GOVERNOR: MAJ. GEN. JOHN F. HARTRANFT. STATE TREASURER HENRY RAWLE, of Erie.

COMMITTEE MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the Republican County Committee, in the Grand Jury Room of the Court House, in Huntingdon, on Friday, the 16th day of July, at 1 o'clock P. M. Important business is to be transacted, and a full attendance is required.

I have this day addressed a letter to Henry Wilson, esq., asking him to call a meeting of his Committee to meet in Huntingdon on the committee of conference, agree upon some settlement of our disputes, and take such acsuccess in the present campaign . S. GEISSINGER, Chm'n.

Our riflemen have been doing some handsome shooting in "Ould Ireland." They have carried off many honors and still more await them. It must be remembered that the targets are six feet by twelve in size, with a centre six feet by six, and a bull's eye three feet by three; with ranges at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards; each man having fifteen shots at each range, L. Corbett, Prothonotary, A. B. Barr; and each party consisting of six men. A moment's reflection will show that the shortest range is a little less than half a mile, and that the bull's eye at that distance could be nothing more than a black spot upon the white field of the target. THE 'DOMESTIC" MONTHL A JOURNAL OF Fashion, Literature, and Art. OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"How a Journal of Fashion can combine fashion ar literature at very low terms is well shown by this per odical. The May number, besides a colored Fashio Plate, has thirty-six pages, profusely illustrated, on the fashions of costumes for ladies and children, seasonable fabrics, trimmings, millinery, lingeric, confluent, and domestic art, and yet with all this there is room for poems and tales, by popular authors, notices of ne books, etc., and the price of all this marter is only $t_i. per annum. Take it all in all, we know of no periocal of which readers get so much for their money, those of the 'DOMESTIC' MONTHLY." It forms Mail.

"Home wishes the latest information concentration."

those of the 'Domestic' Morther," N. P. Lowing Mail.

"If one wishes the latest information concerning the latest fashions, the 'Domestic' Mosther is ready with the intelligence, aided by abundant tilbustrations. It does not, however, neglect current literature, as it contains poems, a serial sorry, some interesting reseal, lany, and art notes."—N. P. World a great deal of information in regard to ladies' costinues, fabrics, toilettes, etc. It is plentifully illustrated in its fashion articles, and its list of contributions is deserving of much prase."
N. Y. Commercial Advertice.

"A far better periodical than many of the so-called weekly papers."—Terrebonne Republican, Houms, La.

"One of the best Fashion Magazines that comes to our office."—Clarendon Press, Manning, S. C.

"The most delightful of the Fashion Magazines."—American Standard, Jersey City, N. I.

"We can heartily recommend it."—Fort Madium (Iowa) Democrat.
