AIR, BEATH, GUYER.

The audacity of the Globe knows no bounds and no shame. It claims even yet to be a Republican paper, and addresses its vapid stuff to Republicans. We have put three names at the head of this article, which, when connected with past events and the present attitude of that paper and the few malcontents who believe in it, should satisfy every Republican in the county that it is even a worse foe to the party than if it were openly to espouse the Democratic cause

Hon. S. S. Blair, of Hollidaysburg, is well known to the Republicans of Huntingdon county. He served them faithfully and with ability in Congress. No man in the interior of Pennsylvania has a better Republican record than he. He is now again a candidate for nomination in his district with the endorsement of Blair county, and was recently spoken of with favor for the Supreme Court, a position for which his abilities and character eminently fit him. But some months ago Mr. Blair was retained to prosecute an indictment for libel, instituted by a private citizen of this place against the editor of the Globe: a duty which he discharged with fidelity and yet with the dignity and courtesy of a gentleman. Because he did this the editor, a few weeks since, expressed the hope that Mr. Blair might be nominated for Supreme Judge, so that he could "go for" him. The editor's Republicanism is of that stamp that personal esentment would outweigh his allegiance as Hon. S. S. Blair upon it.

The State Convention met and Mr. Blair was not nominated. There were contestants for Supreme Judge, Lieut. Governor and Auditor General. The only office for which there was no contest was that of Secretary of Internal Affairs. For that office General Robert B. Beath, of Schuylkill county, was nominated by acclamation. He was a gallant soldier in the field. He had so well administered people elected him, that all other aspirants can representatives, without dissent, re-than he was seven years ago." cognized the claims of the brave soldier and the faithful public servant. But this Republican, whom all the State endorses, the Globe refuses to support. Gen. Beath did it on the field of battle so also he did it when his comrades asked him to stand by the orphans of their dead associates .-In doing that he incurred the resentment Texas. On the night of June 22, a band of A. L. Guss, and such is the character of fifteen armed men in Gaudaloupe coun-

OUR LEGISLATIVE NOMINEES. Never had the Republicans of Huntingdon county an opportunity of voting for two better men for the Legislature than never has there been presented so little bors and the men fled. The only offense reason for voting against good caudidates.

The recently organized "White Leagues of the South and the Democracy of Indiana are identical. The one proposes to ostracize the colored voters, while the other arraigns Senators Morton and Pratt for "voting in favor of civil rights for the colored race," as provided for in the Con stitution of the United States. They each recognize the fact that the only avenue to the control of the Federal patronage is through the ballot-box, and if the colored citizens cannot be induced to vote the Democratic ticket they must be deprived of the exercise of their franchise. A prominent Louisville journal, the People's Vindicator, published at Natchitoches July 18, in an editorial of two columns in length, addressed "To Our Colored Citizens." savs:

THE GLOBE AND GEN, BEATH.

We regret that the editor of the Globe should attempt to injure the State Ticket by placing three of their names at the head of his columns, and congratulate Gen. Beath that he has been singled out as worthy the vituperation and abuse of A. L. Guss, whose career as a principal of a soldiers' orphans' school and a minis-

While the politicians have been busy ominating Lieutenant Governors and Su preme Judges, the people have quietly chosen a United States Senator. One of the worst has recently come to light i of exposing a man who had betrayed a sacred trust, it was by the command of the Grand Army of the Republic, which organization he represented; and at their last department meeting, in Bethlehem. they passed a manimous vote of thanks to Gen. Beath and the committee, for their actions.

It would be impossible to take the time him of any connection with the matter. He threatened her with a pistol, and she acceded. Gettin or give the space to meeting the statements that the envenomed spite of a convicted villam may conjure up, and but two or three points may now be mentioned.

On the following night a band of eight men, all masked with black muslin, and armed with six-shooters, went to the house of Mr. J. F. Gesner, near Seguin, Texas, and demanded admittance. Finding that resistance was useless, Mr. Gesner opened the door, when he was seized and dragged into the yard and an attempt was made to put a rope about his neck. Upon shouting "murder" he was struck on the head with a six-shooter. The cry aroused the neighbors and the men fled. The only offense of which he was guilty, in the eyes of this gang of desperadoes, was that of teaching a class in the Sunday school connected with the colored church. He was compelled to leave that part of the State, where in the base had bitharto resided and where his rea Room, and the well-kept entrance, the cool, spotless, shady interior, the polished plate windows carefully screened with muslin shades, the excellent order of the bronze burners and globes in the windows, give it precisely the inviting air of the best private restaurants. Here the visitor finds a snowy table, with clear glasses, an accurately cooked chop, and cups of faultless coffee or charming tea. Here, every morning from half-past six to half-past seven, working girls find a generous gip of coffee and bread enough for their breakfast at a charge of five cents. This food, of nice quality, is a very grateful provision for a class of shop girls who find lodgings in tenement houses at the rate of fifteen cents per night, and have no other way of finding meals, unless they poison themselves with the nauseous compounds of low eating rations, where the influences are of the worst describion. With the building is connected a laundry, where nice work is done at the lowest prices in the city. This is made a success by the very reasonable step of charging according to the work done, at the rate of fifty cents a dozen for small pieces and a dollar for large ones. The establishment is well patronized, and both laundry and retriarrant are designed from the start to be self-supporting. There is no reason why a business plan so much needed should not be successful, and I have mentioned this somewhat in detail, as similar establishments are sure to be opened in all towns of any size. The free reading-room receives the support of a dozen or more wealthy and benevolent women, among whom Mrs. Sheridan Shook's name is prominent, as it is sure to be in such kindly enterprises. Very quietly this training school is taking its place among the valued institutions of New York, and will solve the servant girl question by putting a class of intelligent and respectful attendants in the market, when the disorderly ones will find themselves no longer in demand, and have to submit to decent regulations.

The railroad traveler will find remedy that is pleasant and perfectly harm ess, and a sure preventive of the evil effects from the Constitution or change of water and diet, by using SIMMONS' LIV. ER REGULATOR.
