sudden and unwelcome intrusion would be untrue. I am not a brave man, and my present situation, alone in the depot with a hunted murderer, was by no means reassuring. My heart beat violently, but from mere force of habit I arose and asked him to be seated. While he turned to comply I succeeded in conquering my agitation to some extent. He drew a chair noisily forward, and sitting down, threw open his coat, displaying by so doing a heavy navy revolver stuck in his belt .-Then he freed his mouth of a quantity of
