and here it is according to promise.

In the evening a hop was on the programme, but owing to the miserable music and the absence of some one to call the figures, it was not a brilliant success.

There were quite a number of excellent performers of the terpsichorean art in the party.

Prominent among the single ladies were Miss Rosa Meyers, daughter of the President of the Association, and Miss Hileman, of Altoona.

Many of the married ladies, though not so lithe and agile, won high compliments from the sterner and less graceful sex.

On Wednesday morning, on looking over the Register, we found the following names enrolled:

The Honorable B. F. Meyers, Harrisburg Patriot, President of the Association; the ever vigilant and able Secretary, R. S. Meniman, Printer's Circular; Joseph Ritner, Mechanics Independent; Augustus Duncan, Chambersburg Valley Spirit; W. W. Nevin, Philadelphia Press; Benjamin Whitman, Erie Observer; the able Senator from Montour, Hon. Thomas Chaffant, Danville Intelligencer; F. R. Laird, Greensburg Argus; J. E. Kicholtz, Sunbury Democrat; Hiram Young, York True Democrat, the most venerable man in the party and yet a comparatively young man; A. L. Guss, Huntington Globe; J. H. Whittaker, Franklin Spectator; R. H. Thomas, Mechanicsburg Farmer's Friend; the good looking, J. W. Youcum, Columbia Spy; W. H. Bradley, Danville American; D. H. Neiman, Easton Sentinel; the amiable and jolly, J. B. G. Kinloch, Lock Haven Republican; the sedate J. W. Storer, Middletown Journal; the Right Bower of the Secretary, Hugh Lindsay, Huntington Local News; the witty and agreeable, H. J. Stahlke, Gettysburg Compiler; John B. Bratton, Carlisle Volunteer; C. H. Munday, Philadelphia Proof Sheet; D. F. Dealy, Philadelphia Chronicle; the gay and lappily J. I. Steele, Ashland Advocate; the dashing and urbane, G. M. Brisbin, Onondaga Revue; the fun loving, J. H. Scheiela, New Bloomfield Advocate; A. B. Kline, Greensburg Democrat; the neat and trim, M. O. Smith, Hanover Citizen; W. Anderson, Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch; S. R. Murray, Shippensburg Chronicle; the clever and good, G. B. Goodlander, Clearfield Republican; J. C. Miller, Washington (D. C.) Daily Critic; the irrepressible, J. B. Sanson, Indiana Democrat; our handsome and good friend, S. W. Alford, Towanda Reporter; the merry and cheerful, S. A. Durban, New Castle Courier; C. W. Rey, Sharon Herald; H. T. Darlington, Doylestown Intelligencer; the bland and courteous, George Brubaker, Lancaster Inquirer; that accomplished gentleman and scholar, Gen. W. W. H. Davis, Doylestown Democrat; Howard Jenkins, Wilmington (Del.) Commercial; that great social man, S. A. Smith, Indiana Messenger; H. C. Michener, Easton Argus; Thompson Prescott, Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch; R. Alexander Seott, Philadelphia Ledger; that able and patient searcher after truth, Jesse L. Ringwalt, Philadelphia True Record; the energetic and artistic delineator of things as they are, Frank K. Taylor, New York Graphic; the good natured and jolly, D. K. Wagner, Shippensburg News; H. C. Wilson, Parker City Journal; W. W. Keenan, Greensburg Democrat; the energetic and persevering, R. B. Brown, Clarion Democrat; that sincere friend and earnest advocate of the best interests of the fraternity, Young S. Walter, Delaware County Republican; our old-time fellow-craftman of a quarter of a century ago, Col. Wm. B. Sipes of the Pennsylvania Railroad office, Philadelphia; the even tempered and whole souled, J. S. Montgomery, of Philadelphia; our true friend and daily companion, Dr. A. B. Bramebach, Huntington Pilgrim; M. A. Cooper, Mount Pleasant Dawn; A. W. Milleison, Mechanics Independent Journal; the humorous and extravagant, W. H. Grier, Columbia Herald; the young and dashing E. B. Seull, Somerset Herald; our old-time associate of a score of years ago upon the Ebensburg Alleghenian, A. C. Mallin, of Ashland, Pa.; our genial and kind predecessor of many years ago, David Over, Hollidaysburg Register, and J. R. McAffee, Greensburg Tribune.

After breakfast, Hon. John Cessa appeared, with a considerable number of carriages, and invited the party to accompany him and other citizens of the town, to Dutch Corner via the branch railroad, to examine the extensive iron mines located there. We having set apart the morning for the transaction of some business we could not accompany the party.

At 2:30 o'clock p. m., the semi-annual meeting of the Association was held in the Pavilion. An address of welcome was delivered by Hon. Samuel L. Russell, of Bedford, which was appropriately responded to by the President of the Association. Considerable business was transacted but of a character not to interest our readers.

In the evening the usual summer banquet was spread in the great dining-hall of the hotel. A large number of guests were invited so that not less than from 250 to 300 participated. It passed off very handsomely. The toasts were responded to, and the feasting was kept up to a late hour. The speech that pleased everybody and which was brimful of wit and humor was delivered by our old friend, Y. S. Walter, esq., of Chestet. He struck the proper cord and the response was hearty and gratifying.

At an early hour on Thursday morning we took carriages for Bedford and once more took seats in the Excursion train—Mr. Provost, the gentlemanly and obliging superintendent of the Bedford Division, had promised to take us to Cumberland and Froburg, and he stood ready to make his promise good and he did it well. He gave the train his special attention and spared no pains to make all on board comfortable. A large number of the citizens of Bedford accompanied us. The weather was extremely warm. The scenery along the Bedford Division is very fine. At 10 o'clock a. m., we pulled into Cumberland and stopped at the Queen City Hotel, one of the finest hotel edifices outside of the large cities. It is really a pleasure to stop at such a house. It has every convenience.

Immediately after stopping at the hotel the Mayor and Council extended the hospitality of the place. Speeches were made on behalf of the authorities and thanks returned by the President of the Association. After dinner, which was a superb affair, we again embarked and an hour or two later, we had passed the famous Mt. Savage and were scaling the heights of Froburg. The immense works at Mt. Savage are standing idle. But large quantities of coal are being shipped. This region is a picturesque one and should not be dismissed with a few short paragraphs, but we have not the space to dwell upon it and we can only say that the coal is a superior article and is mined much more readily than that of Broad Top. The quantities are almost inexhaustible. The town of Froburg contains about 4,000 inhabitants. It is reached from the great valley of the Potomac below by a succession of switches-back. It is a slow and tedious way of reaching the summit but it is effective and this answers all objections. The weather was so hot, while ascending and descending the mountain, that we really felt we could scarcely endure it.

Late in the afternoon we started on our return trip, and by a few minutes past six we were back in Bedford again, and an hour or two later we were strolling around the Springs Hotel.

Friday morning found the writer rather the worse for wear. Too much irregularity, mineral water and sick had their effect and we were ready to depart with a heavy load—not heart. The morning was spent in promoting and looking at objects of special interest and at 1 o'clock started the remainder of the party to—

A number had left from time to time—embarcated for Huntington where we arrived at 3:10 p. m. We are sorry to say that we felt so indisposed, on our arrival home, that we sought our place of business immediately and some relief, which prevented us from paying as much attention to our fraternal visitors as it seemed our duty to do. But we know they will excuse us under the circumstances.

The trip taken as whole was a very pleasant and agreeable one. There was a great amount of enjoyment and all seemed pleased and gratified. The hospitalities of the citizens of Bedford were universally applauded. We are under obligations to a number of persons for kindnesses shown to us individually. The party was eminently social.

personal interests. Will he resign his Judgeship if nominated? That is about the only way he could sacrifice his personal interests by running for Governor, and we venture to bet a Wheeling story sear he will not resign. He was elected Judge as a bolter, over the regular Democratic nominee, and he will not run the risk of being bolted out of it and the Governorship too—Commercial.

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Paper, one of the most liberal of the Democratic journals in the country, speaks of the Republican record in this wise: "The Republican record during these fourteen years it is useless for us to discuss. It has certainly been a brilliant one. The party has carried on its shoulders a weight of responsibility; never before assumed by a political party in a free republic. It has been followed by a majority of the people of the North with almost religious ardor, and the negroes of the south bless it as their almost divine emancipator. It is impossible for an American, be he Northern or Southern, to contemplate the history of this great political organization without a feeling of admiration, however much he may oppose the principles, and however bitter, he may suffer in consequences."

We want it distinctly understood that we want the cash to accompany all announcements. These are our terms—We do not feel like making political capital for any person making a nomination without being paid for it in advance. We have no doubt all will pay and are willing to pay, but where there is a number of candidates for the same office somebody is bound to be defeated, and then "it goes like pulling teeth" to pay for the announcement, and we frequently have trouble to get the money. Pay in advance, and the agony will be over and we will be good friends.

The following gentlemen, among
