THE ARCTIC SEASON.

The weather has been colder here than has been known for years. The River between the foot of Courtland street and Jersey City has been filled with ice for the first time in thirty years, and ice bridges across the East River are almost of daily occurrence. Ferriesarc in a continual state of stoppage, and the oaths and curses one hears from the pinched and half-frozen people, who wait for hours for a boat to get to Brooklyn or Jersey City, are frightful to hear. The experience this winter will do more toward hurrying the great bridge to completion than all the newspapers could do in a century.

A SORRY STORY.

Monday morning a young woman-a supernumery in Booth's Theatre, fainted du- ing to live! ring the rehearsal of the play. Her sister actress raised her, and carried her to the green-room, and when she revived, told her story as best she could. She had not caten a morsel of food for three days, and her fainting was the result of nothing but Senator Lamon, of Blair County. A care starvation. Of course, food was given her, ful perusal of the same is requested, as it and of course a collection was made for her, and then her ghastly story came out. public:

ST. NICHOLAS FOR 1875. A BOOK FOR BOYS AND GIRLS. Of this book CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER writes of this book CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER writes:
In the bound volume of Sr. Nicuscas, with its glory of red and gold, we have a permenant addition to the literature of the young. Never before has so much literary and artistic talent oc-operated in the service of children. It is a continued educator of their tasts and of their honor and courage. I do not see how it can be made any better, and if the children don't like it think it is it mee to begin to change the kind of children in this country."

ST. NICHOLAS FOR 1875. The prespectus of the second volume shows that there to be no falling off, but an increase in its literary and ictorial attractions. Among other attractive features are TWO SPLENDID SERIAL STORIES, "THE YOUNG SURVEYOR," y J. T. Trownridge, author of the Jack Hazard Stories "EIGHT COUSINS," y LOUISA M. ALCOTT, author of "Little Women," etc.

The peculiar feu ures of St. Nicholas, which have con uced so largely to its popularity, will be kept up with The peculiar lea ures of ST. Nicolous, where have conduced so largely to its popularity, will be kept up with spirit.

Short and easy stories in French, German and Latin for translation, will appear occasionally, while Jack-in-the-Palpit, the Letter Box, and The Riddle Box, will continue to be full of interest, and the department for every young roaders will be enlarged.

Baya D Taylon and other distinguished travellers will give Stories of Foreign Countries.

Mr. Riberso will continue his series of delightful and instructive Papers on Practical Subjects.

Mr. Bartert and others will attend to the department of Home Entertainments, Tableaux Vivants, etc.

New writers, in addition to our present large corps of contributors, will give young people of all ages, Poems, Jingles, Stories, Sketches, and Papers on History, Biography, Travel, adventure, Natural History, Out door and In-door Sports, Boys' and Girle' Handerraf, Kindergarten Gamas, Literature, Popular Science, with a hearty sprinkling of fun throughout the volume.
