

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

Business is brightening. Enquire parties are popular. The marble season isn't hand.

Bedford county has 948 Odd Fellows. Valuations were numerous on Saturday.

The rifle tournament is on Monday next. Go to the JOURNAL office for cheap envelopes.

Bedford county's latest sensation is a haunted bridge.

That mousethac has gone where the woodbine twineeth.

Danham, of the Altoona Sun, has been on the sick list.

Everybody prunes the illustrated sale bills executed at the JOURNAL job rooms.

The crossing, at the corner of Fourth and Millin streets, is a disgrace to the town.

Schwartz, of the Standard, is playing Deputy Prothonotary vice John R. Bohn, quip ditto.

Our "devil" seem to have an epidemic among them—it is properly called laziness.

Our marksmen are practicing for the tournament which comes off this place, on next Monday.

There were several sleighing parties during the last week, and all "went merry as a marriage bell."

Hon. R. Bruce Pettriken is mentioned as the possible candidate of the Democracy for Governor next fall.

We saw a mere youth, on Thursday last, pass our office so drunk that he could hardly travel. Shame!

The report of the investigation, in the Mt. Union Times, was characteristic. "Oh good Lord! oh good devil!"

Brother Coraman has employed several young ladies to work in his composing room. This is an excellent idea.

There were seventeen immersions, by the Rev. Mr. Hunter, of the Baptist Church, in this place, on last Sunday.

A load of Indiana passed through this place, over the Pennsylvania railroad, on Wednesday last, westward bound.

We are printing a large number of sale bills for the spring sales. Bring them along. We are prepared to do them short notice.

A German, whose name is unknown, fell from the Cincinnati express car, on Saturday evening, at Millin, and was instantly killed.

The residence of James Dean, at Pannux-tawney, Jefferson county, was recently pillaged of sixty-two pies and a bushel of doughnuts.

West township has a debating society in successful operation this winter. It meets every Monday night, and is largely attended.

Our friend, Col. I. H. Rawlins, of Hollidaysburg, is a candidate for one of the next Republican assembly nominations. May he win.

W. H. H. Young, esq., of Tyrone, will be a candidate for the office of District Attorney, before the next Republican County Convention.

A crossing should be put down on Eighth street leading to Henry & Co.'s store, and the bridge across Fishers' dam should be made more secure.

A man named Showalter, of this place, was severely injured, by a rock falling upon him, in one of the Warrior Ridge stone quarries, on day last week.

There are about 7,000 tons of coal, at the coal wharf of the Pennsylvania Railroad, in this place. Additions are made at the rate of twenty cars per day.

Guss boasts that he is going to call at least 247 witnesses. Give him rope enough and he will hang himself. The fellow is really as mad as a March hare.

The Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives was obliged to collar Guss and his attorney, at the trial of the way of the transgression is hard.

John S. Burger, of South Woodbury township, Bedford county, is one of the men who understands raising clover seed. His last year's crop was 120 bushels.

A few nights ago a young man named Baker, formerly of Hollidaysburg, was found dead beside the track of the Connellsville Railroad, near Connellsville.

Two bruisers, named respectively Burke and Smith, fought a prize fight at Sonman, Cambria county, on Tuesday last week. The former was declared the victor.

Mr. William Livingston, of West township, while engaged in loading stone upon a wagon, had one of his legs badly crushed and an arm broken, by a large stone falling upon him.

Mr. Petrick wants to be a candidate for Governor. After his fierce assaults upon the Soldiers' Orphans, in defence of Guss, he will no doubt be very popular with the soldiers!

Mrs. Hiram Rhodes, of West Huntingdon, a most estimable lady, died very suddenly on Thursday last. She leaves five children and a kind and affectionate husband to mourn her loss.

It is rumored that the Globe is going to change hands. The fellow who was going to make it hot for everybody has burnt himself. It is not so much fun in it after all, eh? Bah!

John A. Pollock, esq., of West Huntingdon, talks of locating in Downingtown, twenty miles west of Philadelphia. We would be very sorry to lose him—he is an excellent mechanic.

Samuel Fayler, well known in the criminal courts of Fulton and Franklin counties, and some time ago strangled by Gov. Geary for horse stealing, is again in Chambersburg jail for horse stealing.

Our genial and talented young townsmen, Frank Higgins, esq., has fully recovered from his late illness, and is again engaged on the Pittsburgh Commercial. We shall drop in when we come that way.

A couple of the first shad of the season found their way to our table through the kindness of our friend Harry Fisher, of the "Gem." They were superb. He tells them they were Wednesday and Friday mornings.

The Silly chaps have hung out their bills for the evenings of the 19th, 20th and 21st inst. They will "cut the pigeon wing," on these occasions, to the satisfaction of everybody, and for the benefit of the Ladies' Relief Society.

Quite a number of the witnesses for the people, in the investigation case, were tampered with in one way or another. Some were offered money to stay away. Fortunately there is a statute upon this subject, that is available.

The number of our Freight Friend, for January 24, 1874, comprises the fifth volume. It is a superb number of twelve large pages, finely illustrated, with a tint cover. Sent free to any address by the publishers, Waters & Co., Chicago.

A desperate effort was made, during the sitting of the Committee here, to create the impression that the whole matter was only a political persecution. Suppose some wealthy man's daughter had been treated like the daughters of these poor widows. The council would have been swung up to the first lamp-post. The Democrats are welcome to all the capital they can make out of this kind of thing.

The Philadelphia Journal says it is now certain that the Moshannon branch of the Tyrone & Clearfield R. R. will be extended, how far, depends upon the liberality of property owners and leases of lands along the line of the projected extension.

The sub-Committee will sit this evening, in Harrisburg, to hear further testimony on the part of the people. Testimony is coming forward daily and hourly. There has never been, in the history of immorality, such a systematized debauchery of the young.

Our friend Daniel Kiper, of Onondaga township, is the owner of an old ram, who has the reputation of being the champion of the county, at least that is the opinion of quite a number who have recently interviewed him, and for whom he has "gone" with a vengeance.

Our judicial district will probably remain as it is—Blair, Cambria and Huntingdon—and all because the members of the bar desire it, for fear that any one of them may lose the services of one of the ablest and purest judges in the State; and the people second the lawyers.

One morning last week fifteen employees of the Johnstown Iron Works were burned by the breaking of a lance of a large pot containing molten metal, spilling the contents and more or less burning those around. Three of the unfortunate men were very seriously injured, and the other twelve slightly.

The roof of one of the coal mines at Lloyd's station, on the Bell's Gap Railroad, fell in with a frightful crash, on Friday morning, and killed one man, and injured two others, one of whom, Harry Fox and George Sheltzberger, were very seriously injured, one of them having both legs broken near the hips, and one of his ankles crushed.

A distinguished and sagacious wholesale merchant of New York recently remarked:—"I watch the papers of the locality of my customers, and when I find one who is too stingy to advertise, or if he has withdrawn his advertisement, I immediately close my account with him. The man who can't appreciate the benefit of advertising, will never make a successful merchant, and is unsafe to trust."

O. B. McCrum, of Huntingdon county, we understand, recently bought the John Strong property, near the three-locks, including the mill, store-building, and farm, for $4,800, and intends putting all three in vigorous operation, besides, mining from one on the lands of John Kintner, and Joseph Robb. The work in the mines has already commenced, and the store will be opened shortly.—Leviathan Democrat.

Mrs. Bettie Johnston, of West Huntingdon, one day last week, placed a mass of taffy in the lower part of her stove to warm, and went away; in the meantime some one noticed that it was getting boiling hot, and removed it to a table. Mrs. Johnston coming in and thinking it was only slightly hot, ran her hands into it to work it, and was severely burned. The taffy adhered to her hands, and she had "just more than a sweet time of it."

A fellow named Jacob Stiechy, who created quite a sensation, a year or two ago, as the happy recipient of quite a fortune in this county, while confined in a western prison, tried a second sensation on last Saturday night. He wrote letters to several parties stating that he was going to jump from Stone Creek Bridge, and drop into the water. The night investigation. He didn't jump a bit, however. The ice may have deterred him, which was very unfortunate, consequently he took the Pacific west and left for parts unknown.

"The citizens of Huntingdon need a good general newspaper, and just as soon as they say 'go' we are ready to supply the want. What shall we call it?" So says the Phylloxera. If the people of Huntingdon do, friends, they know where they can get reprints of dollars once a week, for less money, and in better shape, than you can put up anything of the kind in West Huntingdon. By the way, have you made any money that you want to spend upon a venture of this kind? If you have, we know of no better way of getting rid of it.—"We would suggest a 'coach,' or 'Dead Head,' as a very appropriate name."

DEATH OF COL. JOHN MCKEAGE.—With feelings akin to sorrow and sadness we announce the death of Col. John McKeage, which occurred at his residence in Hollidaysburg yesterday. Although the death of Mr. McKeage has been expected for some days past, there are but few, if any, of his many friends and acquaintances who will not learn of the sad event with feelings of the deepest sorrow. A brave soldier than Col. McKeage never lived, his whole life being devoted to the service of his country when its institutions were assailed by armed hosts.

At an early age he enlisted his every energy in the war with Mexico, becoming a member of Co. I, Volunteers, and serving faithfully during the three months' service as Captain of Co. A, Third Reg., P. V., serving his country faithfully for the term of his enlistment.

A short time subsequent to his honorable discharge from the three months' service, he entered the nine months' service as Captain of Co. G, 125th P. V., serving his country with honor.

THE SILSBY MINSTREL TROUPE will exhibit, in Yeter's Hall, on the evenings of the 19th, 20th, and 21st of February, for the benefit of the Ladies' Relief Society. [18-41]

A new lot of goods just received at the Yeter's Drug Store.

Everything that is good to eat is at Henry & Co.'s cheap for cash.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

BOROUGH AUDITORS.

Ma. Zetron.—The attention of the tax-payers and voters of this Borough is called to the important fact that the late Mr. B. R. B. will be completed from this place to the tunnel on Siding Hill by the first, or middle of March. The bridges are now all built over the creeks from this place to the tunnel.

It is thought that the cars will run to that place by the last of April next.

Notice of a special meeting has occurred in our town since I wrote you last. We still have an occasional "knock down," and our fall race of drunken men, and we would just as soon have my men here as any other men in this place to take lessons on boring first, for his own good, and then to take lessons on boring second, for the good of the town.

It is a very little spirit in the wheat market. Small sales at 80c. Corn is at 18c. Rye is at 15c. Oats are at 12c. For western white and red. Whisky is at $1.00 for western white and red.
