

Farm and Household.

God Bless the Farm.

God bless the farm—the dear old farm! God bless it every rood, Where willing hearts and sturdy arms Can earn an honest livelihood!

God bless each meadow, field, and nook, Bege med with fairest flowers! And every leaf that's gently shook, By evening breeze or morning showers,

The orchards that in early spring Blush rich in fragrant flowers, And with each autumn surely bring Their wealth of fruits in golden showers

And may he bless the farmer's home, Where peace and plenty reign, No happier spot 'neath Heaven's high dome Than here, secure from care and strife,

Unweary by toil and tricks for gain, He turns the fertile mould; Then scatters on the golden grain, And reaps reward a hundred fold;

How to keep your winter Apples. The following excellent suggestions are offered by the Vermont Farmer:

The way that most farmers save their winter apples is to hole them up, like potatoes, or pile them up in a cave or cellar.

By this method you not only lose much time, but lose very many apples; and what you do keep over winter are in a bad condition.

When you gather your apples from the trees, put them in these boxes (be careful not to bruise them) and lay the boxes on each other in your apple house.

Two men will handle these boxes with ease. You can look your apples over with but little labor. When you are ready to ship, just nail a board over the top and you are ready.

In this way you get your apples to market in good condition and handle them but once. Keep your house as cold as possible at all times, without freezing.

Threshing Timothy. The Country Gentleman says: The best way to get out timothy seed is to thresh it with a flail—for although a machine will work more rapidly, yet the seed which it cuts and wastes more than overbalances the advantages.

When threshed out, then spread it out on the floor, go over it again with the flail—then pass it very slowly through a fanning mill, so as not to blow out the seed, (which can soon be learned by examination); then pass it through a sieve fine enough for the clear seed to pass but retaining the chaff and seeds, and thresh the latter again—and so on, till all is saved.

PEACH TREES.—Dr. George B. Wood, President of the American Philanthropic Society, having noticed that his peach trees, after producing a few crops, ceased bearing and died in a few years, and believing that the cause of the decay was worms at the root of the tree, dug holes five or six inches deep at the base of the stem, scraped away all the worms that could be found, and filled up with wood ashes fresh from the stove, strong in potash.

This was done in the autumn, with a result in the following spring at which he was astonished. The trees appeared to have been restored to all their freshness and vigor—put forth bright green leaves, blossomed copiously, and bore a heavy crop of fruit. He attributes the favorable results more to the effects of the potash contained in the ashes than to the destruction of the worms.

A DRY CELLAR.—A correspondent of the American Agriculturist tells how to make a dry cellar out of a wet one. He says: "Dig out the bottom of the cellar, commencing at the sides 2 inches below the walls, increasing the depth to the center, so it shall have the form of an inverted arch; then the earth should be pounded firmly and well cemented, allowing the cement to go under an inch or so, and up the sides two feet. Then the bottom should be filled up level with sand and paved. If this is all properly done the cellar will be permanently dry."

ASH BATH FOR FOWLS.—An English poultry journal says: Wood ashes are excellent and make the best bath a fowl can have, but coal ashes causes them much suffering and discomfort.

Fumigating poultry houses with sulphur, thrown on glowing coals in an earthen vessel, and keeping the house closed for several hours, is said to be a perfect remedy for insects of all kinds. The poultry must of course be removed before the experiment.

A FARMER should never go to town without carrying something to sell—better, eggs, potatoes, poultry, or even a load of wood. By so doing his income is quite sure to exceed his outgoes. There is no more miserable and poverty-stricken way than to keep sending to stores and shops, and having things charged, with the expectation of paying for them when special crops come off, for these crops seldom or never turn out as well as expected.

PARSNIP STRAW.—Parsnip and slice together, in the proportion of one large parsnip to three or four medium sized parsnips. Cook 30 or 40 minutes in a small quantity of water, so that when you have put in a little flour thickening it will be nearly as dry as hash; though some might prefer it more moist. A little cream improves it. With no other addition than a little salt, this forms a delicious food.

REVERSED. WESTWARD. EASTWARD.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD CO. BEDFORD DIVISION.

On and after Sunday, August 20th, 1873, Passenger Trains will arrive and depart as follows:

NORTHWARD. SOUTHWARD.

ARION PIANO. IS SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

THE ARION PIANO-FORTE has greater power than any other Piano-Forte manufactured.

It will stand in Town Longer, and in its mechanical construction it is more perfect, and therefore, more durable, than any instrument constructed in the usual modern style.

THE ARRANGEMENT OF THE AGRAFFE, the manner of stringing, the peculiar form and arrangement of the Iron Frame

SUPERCEDES ALL OTHERS. The use of a bar (which is a part of the Iron Frame on a line with the heavy steel stringing), gives

GREAT STRENGTH. Where most needed, and in this respect all other pianos fail.

THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE WRIST PLANK, into which the tuning Pins are inserted, is such that it is impossible for the pins to come loosened, or the Wrist Plank itself to split, as is too often the case in other Piano-Fortes.

THE EXTRAORDINARY EVENNESS throughout the scale, the excellent Singing Quality, the

LENGTH AND PURITY OF VIBRATION, all go to prove what we claim, viz: that the ARION PIANO-FORTE IS THE BEST INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURED.

ALSO ESTEYS COTTAGE ORGANS, WITH THE VOX JUBILANT AND VOX HUMANA.

THE NE PLUS ULTRA OF REED ORGANS, universally acknowledged to be the BEST Organ made for Sunday Schools, Churches, Parlors and Lodges.

Having more power, with a sweeter tone, than any other Organ in the market notwithstanding the representations of any organ interested in the sale of other Organs, we do fully warrant every Organ for the period of five years, (at our own expense).

We have no agent in Huntingdon at present, therefore all who want one of the best Organs existing may receive, by corresponding with us, a price and descriptive list from which a selection may be made, to which we will give our personal attention, and guarantee satisfaction.
