We congratulate Senator Scott on his glorious success in his own county. He has had as severe fight with a faction of members of the Legislative for the principles of men calling themselves republicans, but who care very little for the principles of the party. The Leaguers boast very much of their standing by their ticket, and yet they mourn 'in sorrow sore' over the defeat of McAteer. The truth of the whole matter is this: the JOURNAL whipped porter. them up to the support of their candidates. them up to the support of their candidates.
