LARRY IRVING, a poor demoralized creature from Williamsburg, strayed to this place, last week, and for several days wandered about the town. His condition is a pitiable one.

THE BEDFORD CATTLE GAZETTE, that a new passenger and freight depot had been erected by the Broad Top road at Tatesville. And now a long needed want has been supplied.

A MAN named Bailey was put to prison, on Saturday evening, charged with aiding Bowmaster and Bailey in making their escape from Fort Henderson a week or two ago.

IT IS CONTRARY to law to shoot squirrels before the first of September, and those who spend their time in the woods with their guns, will do well to make a note of it.

THE VIRGINIA LANDS offered for sale by us, if not sooner sold, will be sold at public sale, in Charlottesville, Virginia, on Monday, the 2nd day of August. Will you miss a bargain?

ALEXANDER LANGDON, of Harrisburg, Pa., has been missing since the 2nd of June. Two of his children are very ill, and his family are in great distress at his disappearance. Exchange please copy.

AN exchange says: Trying to get up business without advertising, is like winking at a pretty girl through a pair of green spectacles—you may know what you are doing, but nobody else does.

THE TYRONE HERALD talks very pretty about the Huntingdon Silver Cornet Band, and the editor makes his grand statement to the members thereof for a serenade during their recent visit to that place.

A young man named Corbin, son of Abram Corbin, esq. of Juniata township, had three fingers of his left hand cut off, on Thursday afternoon last, while working on the steam saw mill located in that township.

THE HILDEBRAND sells pure milk drinks, such as Lager Beer, ale, porter and wine, by the quart, gallon or barrel. He has the largest stock of pure liquors ever offered to the people of Huntingdon.

EVERY body should use Lafa Pens. They will outlast all other pens. They are not corrosive. They are excellent. Durborow & Co., have the sole agency for the county—$2.00 per gross. 20 cents per dozen. 2 cents apiece.

THE citizens residing north of Washington street are about petitioning the Council to purchase sufficient hose to reach their houses. They have to pay their share of taxes, and have the right to demand this much from the borough.

WE noticed a party of boys and young men, on Allegheny street, the other evening, making sport of an old man who is not exactly comely, and we came to the conclusion that those who were annoying him were greater fools than he was.

OUR young friend, J. H. Brumbaugh, employed during the last year in the schools at Millersburg, Pa., has been elected, recently, to the superintendency of the schools at Northumberland, this State, at a salary of $100.00 per month.

THE VIRGINIA LANDS which we offer for sale, if not sold by us before Monday, August 2nd, will be put up at public sale, in Charlottesville, Virginia, on that date. If any of our farmers want good lands, cheap, this opportunity should not be left slip.

EVERY one feels the want of a non-corrosive pen. The Lafa pen fills the bill. Get them at the Journal Store. They outlast the brass on the face of the talking idiot who brags of every delverable body. Buy them and try them. Durborow & Co., sole agents for the county.

IF you want a pattern for any kind of garment whatever, enclose a two cent stamp to pay postage and forward to the Journal Store, and we will, by return of mail, send you a pamphlet containing styles of all the garments made, and you can select for yourself, and by forwarding price given and postage we will send you a pattern at once.

WHARTON & CHANEY is the best place to buy your MASON'S FRUIT JARS. They have a good supply on hand. [j14-2w]

BEFORD AND ITS WATERS AND LUXURIES.—Mr. Henry S. Diffebach, of the Columbia, Bloomsburg, Pa., has this to say in reference to Bedford:

THE gay and festive editor of the Eastern Sentinel has been visiting Bedford Springs, but goes home as mad as a March hare because of the allegedly "polite" of their owners, about which he scolds like a dog.
