READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

Summer wanes. Get assessed at once. Dog days ended on Sunday. Bass fishermen are numerous. Turnpike salloons are crashing. The chirp of the cricket is heard. Our Michigan fine cut is unsurpassed. Numerous drunks were visible last week. Old bones was on a high on Friday night. Jonathanmen indulge in moonlight pic-nics. Now is the time to lay in your winter coal. The mercury was among the nineties last week. Days are shortening and gas bills lengthening. Weis beer—whatever that is—is the popular beverage now. Rev. J. W. Plannett spent a few days in town last week. The public schools of this borough will reopen on Monday next. The heat cipher, for the least money, is to be had at the Journal store. The new drug store, on Fifth street, looks as bright as a gold dollar. Copies of the DAILY JOURNAL can be had at our counter. Price five cents. John Wilson's horse "Barney" has been on the sick list for a week past. An exchange defines advertising to be a "blister which draws water." You will need the best tobacco and cigars in town at the Journal store. A street lamp has been placed at the corner of Fifth and Allegheny streets. Stylish young gentlemen wear their hair cut short and their ears outlong. Quite a number of our citizens are off to the Juniata Valley camp meeting. "And yet I am not happy" unless I buy my cigars and tobacco at the Journal store. Some miscreant broke a slab of marble in front of Green & Deaver's shop, one night last week. Our young friend, Joe Jacob, started for Texas on Sunday evening. Success attend him. A party of Calliburnian seceders made things lively in Smithfield, on Thursday night. We hear that the high wind of Friday night destroyed large quantities of fruit in the rural districts. Casting rollers, with the mercury at ninety-six in the shade, is not the most agreeable job in the world. Fifth street, between Allegheny and Washington, in its present condition, is a disgrace to the borough. Two persons were lapped, by immersion in the mill-race, on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Hunter officiating. French milliners are already at work upon the autumn bonnet. They have promised to produce a "perfect lover." The Cave Elm was disposed of, a few days ago, at Sheriff's sale, for $150, to Dr. J. P. Thompson, of Williamsburg. A female musician, with a dulcimer, perambulated our streets on Saturday last, to the delight of the trundle-bed brigade. Smiley is making the boxes for the new post office; and a welcome job he has it, but when completed they will be handsome. All lovers of the weed, who desire a prime article, buy their cigars at the Journal store. None of the count-grab kind kept on hand. Rev. D. S. Geisinger, of Lancaster, formerly of this place, preached a capital sermon in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. Persons intending to stay at camp meeting during its continuance, should provide themselves with stationery from the Journal store. The United Brethren camp meeting closed on Wednesday last, after a continuance of one week. Good order prevailed during the meeting. The Journal is the best advertising medium in the Juniata Valley, and business men will consult their own interests by making a note of this fact. Note paper, of the legal style, now so fashionable, is called by ladies addicted to slang, "hand-over-hand" paper. For sale at the Journal store. Our friend, Jess Summers, esq. of this place, is superintending extensive brick yards in Clarion this summer. He understands the business thoroughly. A man, charged with the larceny of a suit of clothes, in Tyrone, was arrested, in this place, on Friday last, and taken to the former place on the Way Passenger. The Living Age, Altoona's latest newspaper venture, has made its appearance, looking new and trim, but as there are already a number of papers in that county advocating the cause of temperance we see no necessity for this one. On Tuesday last week, while Samuel Lambright, of Tyrone, was painting the gable end of a house, in that place, the scaffold gave way precipitating him to the ground, fracturing his skull, from the effects of which he died the same day. Our stock of blank books, fancy and common papers, inks, pens, pencils, and a full line of stationery, can't be surpassed this side of sun-down. We can beat the Jews and Gentiles in selling cheap. Come and examine stock and hear prices. While all other people are paid their price for labor performed, printers are asked to work for little or nothing. As far as we are concerned, this kind of thing is "played out," and we want everybody to understand that this is no half-price shop. Cigar dealers and dealers in ice cream, candies, &c., who are reported to have been selling on Sunday, will do well to heed this gentle warning, or they will soon stand in the Quarter Sessions to hear Judge Dean pronounce the penalty for violation of the Sabbath laws. Citizens are on the alert.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.—

FULL PROCEEDINGS.—The delegates to the Democratic County Convention assembled Tuesday afternoon in Yenter's Hall, and were called to order by S. E. Fleming, esq. Arthur C. Greenland was chosen temporary Secretary.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. John Stonerod and B. Bruce Petriken, esq., were nominated for permanent chairman, but upon declining, John Miller, esq., of Union township, was elected. J. C. Secler and Arthur C. Greenland were chosen Secretaries. Hon. R. Bruce Petriken offered the following resolution. Resolved, That this Convention will now proceed to the nomination of a candidate for Congress, three Senatorial Districts, one member of the Legislature, a candidate for Sheriff, a candidate for County Auditor, two Representatives and one Senatorial Delegate to the Democratic State Convention at Pittsburgh, and a Chairman of the County Committee. Mr. Shields, a delegate from Tod township, enthusiastically opposed the resolution, stating that his constituents wanted a straight-out Democratic ticket, and would not support a fusion ticket. Major Petriken through his friend Mr. Shields was only in fun, and called for the resolution, which carried almost without a dissenting voice. Hon. H. J. McAteer introduced a resolution nominating R. Milton Spear as the choice of the Convention for Congress, with power to choose his own conferees. Passed unanimously. E. B. Islet, J. P. Horton and N. K. Covett were chosen Senatorial conferees. At this juncture, Major Petriken introduced a resolution conceding the Senator to Franklin county. Mr. Islet objected to serving, and desired that the conferees be unselected. The resolution was sustained by W. C. Caldwell, of Shade Gap, and James Norris of Three Springs, and was opposed by John M. Stonerod, of Birmingham, and Mr. Islet. The resolution passed finally. The Convention then proceeded to ballot for ASSEMBLY. Dr. Wm. P. McNamee, Shilburyburg, 62 Samuel Brooks, Coalmont, 22 M. J. Martin, 2 Dr. McNamee was declared the nominee. SHERIFF. Thomas Bell, 14 24 34 44 54 64 74 T. K. Henderson, 18 21 25 29 33 43 45 Thos Wright, 27 29 31 28 34 43 39 Jos. H. Westbrook 11 8 Mr. Thomas K. Henderson, of Warriorsmark, was declared the nominee. The next office in nomination according to the resolution was that of County Auditor.—Mr. J. M. Stonerod here moved to reconsider the resolution, and was seconded by Mr. Kayes of Jackson township. Both gentlemen insisted on having the full Democratic ticket.—Mr. Stonerod stating that if this was the programme county delegates had to submit to he would "put his foot right through it." Mr. Kayes said he came instructed to support a full ticket, only five Democrats in his township being in favor of fusion. Major Petriken supported the proposition that he was in the interest of any ring or clique, appealed to his record and argued that it was out of order to entertain a motion to reconsider the resolution.—Further discussion ensued, when the chairman ruled the motion to reconsider out of order. James Henderson, of Cassville, was unanimously declared the nominee for County Auditor. W. C. Caldwell, James Cullen, Edward Gould, and Thomas Burchinell, were put in nomination as representative delegates to the State Convention. On the second ballot, W. C. Caldwell and James Cullen were declared elected. J. S. Corman was chosen Senatorial delegate by acclamation. A resolution was offered that the delegates to the State Convention be instructed to vote for Hon. Saml. A. Black as their first choice for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Corman objected to go under such a resolution, and after some discussion, the word "instructed" was changed to "requested." George Jackson was elected Chairman of the County Committee. Adjourned.—Local News.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

HELDENSON, August 20, 1874. Editor JOURNAL.—Will you be kind enough to insert the following card, in answer to a libelous production of A. L. Guss, in the last issue of the Globe?

I appear in this libelous production as a man, himself and everybody else, since he has taken charge of that detestable sheet, known as the Globe; there has been a regular issue of falsehoods, vituperation, and slanders, nothing else calculated to endanger the morals of any community constantly pervading its columns. Not satisfied with disgraging the political parties of the past, he has taken to spleen and filth upon John Scott, Harry Warner and others, who are vastly his superiors in every and all respects. None escape, A few days ago several German emigrants arrived, on the emigrant train, at this place, and the first thing that meets your eye, in looking over the next issue of the Globe, is the parading in a public paper, of the fact, that their friends had purchased fifty kegs of beer for the occasion. Now the question may be asked, what did he do for it? I would infer this, viz.—To get the impression on the minds of a nation of drunkards; that Germany is a vile den of drunkards, and that upon the arrival of our friends and relatives, we had a general bacchanalian revel, such as was held by a party beyond the bridge, headed by a one-eyed monster. I most emphatically deny the assertions of the Globe, and I will further state that the statement that we purchased fifteen kegs of beer for the occasion is an unmitigated lie. It is true we had beer and other luxuries, such as we desired, and I want it distinctly understood that we purchased beer by a party beyond the bridge, headed by a one-eyed monster. I most emphatically deny the assertions of the Globe, and I will further state that the statement that we purchased fifteen kegs of beer for the occasion is an unmitigated lie.
