Wednesday Morning, Oct. 21, 1874. THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

In the present unsettled condition of affairs in the South, it is difficult to forecast with any degree of certainty the final result of the Congressional elections.

Olsted and Latta—And the Miners.

We are sometimes forced to differ from the Harrisburg Patriot, but always with pain. A case arises now in which it is necessary to expose its characteristic animosity against John Olsted, and it is all ways against our grain to notice petty trickery.

Gen. Wister at Gettysburg.

We take the following account of the movements of the 150th Reg't. P. V. commanded by Gen. Wister, at Gettysburg, from Gen's History of Pennsylvania Volunteers, vol. 1, page 556: "At Gettysburg, on the 1st of July, 1863, the 150th P. V. was in reply to the President's call, ordered to a Regular General's command in the army."

Col. McClellan, the Patriot.

Col. McClellan, the Democratic candidate for Secretary of Internal Affairs, has received a passing notice in our columns during this campaign. We noticed at the time that on the day that Chambersburg was held by the Federal forces, McClellan in reply to the President's call, ordered to a Regular General's command in the army.
