Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscriptions and Arrearages.

The following is the law relating to newspapers and subscribers.

- 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice in the contrary, are considered wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their subscription, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers refuse to take their periodicals from the office, or neglect to give notice of discontinuance, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and orders of discontinuance.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

The Courts have decided that "refusing to take periodicals from the office, or neglecting to give notice of discontinuance, is prima facie evidence of intention to receive."

It is the responsibility of newspaper publishers to pay attention to all arrears, is sent to the publisher.

REDUCTION!

Until further notice, we propose to insert specialties, or locals, in our local columns—not among the items, but distributed through the local matter—at TEN CENTS per line, eight ordinary words constituting a line. No charge, however, will be made for less than fifty cents.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Go to the Festival. Send along your job work. Our Joe has an attack of the mumps.

What's to be done on Decoration Day? A few swallows have put in an appearance. An occasional "cross-the-sailor" is visible.

Base ball in the streets is a nuisance. Police! As a horseman, "Hunker" Richardson is not a success.

The building prospects are not very flattering heretofore. The Festival at the Castellian promises to be a grand affair.

Stewart, March & Co's planing mill is running on full time. The Altoona Mirror is to be enlarged on the 14th inst. Success.

Only thirty Democrats went to Bedford county's next Sheriff. The annual croaker about port crops has already been heard from.

Dave Africa, of the Central Dry Goods Store, has put up a nobly sign. The yard in front of the Presbyterian church has been tastefully laid out.

The Pennsylvania Reserves will hold a reunion at Williamsport, on the 3d prox. A large force of hands are engaged in excavating the cellar for Port's new building.

The loaders are now luxuriating on the soft side of boxes, under the genial rays of old Sol. The advance guard of the potato bug army is on hand, ready for a raid on the first frost.

The late Grand Jury, of Blair county, recommend the building of a new court house. Judge Hall, of the Bedford District, sails for Europe to day. He expects to return in August.

Three men were killed on the railroad, and one found drowned, in Cambria county, last week. County Superintendents are required to take the iron-clad oath before entering upon their duties.

The rustic of the bustle is again heard; large papers ten cents a dozen at the JOURNAL News Depot. The largest, best and cheapest stock of papers and envelopes in the County, at the JOURNAL Store.

Holidaysburg had a $3,000 fire on Tuesday night last week, supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Don't fail to attend the Festival at the Castellian Garden, this week, for the benefit of the Phoenix Fire Company.

Col. J. H. Bewley, of Holidaysburg, who has been quite ill for some time past, we are glad to learn, is convalescing. Rev. W. B. Brumbaugh, editor of the Patriot, filled the pulpit in the Baptist church, in this place, on Sunday evening last.

The Girard-Holmes, Philadelphia, is an excellent place to stop. Every attention is shown to guests and the charges are reasonable. Several half grown boys, of this place, stole their way to Harrisburg, on freight trains, last week, to witness Harman's exhibition.

An Ossida township man recently resorted to strychnine to cure the toothache. He is satisfied with the success of the experiment. Gaff Miller, our across the river grocer friend, has been displaying one of Job's trademarks on the back of his week past.

A. L. Mumper, esq., the proprietor of Barre Iron Works, we learn, died at his home, in Bethlehem, last week. We did not learn the cause. If you want the worth of your money, advertise in the JOURNAL. It has a larger circulation than any other paper in the Juniata Valley.

The west-enders have organized a fire company, and have taken charge of the Phoenix engine. The organization now numbers over forty members. John Rouse, a colored man, was admitted to practice law at the recent term of the Bedford county Court. He is said to have passed a creditable examination.

We are prepared to do all kinds of job work in the highest style of the art, and at prices to suit the times. No apple butter daubs done at this establishment. The Holidaysburg Standard has in its possession a newspaper called the American Eagle, printed at Huntingdon, Pa., by G. W. P. Butler, bearing date of September 13, 1811.

Dr. Ballantyne has subsided. Cause why? Out of wind and gas. "Twain" much of a report, after all. However, it was fully equal to the calibre of the ordnance brought into requisition. An exchange says: "Though not generally known, every board of School Directors can send pupils to a State Normal School, on the compliance of said pupils to certain specified conditions."

That chap, over in Clay township, who pays nocturnal visits to his neighbors' smoke-houses, corn-cricks, &c., would do well to leave his dog at home, or, if he must accompany him, see that he does not lock him up on his neighbor's premises. Don't forget the Fair of Phoenix Fire Company on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. A number of valuable prizes are to be voted for. Go and patronize them. They are fine fellows. All kinds of LUMBER, PICKETS, and SHINGLES, at reduced prices, at [m13-2] HENRY & CO.'S. WEAVER & CRANEY'S Hardware Store is headquarters for OIL and PAINT, and all kinds of Builders' Hardware.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT OUR PROSECUTION FOR LIEBEL.—We copy the following comments, upon our late prosecution:

Brother Durborrow, of the Huntingdon Journal, has been used for libel by conductor Burbachman. The case is to be tried in the Bedford court. A court story did the business. We deplore sympathy with Mr. Durborrow in his trouble, but permit the propriety of a "cross-the-sailor" to be made will not cause his feelings any.—Altoona Daily Mirror.

[Thank you, it is no trouble to us; we will merely give you a little recreation, which we need very much.] It is not every newspaper that can afford the luxury of a libel suit, yet occasionally we hear of an editor being summoned to appear in Court and answer a charge of libel, or of a man being sued for libel, and the editor being held responsible. The latest victim of this kind of editor Durborrow, of the Huntingdon Journal. A railroad conductor is the complainant, and the information is laid in Bedford county. A story about a cat, in which the conductor supposes he was made to figure in an ugly light, was what led to the thing.

[There was no enmity in this case. We simply sought to give information proper for the public; that's all.] The Everett Press says that the Huntingdon Journal has a libel suit on hand. A conductor on the Bedford and Brigidon Road is the prosecutor. That conductor will know more about libel suits, after he gets through with this one.—Tribune.

[The Press is right. We have a prosecution on hand. The first one in many years experience.] Joe Durborrow, editor of the Huntingdon Journal, has been used for libel by a conductor on the Huntingdon and Broad Top railroad, the cause of action, which has been brought in Bedford county, being something said about a cat which the conductor deems derogatory to his character.

THE PENNSYLVANIA COMPANY.—Summary of Operations of its Leased Lines.

The Pennsylvania Company, says the Financial Chronicle of May 1st, is now well known as the branch corporation of the Pennsylvania Railroad, with headquarters at Pittsburgh, which operates the leased lines west of that city.

On Saturday night the cars run over a man at Lilly's Station who is supposed to have been walking on the track. When found he was dead. Dr. Duffenbaugh, Co. G, 70th P. V., was written on his right arm in India ink. His remains were interred by the Post House Directors.

Two brothers named James F. Goddard and Wesley Goddard, residing near Nineveh, Westmoreland county, were killed on this railroad, one near the Johnstown station and the other at East Conemaugh, about 2 o'clock Sunday morning. It is thought they intended to ride on a freight train from this place to East Conemaugh, and there take a training west to go home.

James F. Goddard, aged 30 years, got on the freight and rode to East Conemaugh. Wesley, aged about 20 years, was killed while attempting to board the train, and his dead body cut in two. He was found soon after the train passed. The elder brother, while attempting to get on a train at East Conemaugh, was struck by a locomotive and thrown down between the tracks and crushed to death by the brake-force. Their remains were taken home for interment on the Way Passenger on Sunday afternoon.

These young men were both single and resided with their father near Nineveh, their mother having been dead for several years. They frequently visited this city and were known to some of our people.

On Monday morning the dead body of Joseph D. Walker was found in the river near Sang Hollow. It had evidently been there for some time, as it was considerably decomposed. Walker was formerly a resident of this neighborhood, but had removed to Missouri with his family where he was subsequently tried for a nameless crime and convicted. He had not been back here very long.

On Saturday night a part of a freight train which had become disconnected with the other cars, while going down the mountain a Kittanning pit, was badly wrecked and one brakeman considerably injured.

Much hard earned money is saved by buying your Drugs, Patent Medicines, Soaps, Brushes and Toilet Articles at C. P. FLEMING & CO.'S Drug Store.

AGUST FLOWER.—The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases, and their effect; such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual constipation, burning pain, heartburn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of the food after eating, low spirits, &c. Go to the Drug Store of S. S. Smith & Son, and get a 75 cent bottle, or a small bottle for 10 cents. Try it.

Everybody goes to Henry & Co's for their HATS, because they have the largest stock in the county to select from, and they sell them 20 per cent. less than any one else.

The Times says Dr. Walpole has lost his beautiful chestnut mare. She died suddenly in harness, it is supposed from bots or pinworms. If the Doctor had used Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powder, he would, no doubt, have had his mare to-day—they are death on worms.

Chapped hands are very common with those who have their hands much in water. A few drops of Henry's Anodyne Liniment rubbed over the hands two or three times a day, will keep them soft and white. Fishermen, sailors, and others will do well to remember this.

Why does the "Domestic" Sewing Machine continue to have a ready sale while other machines are a drag on the market in these times of stagnation and panic? The answer is just here: Because all experienced sewing machine men, and everybody else acknowledging the superiority of the "Domestic" over all other machines. And people knowing its inferiorities, and seeing its merits will buy it and the investment is one that pays and is never regretted. Mrs. E. M. SIMONSON, formerly E. M. Africa, has just returned from Philadelphia, with a handsome assortment of hats, choice goods and novelties of the season. All are invited to call. Corner of Fifth and Penn Sts., Huntingdon, Pa.
