

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

SUPREME JUDGE: Hon. Isaac G. Gordon, of Jefferson. STATE TREASURER: Hon. Robert W. Mackey, of Allegheny. SENATOR: John Irwin, Jr., of Centre county. ASSEMBLY: William K. Burchinell, of Huntingdon. COUNTY TREASURER: Thomas W. Montgomery, of West. COUNTY COMMISSIONER: Charles R. McCarthy, of Clay. DIRECTOR OF THE POOR: James H. Lee, of Jackson. AUDITOR: James H. Davis, of Morris. JURY COMMISSIONER: John G. Stewart, of Mt. Union. CORONER: John Laporte, of Franklin.

Republican County Committee Meeting.

The members of the Republican County Committee of Huntingdon county, are respectfully requested to meet at the COURT HOUSE, on WEDNESDAY, the first day of OCTOBER next, at one o'clock in the afternoon. Business of importance to be transacted. J. HALL MESSER, Chairman.

TO DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.

Since the first of July last we have found it exceedingly difficult to raise sufficient money to meet the pressing necessities of our business, in fact, at times, we have scarcely known whither to turn to raise money enough to pay our employees, our paper bills, and other necessary expenses, that can only be met by cash payments. This has been a source of great annoyance to us and interfered very much with our duties as an editor. It is not calculated to brighten a man's ideas to have to throw down his pen every few hours and run out to gather up sufficient money to purchase one of his hands a sack of flour or some equally necessary article. Especially is this the case when he knows that thousands of dollars are due him on subscriptions, which, if paid as they should be, would place him in a comparative position of independence. It is an absolute fact that out of the 1600 names on our list not 400 of that number have paid up to the first of January next. Have we not good and sufficient reason to scold? There are at least 400 who have not paid up for two years and 100 who have not paid us a farthing since our connection with the JOURNAL. This is a little rough. We have no desire to dun our subscribers, but what are we to do? Must we invest our money, year in and year out, and submit to all manner of inconveniences to oblige men who take no more interest in their country paper than this?

We hope all that are indebted to us will see the necessity of responding at once. We want money badly. Send it by mail, or at risk, if mailed in presence of the post-master. Come, don't keep us waiting longer for what is due us. Pay up!

Guss and Woods are temperance men! They want to defeat Burchinell with McAttee. Too thin!

The Temperance men of this county, are not blind enough to vote for Dunn to elect an Anti-Local Option man.

Examine the Registry List and see that every Republican in your district has been assessed. Do so without further delay.

The out and out Leaguers will vote for McAttee, and those who can't be induced to do this will cast half a vote for him by voting for Dunn.

The League men think they know John G. Stewart too well. They can't vote for him. He won't stuff the Jury box for them; that's the trouble.

Dunn is in favor of licensed houses, keeps whiskey in his cellar by the keg, and yet he asks temperance men to support him! This is impudence unparalleled.

Poor Dunn really believes that Guss and Woods are going to vote for him! Does he remember Hon. A. A. Barker who ran only a year ago? They will go for Dunn and vote for McAttee!

The "Potato Bug Ticket" will not get a single vote in a half dozen districts of the county, while in a number of others it will only get from one to eight. The from three to eight in a district will be the extent of its support.

Hereafter it will cost $16,000 per year to run the Poor House, if the Regular Republican candidate should be defeated. The Leaguers and Democrats are working together in the matter. Logan will be retained and the funds for running the League will have to be furnished from that source.

The League draws its funds for running the campaign from the Democrats and the Poor House. Both are rather questionable sources, but if the Democrats will be accommodating it is a matter of their own; however, it is quite different with the tax-payers; they don't feel like having their taxes consumed in this way.

In the dark and trying hours of the rebellion a number of patriotic and unselfish Democrats of Huntingdon county, broke over party ties and aided and assisted the government in its efforts to overthrow armed treason, which act fortunately cost their lot with the Republican party. Now these men are denounced as renegade Democrats by those who have robbed the unfortunates of that rebellion of thousands.

THE MAKE-UP OF THE BOLTERS' BOGUS CONVENTION.

To enable our readers to comprehend the make-up of the Bolters' Bogus Convention, we make the following analysis: Alexandria—One delegate gathered up on the day of Convention. Brady—Five votes; Jacob Musser setting in his wagon presiding over the meeting. Broad Top City—One of the delegates an out-and-out McAttee man. Carbon—An Election. Cass township and Cassville—No report. Clay—Two votes besides those of the delegates. Coalmont—Six votes for Levi Evans, and none for Heaton. Heaton did not participate. Cromwell—No election. Dublin—No election. Franklin—No election; but represented by H. S. Laird by motion in Convention. Henderson—Six votes. Hopewell—No election. Huntingdon, 1st Ward—No election. " 2d Ward—No election. " 3d Ward—No election. " 4th Ward—No election. Jackson—No election. Juniata—Three tenths of Wm. H. Woods, in this district, elected two of their number delegates—Jacob K. Peterson being the odd man—at some barn, aided by the presence of W. H. Woods. Lincoln—No report. Mapleton—No election. Morris—No election; no representation. Mt. Union borough—Seven votes. Mt. Union district—No election. Oneida—No report. Oriskania—No election. Penn.—Nine votes. Petersburg—No election nor representation. Porter—No report. Shade Gap—No election. Shirley township—No election. Shirleyburg—Ten votes; one Democrat and John Logan, Poor House man, who belong to the township. Springfield—No election; but Ephraim Baker, of Oriskania, was made a delegate by the Convention. Tell—No election; no representation. Tod—No report. Three Springs—No election. Union—From six to eight votes. Walker—No election. Warriorsmark township and borough hold a joint meeting, and four or five votes were cast. West (Upper)—No election. There is no such man as C. Hamer in the township, and John A. Green, the only delegate present, was elected by the Convention. West (Lower)—No election; no representation.

There is but one sore spot in the Republican organization throughout the State, and that is in Huntingdon county, where a very small minority of men, all of whom want to be leaders and candidates, are in antagonism with the regulars. It is a combination incapable of doing more harm than create topics of scandal for our opponents to roll under their tongues, and when the day of the election comes, the leaders of this famous plot will be alone in their glory. The great mass of the Republican party all over the State want peace and victory.—State Journal.

Some officious fellow has turned the scent of the Globe after Dr. McCarthy, to whom it attributes all manner of things, and threatens to daub his picture. Well, well, well, we might have a two column article of whinnings and boo-hoosings in that paper, we here say that Doctor McCarthy is not the man, and that he has not written Dutch, English or dumb letters for this paper, soiling the burnished linen of its immaculate editor. Try again, please.

The Leaguers try very hard to make a point against a few active Republicans because they were once Democrats. If it had not been for men of this kind, who came to the rescue of the government in its greatest peril, these Leaguers would not now have a Republican party to outrage. All honor to the men who shook off party ties to save their country from ruin.

If Capt. Burchinell had only a countenance like the editor of the Globe no one would suspect him of being addicted to the vice of intemperance, however much they might suspect him of being a candidate for the State's prison. Perhaps now the editor thinks countenances have nothing to do with it.

Dunn will please remember when Woods was upbraided for having nominated Hon. A. A. Barker and then having turned around and supported Spear, that he justified himself by saying that others had done the same thing. The man who could do as infamous a thing as this one can do it again.

There has been great excitement throughout financial circles, owing to the suspension of Jay Cooke & Co., E. W. Clarke & Co., and several other banking houses, on the 18th inst. It is thought the suspensions are only temporary, and that they will be able to resume payment in a short time.

Temperance men, why are Guss and Woods trying to engineer the Temperance craft? Ain't it simply to take a few votes from Burchinell, a consistent temperance man, for Dunn that will count one each for McAttee who is a straight whiskey man? Every Republican vote for Dunn is one for McAttee!

The Patriot dishes up a column of Huntingdon county politics which displays a lamentable ignorance of the actual State affairs. P. M. Lytle, Esq., the Patriot is informed, does not train with that crowd.

Guss and Woods are making arrangements to slaughter Dunn by trading him off for votes for Poor Director and Treasurer. They want to handle the county funds. Tax-payers, fall them in their scheme of plunder.

Examine the Registry List and see that every Republican in your district has been assessed. Do so without further delay.

The Bolters' Convention Repudiated!

A SOUND REPUBLICAN TO THE FRONT!

Vote the Full Republican Ticket!

HUNTINGDON, PA., Sept. 18, 1873. Editor Journal:—My attention has been called to the fact that my name has appeared in the columns of the Huntingdon Globe, under date of 9th inst., as a delegate from the Second Ward of Huntingdon to the Bolters' Convention of that date. I have no knowledge of having been elected to fill the position, and feel extremely anxious to know by what authority my name is thus used. I have never been identified with any faction in the Republican party, but claim to be a consistent and straightforward Republican, and intend, if I live to vote on the second Tuesday of October, to vote the Republican ticket nominated by the 12th of August Convention. I therefore most heartily repudiate any affiliation with the "Bolters' Convention," and would most earnestly recommend all good and true Republicans to do likewise. Yours, respectfully, R. O. MACDONALD.

Still Another Repudiation!

THE BOTTOM IS FALLING OUT!

HUNTINGDON, Sept. 20, 1873. Editor Journal:—My name has appeared in the columns of the Globe of the 9th inst., as a delegate to a meeting purporting to be a Republican County Convention, but in reality a convention of self-constituted delegates without the voice of the people whom they pretended to represent. I was not at said meeting, and took no part in the affair, as I am not in sympathy with the movement, but expect to support the regular Republican ticket nominated by the Republican County Convention of August 12th, 1873. Respectfully, C. A. ESTES.

AND STILL THEY COME!

The Old Thing Gone to Staves!

GUSS, WOODS & CO, BOO HOO! BIRMINGHAM, Sept. 22, 1873. Editor Journal:—I see my name mentioned in the Globe as a delegate to the Secession Convention held on the 9th inst. I wish to make the statement through your columns that I knew nothing of a delegate election in this old Republican borough for a convention on the Guss call, nor did I know that I was a delegate to the "Potato Bug" gathering. I am now, as I always have been, a straight Republican. I condemn the movements of the Guss convention, and will go the full ticket nominated August 12th. Yours, &c., PETER KNOBE.

Since our last issue we have received intelligence from all parts of the county, and from every quarter we are assured that the Potato Bug ticket will not receive any greater support than that given to the Independent ticket last Fall. I work, friends, and the regular Republican ticket will be elected by at least 500 majority. If our friends do their duty, there is not a particle of doubt the whole ticket will be triumphantly elected by a greatly increased majority over last Fall.

State Supreme Courts are reaffirming the decision that when a railroad sells a ticket for passage to a certain point it is with the understanding that the holder shall be furnished with a seat. When failure to do this is made, the holder of the ticket can legally claim damages. In all cases the company is bound by the plain terms of a contract made in the sale of a ticket to furnish the holder with a seat.

The nomination of John Irwin, Jr., of Centre county, as the Republican candidate for Senator, is most favorably received by all classes. His selection from among the worthy candidates before the conferees is in itself a tribute to his worth, and may destroy some Democratic prospects which had glittered in the eyes of sundry politicians of that school.—Lewis-ton Gazette.

We have a letter from Franklin township which says that Laird, who represented himself and nobody else in the Potato Bug Convention, is the only man in the township who will vote the ticket. Thus we go. Our people begin to see the thinness of this thing, and the Democrats are beginning to regret that they paid their money to get it up to so little purpose.

The Republicans of Huntingdon county are in earnest; they do not intend to leave a vestige of the miserable faction, which has cursed the county for years, at the coming election. From all parts of the county we hear of such an uprising of the indignant masses that the wretched tail of the League, which is still wriggling, will be ground to powder.

It is extremely doubtful whether Guss and Woods can secure a sufficient number of votes for the "Potato Bug" concern to materially effect the regular ticket. Men who claim to be honest and true Republicans would just as soon touch a leper as meddle with it.

The Guerrillas have a very striped ticket—it reminds one of the potato bugs—in fact the "Potato Bug Ticket" would be a good name for it. After gorging themselves full the frosts of October are about to slay them.

John Logan, he of Poor House notoriety, is sloshing around like a bull in a china shop, working hard for the defeat of James H. Lee, the Republican candidate for Poor Director. Elect Lee, and John's days will be few.

The late Bolters' Convention contained about fifteen sermons and an equal number of old Leaguers, and the balance was made up of slysters, hangers-on, political fossils and bunners.

THE TEMPERANCE MEN AND THE DEMOCRACY.

The Democratic Convention of Dauphin County passed strong resolutions in favor of the repeal of the Local Option Law, and placed the party fairly on a Whiskey Platform. The last Temperance Vindicator comments as follows upon these resolutions, viz: "So reads the resolutions of the Democracy of Dauphin County, passed as the Patriot tells us, by a UNANIMOUS VOTE. In that representative assemblage not one man was to be found who would protest against the passage of such resolutions, threatening to take from us the only chance we now have of putting down the traffic in strong drink by the voice of a majority of the people.

It is not my intention to show, as would be well done, that the resolutions are founded upon false assumptions, but simply to call the attention of my Temperance brethren, who ARE "THIRD PARTY MEN" to the difference between the Republican and Democratic parties on this great question. In the one case we have two men nominated for the Legislature who took an active part in the anti-liquor movement. They advocated it as a religious and moral duty, believing they would thereby advance the best interests of their fellow citizens and help to reduce taxes, pauperism, and crime. In this they did their duty. The question was not a party one; men of all shades of political opinion recognized the necessity for the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating drinks, and the fact that they had so acted, was sufficient to obtain for them the support of a large majority of the delegates in that convention.

But these short-sighted men have determined to bring the question into party politics in the hope that they may draw off from the Republican party the votes of those that believe with them on this issue, and to secure a share of the spoils that they have these many years longed for.

"Is the duty of every honest Temperance man not now made apparent? WILL IT NOT BE A CRIME AND A BLUNDER TO WITHDRAW OUR SUPPORT FROM THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AT THIS TIME, BY ANY ATTEMPT TO FORM A THIRD OR PROHIBITORY PARTY? I have it from the best of authority that the liquor men who controlled the late Democratic convention intend putting forth hereafter efforts to make it successful. They will expand their strength on the candidates for the Legislature; will trade off votes against the other officers at any odds if they may win on this point; AND IF TEMPERANCE MEN WITHHOLD THEIR FULL AND EARNEST SUPPORT FROM THE REPUBLICAN PARTY NOW, THEY WILL BE DOING THEIR CAUSE AN INJURY ALMOST BEYOND REPAIR. Whatever doubts any of us may have had on this matter before, the action of the Dauphin Democratic Convention must have dissolved them, and made our duty plain."

A friend writes us from Alexandria as follows: "I see, by this week's paper, that the name of John Holsinger appears as a delegate to the Potato Bug Convention. Let me say for Mr. Holsinger that he was not there as a delegate. I will tell you how his name came to be used. The town of Alexandria was hunted over for a man to act with the famous letter-writer. Once Laird thought he might have to take the old Squire, but he gave that up, and concluded that he might catch some unfortunate in the town of Huntingdon. As he was posting about the town, seeking whom he might devour, he fell upon Mr. Holsinger, who had gone to Huntingdon on business, and froze fast to him. He prevailed upon Mr. Holsinger to allow him to use his name, and in an evil moment, he consented. He is a Republican but no politician, and will not vote for Dunn and his striped companions when the election comes among us."

A correspondent from Hubbersville wants Barnum to procure Dunn's "good looking convention." He thinks it would be a rare collection of "beasts"—This is rough on Barnum, but it might be a good thing for the convention. By way of explanation: When Dunn looked around over the body which nominated him he had intended saying "this intelligent convention," but thought that would be putting it a little strong, so he modified it by saying "this good-looking convention." Here is where the laugh comes in.

Springfield, the most regular and staunch Republican township in the county, feels outraged at being paraded to the world as having been represented by Eph. Baker, a citizen of Oriskania, in the late Bolters' Convention. She feels the disgrace keenly. She had refused to participate, and then to have a citizen of another district voted in to represent her, is insufferable. She will repeat the insult at the polls.

The card of Mr. R. O. Macdonald, of the second Ward, speaks for itself. He repudiates the striped affair. The people can now see how the Bolter's Convention was gotten up. The bottom is falling out of the affair. A few more kicks and the old barrel will fall to staves.

Mr. Macdonald, who is a thorough going Republican, says: "I, therefore, most heartily repudiate any affiliation WITH THE 9TH OF SEPTEMBER AFFAIR KNOWN AS THE BOLTERS' CONVENTION, AND WOULD MOST EARNESTLY RECOMMEND ALL GOOD AND TRUE REPUBLICANS TO DO LIKEWISE!" That's the "kind of talk!" All good men will stand by the party.

The fourth resolution of the Potato Bug Convention will certainly disqualify quite a number of that crowd from holding office.

Dunn claims to be opposed to the Penna. R. Co., and yet he is leading himself to secure the election of McAttee, who is owned by that monopoly. "Consistency, thou art a jewel!"

Examine the Registry List and see that every Republican in your district has been assessed. Do so without further delay.

MR. MACKEY.

The election of this gentleman to the important office of Treasurer of the State, may be taken for granted. He has borne himself ably, and the arrows of his opponents fall harmless at his feet. Why not? They are out, and would get in. We excuse their clamor.

It cannot be denied, we think—that to say, the fair-minded will hardly deny that the Republicans have managed affairs ably. Under Democratic management the State finances showed no reduction of the State debt, while under Republican management the debt had been reduced from $41,000,000 to $26,051,516.60.

Of this reduction $574,745.94 was made during August 1873.

Under such circumstances it is ludicrous to find the Democrats endeavoring to prove some imaginary deficit in the accounts, and complaining of the large balance always kept on hand as a safety guard.

The Republicans have managed the State finances with shrewdness and skill, and deserve credit for it. The debt of the Commonwealth, on which we have to pay interest, is only $17,000,000, as the rest is offset by a debt due the Commonwealth by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which pays the interest regularly, and extinguishes a portion of the principal annually.

All this has been accomplished without any increase of taxation. Indeed the tax on real estate has been abolished, and some minor taxes also.

The surplus in the Treasury increases annually in consequence of the steady reduction in the load of interest to be paid.

Hence if we wish to increase this surplus available for public objects, we have only to go on reducing the principal of the debt. Ever since the war, the debt has regularly and largely diminished, and to Mr. Mackey must much of the credit be given.—All Day City Item, Sept. 16, 1873.

The Lewistown Gazette twits us in regard to our poverty, and thinks we have "no interest in this district except to fitch a political living out of it." If this is our object we have a very strange way of doing it. We came here, from an adjoining district, bought the Republican, and consolidated it with the Journal and American, and three years hard work ought to be able to demonstrate whether we did it in good faith or not. Almost every dollar that we have realized out of it since, we have put into the office until we have an office second no where outside of the large cities. This ought to give us some interest, certainly. Beyond this we have been a consistent Whig and Republican for twenty years—never was anything else—and we have edited a partisan paper, off and on, since we were eighteen years of age, and in that time we have helped to elect hundreds of men to office who have forgotten our services almost immediately, and yet have never filled an office of any kind which has paid a salary of forty dollars per annum. We have helped to enrich hundreds and remained poor ourselves. We have worked for principles, and the man who intimates ought else—lies.

At long last we have a tardy admission from the editor of the Lewistown Gazette that he "cannot understand the factional fights" in this county. Then he should have held his peace. We take pleasure in informing him now that there has been no "factional fights" here—only an effort by the true Republicans to shake off a secret oath-bound League which had fastened itself upon the party many years ago. This League elected the first Republican Jury Commissioner, and filled the jury-box with its sworn adherents. In 1869 it nominated a ticket out of Mr. Woods' office over named soldiers and the best men in the county, and the true members of the party became exasperated at such conduct and struck its ticket down. Since then the aforesaid League has been constantly striking those who helped to strike it down in 1869. Now it has a separate and distinct organization. We have endeavored to break up this League, and we have felt all the time that the Gazette was disparaging our efforts.

It is said that the Democrats agreed to pay Guss and Woods $1,000 if they would call a Bolters' Convention and nominate a ticket. The sudden manner in which the Convention was called gives credit to the statement. Every Republican vote for the Bolters' ticket counts one for the Democrats. We hope that the money will be fairly shared out between all those who vote the Bolters' ticket.—Each is entitled to his share.

A. W. Wright, the Bolters' candidate for Jury Commissioner, who is running for the mere fun of the thing, unless Squire Brooks, the Democratic candidate, can be induced to decline, was one of the principal parties in saddling the heavy bounty debt upon Union township, which is weighing her down as if a mill stone were hung about her neck. There was a handsome League swindle in that bounty matter.

If the Bolters' Convention cost the Democratic party $1,000, as alleged, who received the money? We suppose that each of the delegates to the Convention marched up and got his share. Who acted as paymaster? If it was not done there must be foul play somewhere. Those who received the money have pocketed it, and do not intend to share evenly.

The Leaguers say they will elect the Democratic ticket, and that it is fully understood that Logan is to be retained as Steward if Horning is elected. Tax-payers, Republicans and Democrats, do you want the Poor House to cost $16,000 per year? If you do not, vote, and see that your neighbors vote, for James H. Lee.

"Don't vote for Montgomery; he is a big, overgrown fellow; vote for Green, who is a poor, decrepit creature, only fit to be a treasurer." Vile Globe. The farmers and tax-payers generally vote for those whom they can trust. They know "Tommy" Montgomery.

We call attention to the call for the meeting of the Republican County Committee in another column.

Wherever the Leaguers have had control the People are groaning beneath a terrible load of taxes.

They are now endeavoring to get the affairs of the county in their hands by manipulating the tax-payers. If they should succeed the tax-payers will learn what it is to trust these fellows, who make copies of their duplicates and add on large percentage and collect it, as has been the custom not only in Porter but other portions of the county.

Republicans do not lend your aid to Guss, Woods & Co. to elect McAttee, by voting for Dunn, and thereby secure them the money promised in case of his success. A thousand dollars has already been paid for putting a ticket in the field, and another thousand is to be paid in the event of defeating the Republican ticket. Will you help these political tricksters to put money in their pockets?

The Globe mendaciously asserts, from week to week, that Capt. Burchinell is a renegade Democrat. CAPT. BURCHINELL HAS NEVER BEEN A DEMOCRAT! He went into the army before he was of age, and there he became thoroughly identified with Republicanism, and has acted earnestly and consistently with the party ever since.

Dunn is only used to catch votes that would otherwise go for Capt. Burchinell. He is not intended to take any from McAttee. That would be out of the programme. If a voter won't go for Harry, then the next best thing is to get him to go for Dunn. The game is fully understood. McAttee and Dunn are piping through the same quill.

At least forty important banking houses have suspended in Philadelphia and New York within ten days. Many of them the oldest and most substantial houses. The immediate cause has been carrying too much wild cat railroad stock and securities. The crisis will effect the country but little. The country is prosperous and such speculations cannot effect it.

We have received a number of letters which speak of "William Dunn" as being the Potato Bug candidate for the Legislature. Why is this, pray? It is not "Billy" but "Dave" that is running for the Legislature. If any persons go to vote the Potato Bug ticket because they think "Billy" is heading it they should be undeceived!

Union township, which is now weighed down with a bounty tax that is almost unbearable, has been under the control of the League for the last decade. Wherever the League has had control of the affairs of a district the tax-payers have been robbed without mercy. Look at Porter for an illustration!

The Monitor asserts very confidently that Gilbert Horning will be elected Poor Director. Will it be kind enough to tell us whether John Logan; honest, John, you know; will be retained if he is elected? People want to know, you know.—Elect Mr. Lee and John's days are numbered.

The Leaguers had a singular though effective way of raising the wind for campaign purposes. They used to make copies of their duplicates and add a handsome per capita additional and collect it. They would settle by the original duplicate and collect by their copy. It was a nice way to raise the wind but it was a little rough on the farmers.

The editor of the Globe smiles a smile of satisfaction when he thinks of how easily they have been able to sell their followers to the Democrats. We are surprised that some of the veterans of the League will allow themselves to be sold like cattle without sharing the spoils. It is rather a rough financial operation.

Billy Dunn wishes us to inform our readers that he is no way related to Davy Dunn, the tool of the man who does up the fish-market slang of Spear & Co.'s Globe. Billy is still engaged in the bone trade, and says that he is anxious that his friends should know that he is not simple enough to be used by such knaves as Guss and Woods.

When Jay Cooke & Co., and others suspended, a few days ago, some of our enthusiastic Democrats predicted that it would ruin the Republican party. Not so fast. The Republican party does not depend upon a banking concern for an existence, by a jug full.

In addition to the card of Mr. R. O. Macdonald repudiating the Bogus Convention, we take pleasure in presenting those of Messrs. Estes and Knobe. These gentlemen stand by the good old Republican faith, and ignore shams set up to elect the Democratic ticket.

The editor of the Globe charges Capt. Burchinell with being intemperate, and claims that his tool Dunn is strictly temperate. The difference is that Dunn buys in his whiskey by the keg, while Captain Burchinell don't deal in "red-eye" at all.

The Democrats were boasting on the street corners, on Monday morning, "the Globe was going to give the JOURNAL thunder this week." This shows in whose interest that sheet is working. Well, let 'er flicker! Its recoil that hurts.

It is intimated, in the Globe, that Joseph M. Wilson, Esq., of Cassville refuses to serve on the Regular County Committee. We are authorized to say that this is a positive falsehood. Mr. Wilson will work and vote for the whole Regular ticket. Mark that now!

Back Pay is a good thing and Harry J. McAttee knows it. He put himself on a Back Pay Platform. Tax-payers, do you want Harry to vote himself an extra thousand or two? If you do, elect him to the next Legislature, if not, elect Capt. Burchinell!

Our Democratic friends must not forget that Harry J. McAttee was in the Democratic Convention and voted for the Back Pay Resolution. Harry is in favor of Back Pay. He will have a chance to get it if he goes to the Legislature.

New To-Day.

THE 14th ANNUAL EXHIBITION

OF THE HUNT. CO., AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, WILL BE HELD AT HUNTINGDON, PA., OCTOBER 7, 8, 9, and 10, 1873.

The Committee of Arrangements feel safe in announcing that this year's exhibition will surpass any ever before held in this county. The Premium List has been revised, and exceeds any heretofore offered by the Association. The same has been printed in pamphlet form, and can be had at printing and book stores. The same has been stored where large bills are posted and from officers of the Association.

J. White, Esq., furnished the proof of the existence of the "People's League," in the handwriting of Dr. Shade, and now Guss and Woods bemoan him.—White, you should not have done this thing, and then you would be a bully fellow.

The remainder of the Polaris crew was rescued by the whale-ship Ravensraig, twenty miles south of Cape York, longitude 20 degrees, and were transferred to the steam whalship Artic, which landed them at Dundee, Scotland, about the 18th, inst.

The editor of the Globe does not love Horatio G. Fisher, Esq. He grinds his teeth at him, snaps at him, makes ugly faces at him, and then, as if no longer able to control himself, he squirts a lot of mud at him. Poor squirt!

The witty editor of the Globe only perpetrates seventy-five puns on the word Dunn. It is evident he has an over-dose of Dunn. He is trying to throw it off. We supposed it would nauseate him. He and the faithful will go for McAttee straight!

We have the best evidence in the world upon which to deny the story that one of the Republican candidates was intoxicated on his way home from the Convention. It is a lie after the manner of the Leaguers—a League lie.

Dunn says confidentially to landlords that he is in favor of granting license to hotel-keepers because he can't see how they can run their hotels to make it pay otherwise. A nice temperance candidate, indeed!

A mail bag was accidentally thrown off, at Mill Creek, some time ago, which contained a few Globes for the lower end, and the editor of that paper excuses himself upon the subject. "Tall achers from little toe-corns grow."

Burchinell and Thyhurst, without the fear of the Globe before their eyes, went to Harrisburg and laughed, the naughty fellows, when Guss didn't get his seat, and he makes mouths at them now. Boo hoo!

The effort of the Globe to characterize the movement of the People, to crush its infamous League as a Ring movement, falls as flat as its effort to disorganize the party as flat.

Senator Scott and H. B. Swoope, Esq., opened the campaign at a Republican mass meeting held at Indiana, on the 23d inst.

HOW TO REMOVE STAINS AND SPOTS FROM MARBLE FURNITURE.—The only way which Sapolio will not remove is a "stain upon the character." But from marble mantels, tables, china, tableware, carpet, furniture of every description, or any article of household ornament or use, the deepest dyed stain can be instantly washed out forever by the use of Sapolio. It is as cheap as ordinary soap, and will always do exactly what is claimed for it, if the simple directions are followed.

I have for years been opposed to Calomel, and since 1839 have used SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR as a Vegetable Remedy, and can confidently assert that it has exceeded my expectations curing cases of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint that were thought almost hopeless.
