REPUBLICAN STATE CONVEN-

Call of the State Committee.

The Republicans of the State of Pennsylva nia are hereby requested to assemble by their delegates in State Convention at noon of Wednesday, the 26th day of May, 1875, in the Fulton Opera House, at the city of Lancaster for the purpose of nominating candidates fo Governor and State Treasurer. Each Repre sentative and Senatorial District will be en-titled to the same representation as it has under the present apportionment for Senators and Representatives in the Legislature. RUSSELL ERRETT,

A. WILSON NORRIS.

The State Convention occurring so much earlier than necessary, the County Committee will have to be called together to select two delegates to the Convention.

Why does the Legislature continue to publish the Legislative Record? It reaches us, in packages of half a dozen of copies, three or four days after the debates it reports have taken place. Why depend upon it, when the daily papers bring daily reports? There never was, in our opinion, a more stupendous fraud. If the debates cannot be placed upon the desks of members each morning, we cannot see the use of this humbug.

bune is generally spoken of as "Jay Gould's CAPS: young man." Who would have thought, that so soon after the death of the great and good Greeley, the individual who would presume to wear his mantle, would be so contemptuously sneered at? There appears to be only a step from the "tapmost towering height" of fame to the bottom of the muddy pool from which contempt is hooked up.

The editor of a Democratic paper intimates that at least one Democrat in the Legislature needs a dictionary worse than "Smull's Hand Book." We haven't a particle of doubt that there are a number of that class in the Legislature. We would not be surprised if some of them commenced the name of Jesus with a little g.
