

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

The urchins are beginning to look grim. The Morrison House is neat and complete. Peaches are not very abundant in market yet.

The Borough schools commence on Monday next. A lamp will be put up in front of the Post-Office.

The new drug store attracts considerable attention. The addition to the Council House is going up rapidly.

One carrier sold 75 copies of the JOURNAL yesterday. A barny crowd attended the Democratic Convention.

Joe Jacob did not try long in the lone star State. Home again. The soft side of a board is very unpopular among the young bloods.

The Johnsons Tribune reaches us in the morning now. Thanks, Frank. Lolla shouldn't tell. It is naughty. Too much ready for a cent, ain't it?

Our Reporter was the ghost that several early birds saw yesterday morning. Our early edition to Camp yesterday morning, didn't stand a decent camp.

Everybody praises the railroad arrangements so far this year. Thank you, Steel! Sky-larking—Two ladies and a gentleman on Washington street, Monday evening.

The drain on Allegheny street, between Third and Fourth, is in a wretched condition. Prof. Miller, our grocer friend, is the first man on hand in the morning for the DAILY JOURNAL.

P. P. Dewees, esq., says things are lively about the Furnaces. It is always full of business. It does not look well for our Huntingdon county candidates to go over into Mifflin to electioneer.

The new lamp in front of the postoffice, will throw light into what here heretofore been dark places. Our old friend, J. Irvin Steele, esq., editor of the Ashland Advocate, dropped in to see us yesterday.

There is considerable business about the Commissary department, but there are no serious objections. Some of the newspapers are sorry because they didn't take Henry Ward Beecher instead of Charles Ross.

John W. Hock, esq., has been appointed Post-master at Eagle Foundry. This is a capital appointment. An outbreak is a good thing to have about you these very cool nights. Without it you may need quinine.

Henry Quarry, esq., has been appointed post-master at Cairn, this county. This is a very satisfactory appointment. "Have you been to Camp?" "What are you going to Camp?" "Great fun on all sides on Huntingdon's fair streets."

Items intended for publication, if written on both sides of the paper, are not a "means of grace" to ye printers. The Lutheran congregation were surprised to find their church covered with matting a week ago.

Those West Huntingdon ladies are still fighting. A chub not longer than your finger will turn a lady's head for a month! The new Academy was thrown open for the inspection of the public, between the hours of seven and nine o'clock, last evening.

Jerome Buchanan, the clever thief, passed our office to-day carrying the biggest pipe. It was for somebody else to use, however. The new Post-Office building makes a very fine appearance. The front window is very elegantly and appropriately lettered.

They had a lively time up at Zillis', in West Huntingdon, the other night. Those Dutchmen know how to enjoy themselves. The Huntingdon boys beat the Lewistown boys, in the wiffen game of base ball which was played yesterday, on the Fair ground.

All children West of 9th street will hereafter, with the exception of those going to Prof. White's school, go to West Huntingdon. The following communitarian was proposed to us by a lady at Camp: "Why is it so hard, set in jet, like a lawyer? Answer to it is carried in Blackstone."

That baby of Mrs. P.'s, in the little green house on Washington street, is the upper end, is such a peggish darling. It's mamma's pet. Yes, indeed. King of the Adams Express, has taken a holiday once, and gone to camp. He no doubt bustles barrels and boxes around on a day to keep his hand in.

A couple of Huntingdon's representative men, who attended Pittsburg on Tuesday, figured unfavorably in the St. Charles Times, and afterwards in the newspapers. Our old fellow-citizen, Mr. John Hillbrand, has 95 years old on Sunday last, and he walked past our office, on his way to Camp on Monday, as actively as many a man of fifty.

Our Joe says the "U. S." monogram on the plate glass, in front of the new post office, is to remind our worthy postmaster, of things of the earth early. He says it stands for "U. S. Sinner." Mrs. Hettie Johnston, of West Huntingdon, pulled out an old, white, fishing yesterday, measuring something less than a yard. We can vouch for this being so, because we have her word for it.

Mr. Sanderson has been transferred from West Huntingdon to the First Grammar School, and Mr. Taylor takes the place of Mr. Sanderson. Miss Elizabeth takes the place of Miss Radcliff in the First Primary of West Huntingdon.

"There isn't much in the JOURNAL," said a lady to us at the camp yesterday morning. We endorsed it, but we wanted if she had the getting of it up, she would think as we do, "that it is a big thing."

Prof. L. B. Rhine has resigned his position as leader of the Huntingdon Silver Cornet Band, owing to an increase of other business. Our young friend, J. A. Hoff, has been selected to fill the vacancy, and he is equal to the task.

The Fishery Commissioners sent quite a lot of Bass to Bedford yesterday, to be deposited in the river at that place and Hopeville. They want to cross the Red Fox with Far Dewees. Those Bedford Bass are not considered a good breed by the Commissioners.

Among the "whittlers" who passed through the city in their way to the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting, we note the name of Mr. John Burchell, of Hollidaysburg, a "ladies' man" of the first water.—Huntingdon Tribune. What would a "ladies' man" of the second water be?

Rev. O. M. Stewart, of Springdale, Pa., preached his old friends at Elmville, on Sabbath, the 29th. He has ever been an earnest preacher, and to his earnestness has been added an originality of thought and illustration, beauty of style, grace of manner and depth of christian love, that attracts, and moves, and melts the hearts of his hearers.

Sunday at the J. V. C. Meeting.

[From the Daily Journal of Monday.] Yesterday was truly the great day of the feast at the Juniata Valley Camp. The people came up in large numbers to the Tented Grove, and the worship was sincere on the part of a vast majority of the attendance. Saturday evening's trains brought immense crowds, and the number present during the evening was unparalleled in the history of the meeting. It has been intimated that more were in the congregations of Saturday evening than on Sunday of last year. The order was good throughout all the exercises, and no roving of a serious character was anywhere to be observed. The sermon in No. 1 Circle was preached by Rev. J. S. Beyers, of the Virginia Conference, from 24 Corinthians, 5th chap., 14th and 15th verses. It was an effort of great power and deep thought, and brought hearty responses from the hearts of the hearers. The sermon in No. 2 Circle was preached by Rev. G. D. Pennypacker. The large congregation, in this instance, was held by the power and eloquence of the speaker, and loud amens! and hallelujahs! resounded from every part of the assembly. The rules of the camp were strictly observed in closing the meetings at the hour announced, and by 10 o'clock, comparative quiet reigned throughout the vast camp.

SUNDAY MORNING

dawned auspiciously, and at an early hour the people began to pour in from every quarter. Every train was loaded to its utmost capacity, and many came in vehicles from quite a distance. At 10 o'clock it was estimated that not less than 10,000 people were on the camp ground. Every nook and corner was crowded with eager visitors, and it was next to impossible to get through the streets at some points. The services of the day were begun with a prayer meeting at 8 o'clock, in the Tabernacle. The attendance here was not what it should have been, but the early hour and the coolness of the morning no doubt deterred many from being present who would have otherwise enjoyed it. This was followed by preaching at 8 o'clock, by Rev. T. Barnhart, in Circle No. 1, from Ezekiel, xi, and 19 and 20th verses. The sermon was a very powerful one, and the subject was handled with the well-known skill and ability of the gentleman who preached it. The sermon, at the same hour, in Circle No. 2, was preached by Rev. J. W. Cleaver, from 1st Corinthians, iii chap., and 23d to 26th verses. There, too, the people were treated to a "feast of fat things" from the lips of God's servant. The earnestness and power of the speaker took hold of every heart. The 10 o'clock services began promptly at that hour. In No. 1 Circle, Rev. I. C. Pensing, D. D., preached a most brilliant discourse, a synopsis of which will be given hereafter. In No. 2 Circle, Rev. GEORGE GUYER held forth to a tremendous audience, and the power of the Spirit marked his sermon throughout. The best of order was observed, the sermons were listened to with marked attention, and much good feeling prevailed.
