The best oysters in the market are to be had nevertheless like to say a few things before the election to the Republicans of Huntingdon county.

I heard Woods say on the streets of Huntingdon, before the August Convention, that "if it were in his power no man should be sent to the Legislature this Fall favorable to the re-election of John Scott as United States Senator," and I heard Guss say that "that if they (the Woods party) failed to carry the approaching Convention it was all over with him in this county—they might as well quit fighting Scott and everybody else." Now, Mr. Editor, the people can see what prompts those sublimely pure Republicans, Guss, Woods & Co.—SELF INTEREST AND DEMOCRATIC MONEY! They have raised the hue and cry, in the Globe, of fraud, deception, corruption, and everything else, practiced in the last regular Convention. But every intelligent man knows that all this is done simply for "Buncombe," to deceive and prejudice the minds of the people, to induce them to vote against the regular ticket. Guss and Woods pocket the money obtained from the Democratic allies, and their tools in the country without a cent, do their dirty work. The Globe proclaims that theirs is the Republican ticket —that that headed by Capt. Burchinell, is a ticket composed of renegade Democrats and should not be supported by Republicans. What Balderdash!

as I am concerned I will trust John Scott, S. I. Brown, and others, who have been villified and slandered by the Globe, as exponents and representatives of the principles of the party which I believe has saved the country and made it prosperous as it is. If Guss and Woods don't like Scott, Brown, and others personally, its none of my business. They can't induce me to do their dirty work, and with them lead a helping hand to head a descript hand to head a helping hand to head a descript hand to head to hea personally, its none of my business. They can't induce mo to do their dirty work, and with them lend a helping hand to break down the party organization, and thus stub those men, as they think, who are infinitely their superiors in political fidelity, temperance, virtue, intelligence and morality generally.

But who are some of Guss and Wood's adherents and tools in the county? I learn that Adam Heeter, of Clay township, is one—a man who have shon. John Scott, just because Bill Woods does—a man who has been liberally rewarded for all the trifling service he every did the party. He held the office of Director of the Poor for three years, and then tried to secure the nomination for Associate Judge, but failed; then turned his held against the party and poisoned the boson that warmed him into political life. He voted for Spoer twice—for Buckalew, Greeley, and the whole bastard County ticket last Fail. That's the kind of a Republican Adam Heeter is; and I am told he is going it strong for the Bogus Mule Ticket this Fail. "Oh, Shame! where

Mule Ticket this Fall. "Oh, Shame! where is thy blush!"
Dr. J. F. Thompson, of Clay, is another apt illustration of political consistency. He has obtained favors at the hands of the party, having been both a Congressional and Senatorial Conferce; now he is for McAteer for the Legislature, the Democratic candidate, and for the balance of the Bogus ticket, believing Dunn not to be worthy of his support. Don't know whether greeabneks had any thing to do with his going for McAteer or not.

I trust the Rebublicans of Clay township will not allow themselves to be duped and deceived by such men at the approaching election.

Ladies, when you wish to get the latest style hat, call and see them at Wm. March, Bro. & Co.'s. Ir you want a Parlor Stove, go to Stewart too.'s.

deceived by such men at the approaching election.

Then you have, Mr. Editor, Ephraim Baker, who was one term at Harrisburg, ex-Sheriff Neely, also the immaculare John Logan, of Poor House notoriety, who, it has been said, "is all legs without body or brains," voting nearly all the time the Democratic ticket, yet holding position under Republican administrations. All these, and some others, whom I could name, have been rewarded by the party, but are new supporting the Begus ticket. They should be ashamed of themselves, and stick their fingers in their mouths, and their mouths in the dust, and cry, "Uuclean, unclean! O, Lord! let a repenting Republican rebel live!" CROMWELL.
