COME AND HELP US! The members of the African Methodist Episcopal Church of Huntingdon have no place to worship in. During the winter they worshipped in a little log school house, owned by Mr. Roman, bat on the first of April they lost possession, and new they are roving around like the lost sheep of the house of Israel. We are obliged to call on the citizens of Huntingdon to come to our aid in building a new church edifice.

TO THE PUBLIC. The members of the A. M. E. Zion Church, of this place, have concluded to build a new church on the site now occupied by the old one, on the South east corner of Sixth and Moore streets, and in order to be successful they prayerfully ask the public to assist them in their undertaking. Their present building is unfit for occupancy, and it is absolutely necessary that they have a new house of worship.

It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree, obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medicinal properties are retained. Tar even in its crude state has been recommended by eminent physicians of recry section. It is confidently offered to the afflicted for the following simple reasons:

I. It curse—not by adverbyl stoepping the coughbut by dissolving the phlegm and assisting nature to throw off the unhealthy matter canning the irritation. In cases of sented Consumption it both prolongs and renders less burdensome the life of the afflicted sufferer.

2. Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain, and auditum; inflammation.

3. It purifies and enriches the blood. Positively curing all humors, from the common pimple or cruption to the severest cases of Screfals. Thousands of afflicativits could be produced from those who have felt the beneficial effects of "Pine Tree Tar Cordial in the various diseases arising from impurities of the blood.

4. It inviporates the digestive organs and restores the oppetite.

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS. EDINBURGH REVIEW, (Whig.)

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE,

By arrangement with the English Publishers, who receive a liberal compensation. These periodicals constitute a wonderful mis-cellany of modern thought, research, and criticism. The cream of all European books worth serious-ing is found here, and they treat of the leading events of the world in masterly articles written by men who have special knowledge of the matters treated. The American Jublishers urge upon all intelligent readers in this country a liberal sup-port of the Reprints which they have so long and so cheaply furnished, leeing sure that no expen-diture for literary matter will yield so rich a re-turn as that required for a subscription these the LEADING PERIODICALS OF GREAT BRITAIN.

Postage two cents a number, to be prepaid by he quarter at the office of delivery. A discount of twenty per cent, will be allowed to clubs of four or more persons. Thus: four-cepties of Blackwood or of case Review will be sent to one address for $12.00; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $48, and so on.

To clubs of ten or more, in addition to the above discount, a copy gratis will be allowed to the getter up of the club.

New subscriptions (applying early) for the year 874 may have, without charge, the last volume or 1873 of such periodicals as they may subscribe
