

The Huntingdon Journal.

Wednesday Morning, April 15, 1874.

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

Clean up. Potato bugs are frisky. Gardeners to the front.

Send along your job work. Will geese were on the wing on Sunday.

Corps loungers are hunting the sunny side. Some people mistake impudence for brains.

Greenberg is erecting a brick house on Church street.

The Prohibitionist is to be Altoona's next newspaper venture.

Another invoice of "beautiful snow" on Thursday and Saturday.

The Journal office is now one of the most complete in the State.

Several new barns are to be built in Hare's Valley, the coming summer.

Roaring Spring, Blair county, is growing very rapidly. It is quite a village.

Dr. A. P. Fields, formerly of this county, has located at South Chester, Delaware county.

New Enterprise, Bedford county, is pushing ahead.

The young men doing business there have "win."

The East Broad Top Railroad is graded to Three Springs, and by the first of June the cars will reach that point.

Jacob Snyder, an old and well-known citizen of Hollidaysburg, died suddenly on Sunday a week ago, aged sixty-three years.

We are assured that the L. C. & Tyrone Railroad will soon be put in operation. It is asserted that the iron has been purchased.

Col. Conforth went to Caswell to see the children go-forth. The School Department will not do its duty if it does not go for him.

Woodbury, Bedford county, appears to be as dead as a hammer. The young people here have struck out and the old ones lack enterprise.

Our readers will excuse the appearance of the Journal, this week, as we have been too busy moving our office to give it much attention.

A new post-office building is promised opposite the Journal office. This is sensible.

The projectors are Messrs. Blair, Armitage and Elliott.

If we had not been so much crowded, this week, we would have published the Guss-Jason resolutions, but we have had too much on hands.

Our friend, Dr. M. B. Bare, esq., of Roaring Spring, Blair county, sprained his ankle severely, on Tuesday of last week, while getting out of a buggy.

Mr. Sneath has been appointed Supervisor of the Canal from a point near Millerstown to the two locks above Lewistown, vice Benj. F. Shepley, resigned.

W. K. Crises, carpenter, erected an elevator for lowering and raising our forms to and from the press-room in the basement, and he made a capital job of it.

The tubing put up in the Journal office was done by these clean plumbers and gas-fitters, Lewis & Keys. If you want to see a neat job come around and look at it.

Lost—A gold store button, on Friday evening, the 10th inst. The finder will confer a favor by returning it to Rev. J. S. McMurray, 411, Millin street, Huntingdon.

Every man and boy, in five townships and four boroughs, were asked to sign the Caswell-Jason resolutions. Men residing out of the county were solicited and imported.

The worst sold fellows on the continent are the fellows who signed the Guss resolutions. They made a bad record for themselves. If they desire to correct our columns are open.

We are indebted to our friend, Jas. A. Pollock, esq., a most excellent machinist, for the successful transfer of our machinery from our old to our new quarters. He is a practical business man.

We tender our thanks to Messrs. John Miller, H. C. Carmon, John A. Port, Col. George Linsinger, and other friends, for their timely aid in assisting us to put our power press in position.

Miles Query, of Hare's Valley, owns two mules, one of which is 40 and the other 42 miles of age. This indicates they came into existence about the years '32 and '34. Who can beat this?

A fight occurred in Smithfield, on Saturday night last, between two colored men named Paul Bell and Eli Barker, in which the latter shot the former through the hand. Jealousy was at the bottom of it.

Plank Cains can boast of one young man that is raising Barnside whickers. For convenience we will call him Thompson. The girls over there say they put them in mind of two base ball clubs, because there are only one on a side.

We learn that a large number of persons signed the Caswell resolutions believing they were signing a petition praying for the retention of the school. Will Rem, Harper Snyder, and Thomas Dean carried the paper over five townships and four boroughs.

The proprietor of the Caswell Soldier's Orphan School, promptly discharged Messrs. Hatfield and Knudtson, teachers, on Monday of last week, because they would not second his efforts to break up and skeedaddle the school. All honor to these young men.

Quite a sensation occurred in the M. E. Church, at Mapleton, a few nights ago. A young man on seeing his lady pass out at the door, sprang over the pew partition, just in time to seize her trail and catch up when she had gotten some distance from the church. He was overhauled to remark, as they were walking their way up the railroad—"Not quite so fast next time, Alice dear!"

About half-past 11 o'clock, A. M., on Monday last, the alarm of fire was given and the engines Huntingdon and Juniata and the Hook and Ladder Company responded promptly to find smoke issuing from a wash-house attached to the Farmers' Hotel and adjoining Hon. David Blair's residence. It was soon extinguished and, with the exception of a little damage to the roofs of the contiguous buildings, no further damage was done.

Good News.—West Huntingdon Must Come Out.—The people of West Huntingdon will rejoice to learn that Messrs. March & Bro., have purchased John Eiter's store and will hereafter conduct the business in the name of Wm. March & Bro.'s Branch-Store. They are about to re-stock it with a complete assortment of everything the people need. The senior of the firm is now in the east buying the new stock and in a few days the people of West Huntingdon can get what they want near home at prices at least as low as the old town can offer. Wm. F. Wouse, our well-known, clever and accommodating townsman, will have charge of the store, and do his best to please customers and make it their interest to buy of him. ap.8-21

For the Ladies.—A very fine and well selected stock of Ladies' Dress Goods, just received at John Hagg & Co's. [ap.15-21]
