ted by the Court in order to bring the matter be-fore a jury. A jury was accordingly selected, and the case went to trial this week. The case occu-pied two days. The plaintiff attempted to show, by numerous witnesses, that he would reap no benefit from the road, but on the contrary, by ta-king his land and cutting up his meadow, so are to render a large amount of fencing necessary and irrigation impossible, the company had caused him to sustain damages to the amount of $6000. The defence replied by trying to show the advan-tages the road would afford him, giving him an easy market for his inmber, coal, and other pro-duce, and the increase in the value of his land. The jury, after being out a short time returned with a verdiet for plaintiff for $2708.432. ART DEPARTMENT, 1874. The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an atiasitted fast that its wood ents are examples of the highest perfection ever at-tained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly, yielding to a more educated and discriminating tasts which recognizes the ad-vantages of superior artistic quality with greater favilities of production. The wood-cuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate find a better read ring of the artist's original. To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of the art enlure in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representa-tions of the productions of great painter. In addition to designs by the moments of the Mational Acentery, and other noted American actust, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscriber of THE ALDINE will, at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasures and refining influences of force art. Thousa Moran and J. D. Woodyard. The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain spa-cial designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.
