The Huntingdon Journal. Wednesday Morning, Jan. 7, 1874.

To OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS.

In this, our annual greeting, we beg leave to state to our friends that after due deliberation we have concluded that on and after JANUARY 10th, 1874, we will adopt the TOPE CASH SYSTEM We have arrived at the conclusion, through motives of economy, both to ourselves and patrons.

time about his business free of expense.

A good advertisement insures a business basis, and is in a certain sense a guarantee to the customer of fair and moderate prices.

Experience has shown that the dealer whose salaries and laborers' wages. The following is wares have obtained a public celebrity is not enabled to sell, but is forced to sell, at rea-

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—We clip the following handsome compliment, paid one of our Huntingdon county boys, a son of Judge Clarkson, of Cassville, from a paper published our Huntingdon county boys, a son of Judge Clarkson, of Cassville, from a paper published in Bel Air, Md., where he travels:

On Friday last our most esteemed and efficient minister, Rev. B. F. Clarkson, received a surprise visit from his friends of Bel Air, Thomas' Run, Darlington and Franklin. Those kind friends came loaded with a profusion of good things. They filled the Rev. gentleman's bins with oats and eorn, and his larder with beef, pork, sausage, groceries and other good things. The meeting was social, convivial, friendly and entertaining. Mr. Clarkson richly deserves this well-mertiad tribute of respect from his friends, for since his sojourn amongst us, he has been laboring indefatigably in the vineyard of the Lord. His preaching is chaste, eloquent and refined, and he is well calculated to do the holy work of his Immaculate, Divine Master. He is a high toned, social gehtleman, and everybody that has had the good fortune to make his acquaintance esteems him. We regret when we think that the next Conference may send our favorite minister to some other field of action; but go where he may, he will be followed, by the kind wishes of his numerous friends of Harford, for his continued welfare.

THE NATCHER DIAMOND DRESS FOR

BROAD TOP CITY, PA., Dec. 20, 1873. Broad Top Cirv, Pa., Dec. 20, 1873.

To Millers and Mill Owners: Gents:—
We have made a trial of G. Natcher's Diamond Dress in our Steam Mill, and we agree with what John S. Isett, Cresswell, and others say as to its merits. It grinds faster with less power than any that has ever came under our notice, making a high percentage in yield and quality of flour. We esteem it a valuable invention and recommend it to all millers and consider it the best tool we have ever seen, and invite millers to call and see it cut and examine our work.

LITERARY NOTICES.—Wood's Household Magazine for Janusry, contains a lavish supply of first rate asticles. It is now in its fourteenth volume, and every year has increased its popularity and added new friends to its large list of admirers. Though retaining its old name, it has not the slighthst connection with its former proprietor, but has for many months been the exclusive property of Mr. S. E. Shutes, its present publisher. If, V. Osborne (Tenoroon) still continues as its editor and is the only person employed in that capacity—giving to the magazine not a careless supervision, but direct personal attention in every department. The magazine is improving constantly, and is splendidly adapted to the members of the household. The present number contains three engravings and rother good things in proportion. Price of magazine one dollar par year—with chromo Yo-Semite, one dollar and a half. Address (Wood's Household Magazine," Newburgh, N. Y.

The Phrenological Journal opens the year

The Phrenological Journal opens the yes 1874 with a most creditable number for Janu ary. The features which make up its lon table of contents are of an unusually invitin NO BOOKS, NO LOSSES, and a consequent reduction in prices. "ECON OMY IS WEALTH," and we will prove by the cash system that it is benificial to both seller and buyer. We have successfully with stood the rigors of the late panic, although many others doing a large credit business have not been so fortunate, as poor TRUST KILLED THEM. The highest cash prices will always be paid for grain and produce of all kinds or taken in exchange for goods at eash prices. We will always keep on hand a complete assortment of goods for the HOUSE, SHOP AND FARM, and will sell them at prices far below those who do a credit business can afford to do, again thanking the public generally for a very liberal support in the past, we hope to merit a larger than in the future. With this brief explanation of our purpose during the year. HENRY & CO.

BRIEF MENTION .-

Shameful—The Shirley township scandal. There were several fights in Mt. Union, on Christmas day.

The Christmas Trees in the Baptist and Episcopal churches were splendid. The roughs of Orbisonia were fighting all day, on Christmas. Who sold the whiskey?

A Ghost.

BY DENNIS O'RAFFERTY The night was dark, And niver a shpark Of moonlight shone at all; But, on the hill, The whippoorwill,
Most dismally did shquall.

Though not afeard,
I thought I heard
A noise behint me house;
So out I shlipt,
On me toes I tipt
As quiet as a mouse.

Thin a low boo-heo!
'Twixt me and you,
'Kem from the garden fined
Och! me jints gov way,
On the ground I lay;
I'm fable iver since.

Ould Mike McGuire, The woollen-dyer— 'Twas jist the day befor— Quite unawares, Fell down the shtairs, And died like many more

And this, his ghost,
Wid shtarin beast,
Now occupied me lot;
And I so sick,
Wid out a shtick
To make the villain throt. Thin I roared so loud
I dhrew a crowd,
And boys, upon me sowl,
They to the place
Repaired in haste,
And found—a big-eyed owl!

Each anxious lad
Cried out, "too bad
To schare poor Dennis so;"
But I felt relaved,
Whin I found I was saved
From a thrip to ghost-land low travel on from Mt. Union to this place, we think there is reason to rejoice over the charge at any price. We are informed that the company is realizing a better patronage for the road both in passengers and freight than they had anticipated. They expect to have the road completed next summer to its terminus. We arrived here safely at 12:30 P. M., making the trip in 40 minutes. A neat tieket office, with comfortable room for passengers, and also a Freight Depot, have been built here. Shirleysburg has not improved any sixee this road has been built, but this is not the fault of the Company. With good water-power, plenty-of iron ore and fimestone accessible, and now a railroad, it only remains for enterprising capitalists to take hold of things here, to make the place compete with any town in the country. Time will tell the tale. Like all country towns, at this time, business appears the county. Time will tell the tale. Like all country towns, at this time, business appears dull here. It would be a waste of time for us to give a description of this place, but permit us to say there is a Lodge of 1. O. of O. F. here, organized one year ago, which is in a prosperous condition, both numerically and financially. We are told that they have more than doubled their number in one year. This is said to be the first society, outside of the Church and Sabbath School, that has been organized in this place, that has lived to be a yearling.

We saw the smilling face of Mr. George Leas, who is still at his old business of selling goods. We have often thought George ought to have

We have often thought George ought to have entered into busines on his own hook ere this, as he is doubtless among the most enterpris-ing men in the Lower End of the county. He is a sound Republican and has done more to There has been considerable turkey hunting done in this vicinity and we are told a large number have been caught. The hunting is not all cenfined to the woods as we are informed that some person found one in F. H. Lane's coop, the other night, that was being fattened for a Christmas roast.

BROWN & TYHURST,

250 CHOICE BUILDING LOTS FOR SALE,

At $50 per Lot—Three Year Payments!

These lots lie within 300 hundred yards of the new school house in West Huntingson; fronting 50 fect on Brady street and running back 150 feet to At No. 525, PENN Street, HUNTINGDON, PA.

They have just returned from a trip among the wholesale manufacturers, of the different kinds of Furniture, Mattresses, &c., buying at exceedingly low prices FOR CASH. They are also manufacturing such kinds of furniture as it will pay best to make here; and they wish it understood, that those who buy from them, will get bargains, as they intend to sell low for cash, and will not have to charge bad debts of worthless customers, to cash buyers' goods. Go and see their PARLOR SUITS and new styles of COTTAGE and FRENCH CHAMBER SUITS, CHAIRS of all kinds, LOUNGES, TABLES, &c.
