, consisting of a full stock of Dry-Goods, Groceries, Notions, &c., located on the corner of Ninth and Washington Streets, West Huntingdon, known as the "Jeffreys & Watson Stand." It is one of the best locations in the town. The terms will be as reasonable, if not more so, than can be obtained elsewhere. Persons desiring to invest, will find it to their advantage to apply within ten days. A. EYERS.

JUNIATA VALLEY CAMP MEETING ASSOCIATION.—The attention of the reader is directed to the advertisement of this association in another column, soliciting Sealed Proposals in another column, soliciting Sealed Proposals for the 26th of August, for beef, fuel, straw and milk. There is still a limited number of tents not rented. One hundred tents are at the Tabernacle will be in readiness by the 15th (26th of August.) announced for the Camp.

Men here are beginning to talk politics but

LITERARY NOTICES.—Every reader of The Advertiser is sure to be charmed with its beautiful and reasonable illustrations, as well as pleased with its fresh and piquant literary contents. A magnificent full-page marine view occupies the number, from the pencil of M. F. H. de Haas, N. A., one of our great painters of water scenes. It is a truthful sketch of what may be seen almost any day on Long Island Sound. Mr. F. T. Vance, who made the region a subject, contributes a series of original pictures of the grand Adirondack mountains and lakes, which are very timely, as that region is now full of pleasure seekers. There is a paragraph of "Lake Colden," remarkable for its lights and shadows, depth and feeling; one of "Avalanche Lake;" another of "Calamity Pond Brook;" and a charming one of "Flume Falls of the Adirondack;"—four as fine views from the proposed great National Park, as ever appeared in an Art Journal. A tender and eloquent full page picture illustrates a poem called "A Good Dog." The remaining illustrations, all fine works of art, are "Group of Deer," by Specht; "The Explanation," after Herper; "Not Dressed," by Peddie; a humorous sketch by W. M. Hart; "The Fly;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and "Crossing the River." The literary contents of the Advertiser keep pace with its gems of art, and are this month unusually interesting. There are two delightful stories: "The Crow's Requiem," by Eckermann; "Chartrain," and "A Queen's Image," by Clara F. Guernsey. Music, Art and Literature receive, each, careful attention. The poems in this number are, "Found Wanting," by Mary E. Bradley; "An Uncollected Sonnet of Edgar A. Poe;" "On the River," by Robert Kelly; "Weeks;" and "A Good Dog," by S. Lang. Selected poetry $5.00 including Chromos "Village Belle;" and