And what is more.

Very frequently there is no pretence of separating families by thin partition walls.—
Nen find themselves unable to pay the rect of a whole room, and so two or more families are huddled into a single room, the partition being a mark on the floor. And in these places children are born—families sleep together, male and female. Is it any wonder that the jails and prisons are crowded? Is it any wonder that the jails and prisons are crowded? Is it any wonder that the jails and prisons are crowded? Is it any wonder that the jails and prisons are crowded? Is it is a sharp commentary on our boasted civilization to read in a "society" paper that Mrs. Wm. B. Astor, at a recent bail, wore diamonds to the amount of one million dollars, and laces to the amount of one million dollars, and laces to the amount of one million dollars, and more. The husband of this woman is worth not less than $60,000,000, la his hard lineare, the original Astor, John Jacob, was not quite so bad as his son. The old man died worth $30,000,000. In his last illness he woke up one morning and asked of his secretary:

"Mr,—has Mrs. Wilson paid her month's rent?"

"If is $12. You will see to it at once.—"
