

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Sober.

Call and settle.
Blowing day was lively.

Our new jobbing is cozy.
Henry Lester occupies his new hotel.

Buss is delighted with his new quarters.
Easter Sunday was as usual.

The Legislature convened yesterday again.
Orbisonia wants a policeman and a lock-up.

The public schools re-opened on Monday last.
Two mortal collisions of it in the last week.

We will be glad to hear from "Cinderella" frequently.

The shovel and the hoe brigade are coming to the front.

Charles Estes, esq., now looks down from Mount Pisgah.

The first of the Altoona shops work only eight hours per day.

The first of April has come and gone, and money ought to become plentiful.

The Tod township deersman, it is said, dreams correctly. The villain grows pale.

Fifty hundred employees have been discharged from the Harrisburg car works.

Fresh Shad, every Wednesday and Friday, at the "Gem," on Allegheny street.

A neat iron fence around the Presbyterian church would add to its appearance.

Don't fail to bring or send in all you owe us, next week, or the week following.

There isn't much fun in moving a printing office to the third-story of a building.

Some of our young men sport base ball moustaches—blue hairs on each side.

The Guss indignation meeting was opened with prayer and closed with "cussin'."

Lamberson is doing good work on the river bridge at the foot of Fourth street.

Home-spin coffee, made of rye, is used in Orbisonia. This is said to be economy.

Rev. Messenger has been quite ill from the effects of a severe cold, taken while moving.

Politics was the theme of conversation for the past ten days. There is music in the air.

The Council has postponed the question of Water Works until the municipal election in 1875.

Not a few colds were taken on "morning glory" street. It was one of the unseasonable days of the year.

"Nest" Cunningham, of Altoona, dropped in to see us on Friday. He looks as roused as a peach.

Fourth rate whiskey is said to be plenty at a certain place in Orbisonia. How do you ascertain?

Alexandria has five candidates for Constable. They are said to be as busy as nailers.

J. Mifflin Swoope is going to erect a three-story brick building on Allegheny street, near the depot.

The lady who hurriedly visited her sick mother, on the first of April, "has a spite" at a doctor now.

The usualness of Warriormark rejoice with exceeding great joy at the prospect of getting a bar.

The new board-walk, in Orbisonia, is said to be a nuisance, about 2' o'clock, A. M. No doubt the bears think so.

The old Methodist church at Scottsville is a disgrace to that denomination and to the community generally.

The juniors were at "Cypress Cottage" on Saturday evening last. No doubt they enjoyed themselves hugely.

The Campbell troupe has been favoring Orbisonia with several entertainments which are pronounced a success.

They have "shooting matches" frequently on Allegheny street. Twenty-five cents a pop! Who goes for the beer?

The views of politicians are changeable. They remind us of the thimble rigger, "now you see it, and now you don't."

The Plummer Saw Mill, in Tod township, made its first cut on Thursday, the 26th ult., after a repose of nearly six weeks.

Messrs. Jesse Fetterhoff, Samuel Gray, Joseph Beck and C. Denzate are building houses in Warriormark this Spring.

Warriormark has one of the finest M. E. Churches in the Conference. It speaks well for the farmers in that neighborhood.

The list of unassisted hands, advertised for sale by tax sales, will be found in to-day's paper. There is quite a string of them.

The dwelling house of Mr. George Oschell, in Warriormark township, was burned on Monday, the 30th ult. Loss about $3000.

Dr. Danwidde and Job Trax have started a new drug store, in Warriormark, in which they have placed a handsome glass front.

Slaver's Creek Post Office has just been changed by the Post-office Department to Petersburg. This is a very sensible change.

The waste houses along Trough Creek will no more be haunted, fat meat will not be called for, nor will the fish grow scarce. Guss leaves!

Are we to have a respectable town hall or opera house? We thought this question was settled eight months ago, but it seems we were mistaken.

A pretty young, lady at a boarding house in Orbisonia, has the compliments of a correspondent. We can't be so personal as we were asked to be.

Col. Wm. Foster, who had just returned from Philadelphia and New York, has had a severe attack of neuralgia. He has been confined to his bed.

Judge Calkins and Dr. Isaac Guss were the principal targets at the Guss indignation meeting. These good gentlemen can stand the wrath. Pooh!

Our friend, Jacob, is now located on Fishers' corner, where he has piled up great heaps of store boxes, as if he intended to supply the entire community.

Popular!—The man who received 22 votes out of 101 at the opening of the Sabbath School last Sabbath, at Three Springs! The rest declined to vote. Bah!

The parties who went up to No. 33, West Huntington, to find the James, office on the first of April, blessed Henry Richter. The card on the door No. 300 did it.

Utterly disgraced!—The fellows who wanted aid did not get the vote. They only numbered about 300. Every voter in town expected it to bring credit to his mill.

In the late exciting contest for Auditor, in Tod township, between H. S. Green and Bill Plummer, the former is represented as coming out of the "wee end of the horn."

The good citizens, of Alexandria, complain that some of the boys of the town who claim to be very nice, act very badly while the mill is being distributed. Quit it!

Rev. J. C. Barr, of Alexandria, preached an excellent sermon on Temperance or the ladies' movement. He thought this occasion worthy of that kind in that quiet old town.

The Lewisport Gazette has been enlarged and dressed in a brand new suit, which makes it look as bright as a gold dollar—if any person can remember how bright that is.

A large number of the followers of Guss were disgusted with the performance at the D. Crowell and William Cunningham, who are "Jasam," it is reported, were intoxicated.

Dr. D. W. Haysell, of Warriormark, graduated at the close of the last session of the Pennsylvania University, and has located at Salsburg, this county. We wish him success.

Our job office has been fixed up in our new quarters, and we now have one of the best offices, as we always have had one of the best job offices, in the State. Send along your orders.

The Morrison House is to be entirely rebuilt, painted, papered, slate roofed, and everything made as neat and trim as a brand new dress. James will do the nice thing by those who call with him.

Rev. E. Shoemaker has become preacher in charge of the Three Springs circuit, which he left three years ago. Mr. Shoemaker is an original, close, practical preacher of the M. E. Church.

A few days ago, at Waterfall Mills, Ferguson county, Charles Corbin killed the first of a certain notorious man by the name of Mosby, Wells' Valley. Dr. Hunter says he may regain the sight of one.

A sewer is badly wanted from Millin street to the river, on Fifteenth street. The borough and railroad authorities should put one in. It is so wet in that locality that "Junius Shakes" ought to be numerous.

S. L. Glasgow, we understand, has been offered $10,000 for his farm, at Three Springs; Clay township, $3,000 on 1st April, 1875, and the balance in one and two years afterward. Negotiations still pending.

Our friend Rev. A. R. Miller, late of Richmond Pa., goes to Newton by fall term. We congratulate the M. E. Church at that place on securing the services of so able and efficient a pastor. Come and see us, friend.

Fourteen kegs in a single evening, says the South side brewer, were carried across the Fourth street bridge. And you can imagine his mortification on hearing, at ten o'clock the next day, that the retailers were out. Rather a good business!

Some fellow passed through the tramway of S. S. Africa's, confederately, one night last week and appropriated a few cents of change. He made a similar descent upon the tobacco shop of James B. Post, with about the same success. The rascal should be captured and sent west of the mountain.

The East Broad Top Company, it is said, will commence the erection of two Furnaces in the locality of the Three Springs, during the summer, in case they can find one to justify the undertaking. Members of the company were making the necessary inspection about ten days ago. Ore can be obtained.

The Pennsylvania railroad is still cutting down expenses. It must do this to keep up the net receipts. We doubt whether there is any corporation under the sun that has been so systematically robbed as this road has been. The time has come for the stockholders to see that a stop is put to this sort of thing.

The indignant Potato Bugs and their Democratic allies, who assembled at a meeting on the 26th ult., in order to induce the powers-that-be to rent or buy the school buildings. It is rather late for this step after the Committee has recommended the removal of the school. Six months ago it might have been feasible.

We copy an article from the Altoona Tribune on the Huntington County Agricultural Society, for the purpose of showing the members of the board of directors, that they are not to be kept by falling to comply with a contract—This matter ought to have been satisfactorily arranged, and all would have gone "merrily as a marriage bell."

The appeal, held in Tod township, on the 15th ult., was largely attended by the taxpayers seeking redress of grievances. Esquire Plummer determined to have things equalized, and there was a shaking among the dry bones. It is rumored that the committee appointed to wait upon Hon. D. J. Morrell, to ascertain if a compromise could be made, reported that that gentleman declined to come to any terms whatever. Mr. John Sney was a long speech to the miners, urging them to stand by the union.

On the first instant John G. Boyer, esq., took possession of the "Franklin Home" and his mill in Tod township, for farming purposes. It is a handsome and well-furnished place. It will be one of the best furnished houses along the line of railroad when the new proprietor gets through with it. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer know how to keep a hotel, and they invite all their former patrons to give them a call.

An item in the last Monitor brings an Alexandria man to his feet. The item it questions states that an individual was seen in church at the first of April, who had worn boots for sixteen years. The Alexandria chap knocked this into a three-cked hat. He says William Christy, of that place, has worn a pair of boots for 24 years and a hat for 21 years. But that you can see.

The merchandise item of news, in the Bedford Gazette, and the Plummer-Truman and Scott candidacies in the Huntington Globe, are twin sisters. The author would make a most excellent witness for Guss. The same item speaks of Mrs. Ferry, the pessimistic wife of Capt. Ferry, as being unable to read or write. The Government knew what it was doing. She is as capable of dealing out mail matter as some of the politicians of Tod are to deal out tickets.

The Board of School Directors, of Huntington, have employed the following corps of teachers: Prof. J. Irwin White, Principal; Jacob Black, 1st Grade; Sarah E. Gregory, 2nd Grammar; R. Mary Miller, Intermediate; Mary McCoy, 1st Primary; Maria Shaver, 2nd Primary; Maria Welch, 2nd Primary; 4th Primary to be supplied. West Huntington: George W. Souderson, Grammar; Belle E. Glazier, Intermediate; Mary Ginn, 1st Primary; 2nd Primary to be supplied.—Colored School: Mr. Cresswell.

Our devil burst into the office, the other day, holding his sides with laughter, and when he was able to control himself he stated he had just overheard two men discussing politics on the street, and, who, appeared to be arguing and at something, and that "Republicans of the town of Huntington are a strange breed of cats," which so amused him that the idea of tying up two cats by their tails and throwing them over a pole suggested itself to him, as he always liked to see the treacherous things fight.

Birmingham is an ancient village, situated three miles east of Tyrone, in Huntington county. Once it was an important point in this vicinity, but was comparatively retired. It has a population of some two hundred, a large portion of whom are advanced in years.

Of the aged male people, we have the names of John Owens, esq., aged 84 years; James Thompson, 82; J. C. Copley, 77; Abram Smith, 75; John Wells, 75; John Knobe, 75; Charles

Zook, 70; Jesse Beagle, 66; Samuel Russell, 64, and Stephen Harding, 63. Geo. W. Moore, D. Crowell and William Cunningham, whose names and "Jasam," it is reported, were intoxicated.

Dr. D. W. Haysell, of Warriormark, graduated at the close of the last session of the Pennsylvania University, and has located at Salsburg, this county. We wish him success.

Our job office has been fixed up in our new quarters, and we now have one of the best offices, as we always have had one of the best job offices, in the State. Send along your orders.

The Morrison House is to be entirely rebuilt, painted, papered, slate roofed, and everything made as neat and trim as a brand new dress. James will do the nice thing by those who call with him.

Rev. E. Shoemaker has become preacher in charge of the Three Springs circuit, which he left three years ago. Mr. Shoemaker is an original, close, practical preacher of the M. E. Church.

A few days ago, at Waterfall Mills, Ferguson county, Charles Corbin killed the first of a certain notorious man by the name of Mosby, Wells' Valley. Dr. Hunter says he may regain the sight of one.

A sewer is badly wanted from Millin street to the river, on Fifteenth street. The borough and railroad authorities should put one in. It is so wet in that locality that "Junius Shakes" ought to be numerous.

S. L. Glasgow, we understand, has been offered $10,000 for his farm, at Three Springs; Clay township, $3,000 on 1st April, 1875, and the balance in one and two years afterward. Negotiations still pending.

Our friend Rev. A. R. Miller, late of Richmond Pa., goes to Newton by fall term. We congratulate the M. E. Church at that place on securing the services of so able and efficient a pastor. Come and see us, friend.

Fourteen kegs in a single evening, says the South side brewer, were carried across the Fourth street bridge. And you can imagine his mortification on hearing, at ten o'clock the next day, that the retailers were out. Rather a good business!

Some fellow passed through the tramway of S. S. Africa's, confederately, one night last week and appropriated a few cents of change. He made a similar descent upon the tobacco shop of James B. Post, with about the same success. The rascal should be captured and sent west of the mountain.

The East Broad Top Company, it is said, will commence the erection of two Furnaces in the locality of the Three Springs, during the summer, in case they can find one to justify the undertaking. Members of the company were making the necessary inspection about ten days ago. Ore can be obtained.

The Pennsylvania railroad is still cutting down expenses. It must do this to keep up the net receipts. We doubt whether there is any corporation under the sun that has been so systematically robbed as this road has been. The time has come for the stockholders to see that a stop is put to this sort of thing.

The indignant Potato Bugs and their Democratic allies, who assembled at a meeting on the 26th ult., in order to induce the powers-that-be to rent or buy the school buildings. It is rather late for this step after the Committee has recommended the removal of the school. Six months ago it might have been feasible.

We copy an article from the Altoona Tribune on the Huntington County Agricultural Society, for the purpose of showing the members of the board of directors, that they are not to be kept by falling to comply with a contract—This matter ought to have been satisfactorily arranged, and all would have gone "merrily as a marriage bell."

The appeal, held in Tod township, on the 15th ult., was largely attended by the taxpayers seeking redress of grievances. Esquire Plummer determined to have things equalized, and there was a shaking among the dry bones. It is rumored that the committee appointed to wait upon Hon. D. J. Morrell, to ascertain if a compromise could be made, reported that that gentleman declined to come to any terms whatever. Mr. John Sney was a long speech to the miners, urging them to stand by the union.

On the first instant John G. Boyer, esq., took possession of the "Franklin Home" and his mill in Tod township, for farming purposes. It is a handsome and well-furnished place. It will be one of the best furnished houses along the line of railroad when the new proprietor gets through with it. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer know how to keep a hotel, and they invite all their former patrons to give them a call.

An item in the last Monitor brings an Alexandria man to his feet. The item it questions states that an individual was seen in church at the first of April, who had worn boots for sixteen years. The Alexandria chap knocked this into a three-cked hat. He says William Christy, of that place, has worn a pair of boots for 24 years and a hat for 21 years. But that you can see.

The merchandise item of news, in the Bedford Gazette, and the Plummer-Truman and Scott candidacies in the Huntington Globe, are twin sisters. The author would make a most excellent witness for Guss. The same item speaks of Mrs. Ferry, the pessimistic wife of Capt. Ferry, as being unable to read or write. The Government knew what it was doing. She is as capable of dealing out mail matter as some of the politicians of Tod are to deal out tickets.

The Board of School Directors, of Huntington, have employed the following corps of teachers: Prof. J. Irwin White, Principal; Jacob Black, 1st Grade; Sarah E. Gregory, 2nd Grammar; R. Mary Miller, Intermediate; Mary McCoy, 1st Primary; Maria Shaver, 2nd Primary; Maria Welch, 2nd Primary; 4th Primary to be supplied. West Huntington: George W. Souderson, Grammar; Belle E. Glazier, Intermediate; Mary Ginn, 1st Primary; 2nd Primary to be supplied.—Colored School: Mr. Cresswell.

Our devil burst into the office, the other day, holding his sides with laughter, and when he was able to control himself he stated he had just overheard two men discussing politics on the street, and, who, appeared to be arguing and at something, and that "Republicans of the town of Huntington are a strange breed of cats," which so amused him that the idea of tying up two cats by their tails and throwing them over a pole suggested itself to him, as he always liked to see the treacherous things fight.

Birmingham is an ancient village, situated three miles east of Tyrone, in Huntington county. Once it was an important point in this vicinity, but was comparatively retired. It has a population of some two hundred, a large portion of whom are advanced in years.

Of the aged male people, we have the names of John Owens, esq., aged 84 years; James Thompson, 82; J. C. Copley, 77; Abram Smith, 75; John Wells, 75; John Knobe, 75; Charles

Zook, 70; Jesse Beagle, 66; Samuel Russell, 64, and Stephen Harding, 63. Geo. W. Moore, D. Crowell and William Cunningham, whose names and "Jasam," it is reported, were intoxicated.

Dr. D. W. Haysell, of Warriormark, graduated at the close of the last session of the Pennsylvania University, and has located at Salsburg, this county. We wish him success.

Our job office has been fixed up in our new quarters, and we now have one of the best offices, as we always have had one of the best job offices, in the State. Send along your orders.

The Morrison House is to be entirely rebuilt, painted, papered, slate roofed, and everything made as neat and trim as a brand new dress. James will do the nice thing by those who call with him.

Rev. E. Shoemaker has become preacher in charge of the Three Springs circuit, which he left three years ago. Mr. Shoemaker is an original, close, practical preacher of the M. E. Church.

A few days ago, at Waterfall Mills, Ferguson county, Charles Corbin killed the first of a certain notorious man by the name of Mosby, Wells' Valley. Dr. Hunter says he may regain the sight of one.

A sewer is badly wanted from Millin street to the river, on Fifteenth street. The borough and railroad authorities should put one in. It is so wet in that locality that "Junius Shakes" ought to be numerous.

S. L. Glasgow, we understand, has been offered $10,000 for his farm, at Three Springs; Clay township, $3,000 on 1st April, 1875, and the balance in one and two years afterward. Negotiations still pending.

Our friend Rev. A. R. Miller, late of Richmond Pa., goes to Newton by fall term. We congratulate the M. E. Church at that place on securing the services of so able and efficient a pastor. Come and see us, friend.

Fourteen kegs in a single evening, says the South side brewer, were carried across the Fourth street bridge. And you can imagine his mortification on hearing, at ten o'clock the next day, that the retailers were out. Rather a good business!

Some fellow passed through the tramway of S. S. Africa's, confederately, one night last week and appropriated a few cents of change. He made a similar descent upon the tobacco shop of James B. Post, with about the same success. The rascal should be captured and sent west of the mountain.

The East Broad Top Company, it is said, will commence the erection of two Furnaces in the locality of the Three Springs, during the summer, in case they can find one to justify the undertaking. Members of the company were making the necessary inspection about ten days ago. Ore can be obtained.

The Pennsylvania railroad is still cutting down expenses. It must do this to keep up the net receipts. We doubt whether there is any corporation under the sun that has been so systematically robbed as this road has been. The time has come for the stockholders to see that a stop is put to this sort of thing.

The indignant Potato Bugs and their Democratic allies, who assembled at a meeting on the 26th ult., in order to induce the powers-that-be to rent or buy the school buildings. It is rather late for this step after the Committee has recommended the removal of the school. Six months ago it might have been feasible.

We copy an article from the Altoona Tribune on the Huntington County Agricultural Society, for the purpose of showing the members of the board of directors, that they are not to be kept by falling to comply with a contract—This matter ought to have been satisfactorily arranged, and all would have gone "merrily as a marriage bell."

The appeal, held in Tod township, on the 15th ult., was largely attended by the taxpayers seeking redress of grievances. Esquire Plummer determined to have things equalized, and there was a shaking among the dry bones. It is rumored that the committee appointed to wait upon Hon. D. J. Morrell, to ascertain if a compromise could be made, reported that that gentleman declined to come to any terms whatever. Mr. John Sney was a long speech to the miners, urging them to stand by the union.

On the first instant John G. Boyer, esq., took possession of the "Franklin Home" and his mill in Tod township, for farming purposes. It is a handsome and well-furnished place. It will be one of the best furnished houses along the line of railroad when the new proprietor gets through with it. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer know how to keep a hotel, and they invite all their former patrons to give them a call.

An item in the last Monitor brings an Alexandria man to his feet. The item it questions states that an individual was seen in church at the first of April, who had worn boots for sixteen years. The Alexandria chap knocked this into a three-cked hat. He says William Christy, of that place, has worn a pair of boots for 24 years and a hat for 21 years. But that you can see.

The merchandise item of news, in the Bedford Gazette, and the Plummer-Truman and Scott candidacies in the Huntington Globe, are twin sisters. The author would make a most excellent witness for Guss. The same item speaks of Mrs. Ferry, the pessimistic wife of Capt. Ferry, as being unable to read or write. The Government knew what it was doing. She is as capable of dealing out mail matter as some of the politicians of Tod are to deal out tickets.

The Board of School Directors, of Huntington, have employed the following corps of teachers: Prof. J. Irwin White, Principal; Jacob Black, 1st Grade; Sarah E. Gregory, 2nd Grammar; R. Mary Miller, Intermediate; Mary McCoy, 1st Primary; Maria Shaver, 2nd Primary; Maria Welch, 2nd Primary; 4th Primary to be supplied. West Huntington: George W. Souderson, Grammar; Belle E. Glazier, Intermediate; Mary Ginn, 1st Primary; 2nd Primary to be supplied.—Colored School: Mr. Cresswell.

Our devil burst into the office, the other day, holding his sides with laughter, and when he was able to control himself he stated he had just overheard two men discussing politics on the street, and, who, appeared to be arguing and at something, and that "Republicans of the town of Huntington are a strange breed of cats," which so amused him that the idea of tying up two cats by their tails and throwing them over a pole suggested itself to him, as he always liked to see the treacherous things fight.

Birmingham is an ancient village, situated three miles east of Tyrone, in Huntington county. Once it was an important point in this vicinity, but was comparatively retired. It has a population of some two hundred, a large portion of whom are advanced in years.

Of the aged male people, we have the names of John Owens, esq., aged 84 years; James Thompson, 82; J. C. Copley, 77; Abram Smith, 75; John Wells, 75; John Knobe, 75; Charles

Zook, 70; Jesse Beagle, 66; Samuel Russell, 64, and Stephen Harding, 63. Geo. W. Moore, D. Crowell and William Cunningham, whose names and "Jasam," it is reported, were intoxicated.

Dr. D. W. Haysell, of Warriormark, graduated at the close of the last session of the Pennsylvania University, and has located at Salsburg, this county. We wish him success.

Our job office has been fixed up in our new quarters, and we now have one of the best offices, as we always have had one of the best job offices, in the State. Send along your orders.

The Morrison House is to be entirely rebuilt, painted, papered, slate roofed, and everything made as neat and trim as a brand new dress. James will do the nice thing by those who call with him.

Rev. E. Shoemaker has become preacher in charge of the Three Springs circuit, which he left three years ago. Mr. Shoemaker is an original, close, practical preacher of the M. E. Church.

A few days ago, at Waterfall Mills, Ferguson county, Charles Corbin killed the first of a certain notorious man by the name of Mosby, Wells' Valley. Dr. Hunter says he may regain the sight of one.

A sewer is badly wanted from Millin street to the river, on Fifteenth street. The borough and railroad authorities should put one in. It is so wet in that locality that "Junius Shakes" ought to be numerous.

S. L. Glasgow, we understand, has been offered $10,000 for his farm, at Three Springs; Clay township, $3,000 on 1st April, 1875, and the balance in one and two years afterward. Negotiations still pending.

Our friend Rev. A. R. Miller, late of Richmond Pa., goes to Newton by fall term. We congratulate the M. E. Church at that place on securing the services of so able and efficient a pastor. Come and see us, friend.

Fourteen kegs in a single evening, says the South side brewer, were carried across the Fourth street bridge. And you can imagine his mortification on hearing, at ten o'clock the next day, that the retailers were out. Rather a good business!

Some fellow passed through the tramway of S. S. Africa's, confederately, one night last week and appropriated a few cents of change. He made a similar descent upon the tobacco shop of James B. Post, with about the same success. The rascal should be captured and sent west of the mountain.

The East Broad Top Company, it is said, will commence the erection of two Furnaces in the locality of the Three Springs, during the summer, in case they can find one to justify the undertaking. Members of the company were making the necessary inspection about ten days ago. Ore can be obtained.

The Pennsylvania railroad is still cutting down expenses. It must do this to keep up the net receipts. We doubt whether there is any corporation under the sun that has been so systematically robbed as this road has been. The time has come for the stockholders to see that a stop is put to this sort of thing.

The indignant Potato Bugs and their Democratic allies, who assembled at a meeting on the 26th ult., in order to induce the powers-that-be to rent or buy the school buildings. It is rather late for this step after the Committee has recommended the removal of the school. Six months ago it might have been feasible.

We copy an article from the Altoona Tribune on the Huntington County Agricultural Society, for the purpose of showing the members of the board of directors, that they are not to be kept by falling to comply with a contract—This matter ought to have been satisfactorily arranged, and all would have gone "merrily as a marriage bell."

The appeal, held in Tod township, on the 15th ult., was largely attended by the taxpayers seeking redress of grievances. Esquire Plummer determined to have things equalized, and there was a shaking among the dry bones. It is rumored that the committee appointed to wait upon Hon. D. J. Morrell, to ascertain if a compromise could be made, reported that that gentleman declined to come to any terms whatever. Mr. John Sney was a long speech to the miners, urging them to stand by the union.

On the first instant John G. Boyer, esq., took possession of the "Franklin Home" and his mill in Tod township, for farming purposes. It is a handsome and well-furnished place. It will be one of the best furnished houses along the line of railroad when the new proprietor gets through with it. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer know how to keep a hotel, and they invite all their former patrons to give them a call.

An item in the last Monitor brings an Alexandria man to his feet. The item it questions states that an individual was seen in church at the first of April, who had worn boots for sixteen years. The Alexandria chap knocked this into a three-cked hat. He says William Christy, of that place, has worn a pair of boots for 24 years and a hat for 21 years. But that you can see.

The merchandise item of news, in the Bedford Gazette, and the Plummer-Truman and Scott candidacies in the Huntington Globe, are twin sisters. The author would make a most excellent witness for Guss. The same item speaks of Mrs. Ferry, the pessimistic wife of Capt. Ferry, as being unable to read or write. The Government knew what it was doing. She is as capable of dealing out mail matter as some of the politicians of Tod are to deal out tickets.

The Board of School Directors, of Huntington, have employed the following corps of teachers: Prof. J. Irwin White, Principal; Jacob Black, 1st Grade; Sarah E. Gregory, 2nd Grammar; R. Mary Miller, Intermediate; Mary McCoy, 1st Primary; Maria Shaver, 2nd Primary; Maria Welch, 2nd Primary; 4th Primary to be supplied. West Huntington: George W. Souderson, Grammar; Belle E. Glazier, Intermediate; Mary Ginn, 1st Primary; 2nd Primary to be supplied.—Colored School: Mr. Cresswell.

Our devil burst into the office, the other day, holding his sides with laughter, and when he was able to control himself he stated he had just overheard two men discussing politics on the street, and, who, appeared to be arguing and at something, and that "Republicans of the town of Huntington are a strange breed of cats," which so amused him that the idea of tying up two cats by their tails and throwing them over a pole suggested itself to him, as he always liked to see the treacherous things fight.