This Fry and five or six small frys constituted the tremendous outpouring of the Republicans as they mis represented would come of on this occasion; and this meeting too was a consolidation of the Borough and Township, as all the business for both was done at the same session and by the same organization.—The great body of the republicans being too wide awake and too well posted of the situation to bite at such an unpalitable bait.

In addition to the above five or six interested or sympathic persons there were several other persons present as spectators among whom there were three or four Democrats who were ready, as we suppose, to render any timely aid.

or sympathic persons there were several other persons present as spectators among whom there were three or four Democrats who were ready, as we suppose, to render any timely aid and comfort that their half-brethern might need in their extremely critical condition.

One exceedingly dim light was sufficient for them to transact all their important business. A brave soldier who had been all through the war, happening to pass that way testifies that their room was as dark as Libby Prison and the inmates just as disual. All things being in trim, the august president announces the object of the meeting. SENSIBLE —The efforts of a few crack-brained fanatics to have a definite recognition of the Christian religion inserted in the constitution of the United States are apposed by all sensible men. No good Christian would all sensible men. No good Christian would be sensible men. No good Christian would be sensible men. You go wish to disfranchise a neighbor who held to some other form of belief, and a religion which has so little vitality that its continuance depends upon State aid—says the Hollidaysburg Standard, and which we mostheartily approve—is a shame and afraud. The Centre Baptist Association, which held its session at Bell's Mills last week, holds decided opinions upon the matter, and adopted the following incisive resolutions. They are eminently sensible and truthful:

A few days previous to this meeting Wm. Woods visited this place to establish a program (we suppose) for the guidance of his little infant meeting.

incisive resolutions. They are eminently sensible and truthful:

Whereas, Systematic and persistent efforts are being made to insert in the Constitution of the United States a declaration of belief in the existence of God.

Resolved, That, as Baptists, we are opposed to any declaration of Christian doctrine on the part of the State by making it a part of the organic law, or otherwise, believing the testimony of our Saviour who declares, "My Kingdom is not of this world,"

Resolved, That in our judgment, no benefit to religion itself, could possibly result from such change if effected.

Resolved, That Christianity has ever won its noblest triumplus, while free from State control and acknowledgment; and that its days of deepest gloom have been those while living under the patronage of civil government.
