The soul of the superintendent appears to be very much exercised, because some private individual would not undertake to spend hundreds of dollars to vindicate the laws, by prosecuting the beast charged with innumerable crimes, while he, the chosen guardian of these orphans, with the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at his back, stood looking on complacently. It was only when the Governor was about to send a special message to the Legislature, on this subject, that this Rip Van ture, on this subject, that this Rip Van Winkle was aroused to a sense of his duty.

THE NATIONAL FINANCES.

The condition of the finances of the country has been the subject to which the attention of Congress, and especially of the Senate, has been directed, more than to any other during the past week. No settled policy has yet been reached. Both in the Senate and House there are able advocates of an expansion of the currency, while at the same time strong arguments are presented in favor of the opposite policy and an early return to specie payments. Others again contend that no legislation on the subject is necessary, and iflet alone the currency and return to gold and silver payments will regulate themselves.

CUTTING pown Public Expenditures.

There is evidently a general determination Congress to reduce the public expenditure to the lowest possible figures. A thoroug examination into the Departments in Washington is now going on with the view of reducing the elerical force wherever the wor will admit of such reduction.

**THE EDICATIONAL FUND.**

THE EDUCATIONAL FUND It will be rembered that a bill was before Congress at its last session to set apart the proceeds of the sales of public lands as educational fund for all future time. The bill was under consideration in the House early in the week; but in view of the general opposition to an increase of public expenditures the further considertion of the bill was postponed to the third Tuesday in March.

VIRGINIA'S NEW SENATOR.

Out of about a score of aspirants the Virginia legislature has selected a Senator. The new Senator, Lieutenant Governor Withers, was a colonel in the confederate service, subsequently he became editor of the Lynchburg Nets, and was the conservative candidate for governor in 1868. Last fall he hotly contested the nomination for governor with General Kemper, and when the conservatives finally nominated that gentleman, he took the second place on the ticket, and received the largest number of votes cast for any candidate. Possibly his course in that canvas earned the gratitude of his political associates, and facilitated his elector for Senator.

The Weather—Sheriff Brennan's Trouble—The District Attorney—Business—The Chief-Jus-ticeship—The Working Men.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15, 1874. THE WEATHER—STREET CLEANING.
Drizzle, drizzle, pour, pour. These four words express accurately the weather that the city has been favored with for a week. A steady, soaking, pouring rain—a rain that kept the gutters full, and the etreets swimming, made New York the most uncomfortable place in the world. The fashionable proposed was the desired that the rain allages were uncomfortable place in the world. The fashionable promenades were deserted, the trade palases were empty, and the pretty-clerks, who part their hair in the middle, had nothing to do but to flatten their sweet noses against the damp panes, looking and longing for the buyer who came not. But the flerer rain was a good thing for New York, for it cleaned the streets. The streets are only cleaned by the rain. The city pays an enormous sum every month for street cleaning, but none of it isever done. The contractors appear promptly the first of each month, draw their money, and go their way joyfully, and the city swims in filth, till agreat rain washes it out into the rivers. Then the stones in the pavement show their heads, the gutters smell a little less like pest-houses, and for a few days, the man who has a nose finus life endurable. New York is alwaysthankful for a good rain.

Editor Journal:—It must surely be a source of great gratification to the people of our mighty commonwealth, to mark with what a degree of many jocose winks and much hilarious rib-punching. Brennan was the bero of the rum-mills, and was the especial admiration of every broken-nosed ruffian in the city. But Judge Daniels put a suddent stop to all this pleasantry; for behold you, he pulled Sheriff Brennan—he adjudged him guilty of contempt of court in permitting his prisoner to escape, and he fined him $250, and, in additions sent him to jail for thirty days, this being all the penalty he coult put upon him. And more, Mr. Sheriff Brennan was notified that the moment he had served his time out, he would be subject to a criminal prosecution for conniving at Genet's escape, which opens the cheerful prospect of Sing Sing to him.

The Then the jocularity attendant upon this seeape escaed. The thieves did not wag their heads and wink their eyes at Mr. Brennan. In jail for allowing a prisoner to escape! Preposterous! Why the thing had been done a thousand times. But Judge Daniels was inflexible, and so the doors of Ludlow street jail closed upon the Sheriff, and the ring is quaking in its boots.

It is true he would have lost a large sum, probably not as much as that, but enough to have hurt him, had not absolutely onead all the stocks he held—Owning them, their going up or down made no difference to him. But the old fox did a very brilliant thing. He not only held on to all that he had, but when prices struck bottom (and he knew when the bottom was struck), he commenced buying all that offered. The rise on the stocks he budgeth that offered. The rise on the stocks he budgeth when they were at the lowest, will make good all his losses, and eventually leave him a large balance. To cure—take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery earnestly, to correct the blood and system, which are always at fault, also to act specifically, as it does, upon the diseased glands and lining membrane of the nose and its communicating chambers. The more I see of this odious disease, the more positive is my belief that if we would make treatment perfectly successful in curing it, we sunt use constitutional treatment to act through the blood, as well as a soothing and healing lovel application. Dr. Sege's Catarri Remedy, when used warm and applied with Dr. Pierce's Masal Douche, effects cures upon "common sense," rational and scientific principles, by its mild, soothing and healing properties, to which the disease gradually yields, when the system has been put in perfect order by the use of the Golden Medical Discovery. This is the only perfectly safe, scientific and successful mode of acting upon and healing it.
