THE OWNER OF THE RING FOUND .-

In one of the September numbers of the dred. Journal there appeared a notice from Goy. Hartranft stating that a certain person, in South Carolina, was in possession of a ring that was taken off the finger of T. H. M. Hight, of the 191st Regiment, P. V., supposed to be and Executions, and all other blanks, for sale, at the Journal Store, at 50 cents per hun from Huntingdon county, etc. On inquiry being made by the widow, Susan | dred. J. Hight, of Cassville, the ring referred to was in possession of J. A. Daniels, Esq., of Anderson Court House, South Carolina, a Jeweller, who states it was brought to him recently to be made less by the man who said he took it off the soldier's finger, when he proposed to Washington street, in West Huntingdon. Adbuy it of him, that he might return it to the friends. He also gives the name of the Confederate Soldier, who gave him further information relating to his death and burial; states that he was shot through near the heart, and he and Executions, and all other blanks, for sale, helped to bury him, more careful than was at the Journal Store, at 50 cents a hunusual to bury Union Soldiers; he was rolled in his blanket and buried under a bush near a gate post. Notices to Trespassers can be had at the Now after a lapse of ten years, through the JOURNAL Store at 50 cents per dozen.
