Call of the State Committee.

The Republicans of the State of Pennsylvania are hereby requested to assemble by their, delegates in State Convention at noon on, Wednesday, the 26th day of May, 1875, in the Fulton Opera House, at the city of Lancaster, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and State Treasurer. Each Repre-sentative and Senatorial District will be entitled to the same representation as it has under the present apportionment for Senators and Representatives in the Legislature. RUSSELL ERRETT,

A. WILSON NORRIS. Chairman Secretary.

"THE LESSON OF LAST FALL."

"We have left it to you to determine whether you will have a united and successful party or whether you will again force us to repeat the lesson of last fall."

The above is taken from the Globe of two weeks ago, the paper which claims to be the only true organ of the Republican party of this county, and the only true (?) exponent of its great principles, and the editor of which claims to represent the in Development in the county. two weeks ago, the paper which claims to only genuine Republicans in the county, numbering, as he alleges, several hundred, yet not quite satisfied with what he claims for himself and his paper, asks, in his terms of compromise, that it be recog-
