The Huntingdon Journal. J. R. DURBORROW, - J. A. NASH, J. R. DURBORROW, - - - J. A. NASH.

PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS. Office in new Journal Building, Fifth Street.

THE HUNTINGDON JOURNAL is published every Wednesday, by J. R. DURBORROW & Co., at $2.00 per annum, in Advance, or $2.50 if not paid for in six months from date of subscription, and $3 if not paid within the year.

No paper discontinued, ruless at the option of the publishers, until all arrearages are paid.

No paper, however, will be sent out of the State unless absolutely paid for in advance.

Transient advertisements will be inserted at TWELVE AND A-HALF CENTS for the second, and FIVE CENTS per line for all subsequent insertions.

HUNTINGDON, PENNSYLVANIA.

Regular quarterly and yearly business advertise nents will be inserted at the following rates

3 m 6 m 9 m 1 y 3 m 6 m 9 m 1 y 3 50 4 50 5 50 8 00 12 00 18 00 3 27 $ 36 5 00 8 00 10 00 12 00 12 00 12 4 00 13 00 5 00 65 80 8 00 14 00 20 00 21 00 1 col 3 30 00 60 00 80 100

Local notices will be inserted at FIFTEEN CENTS per line for each and every insertion.

All Resolutions of Associations, Communications of limited or individual interest, all party announcements, and notices of Marriages and Deaths, exceeding five lines, will be charged TEN CENTS ner line. per line.

Legal and other notices will be charged to the Advertising Agents must find their commission outside of these figures.

All advertising accounts are due and collectable then the advertisement is once inserted.

JOB PRINTING of every kind, in Plain and Fancy Colors, done with neathers and dispatch.— Hand-bills, Blanks, Cards, Pamphlets, &c., of every variety and style, printed at the shortest notice, and every thing in the Printing line will be execu-ted in the most artistic manner and at the lowest Professional Cards.

BROWN & BAILEY, Attorneys-at-Law, Office 2d door east of First National Bank. Prompt personal attention will be given to all legal business entrusted to their care, and ction and remittance of claims.

BUCHANAN & GEORGEN, M. R. C. P., D. D. S SURGEON DENTISTS, mch.17,'75.] 228 Penn St., HUNTINGDON, Pa. CALDWELL, Attorney at Law, by Messrs. Woods & Williamson. [ap12,71.

DR. A. B. BRUMBAUGH, offers his office, No. 523 Washington street, one door east of the Catholic Parsonage. [jan.4,'71.

EDEBURN & COOPER, Civil, Hydraulic and Mining Engineers, Surveys, Plans and estimates for the construction of Water Works, Railroads and Bridges, Surveys and Plans of Mines for working, Ventilation, Drainage, &c.

Parties contemplating work of the above nature are requested to communicate with us. Office 269 Liberty Street, Pittsburgh, Pa. Feb.17-3mo.

GEO. B. ORLADY, Attorney-at Law. Over Wharton's and Chaney's Hardward store, Huntingdon, Pa. [ap17-tf.

E. J. GREENE, Dentist. Office removed to Leister's new building, Hill street Funtingdon. L. ROBB, Dentist, office in S. T. Huntingdon, Pa. TUGH NEAL, ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.

Cor. Smithfield Street and Eighth Avenue PITTSBURGH, PA. Second Floor City Bank. feb.17-1y.

C. MADDEN, Attorney-at-Law office, No. —, Hill street, Huntingdon, [ap.19,71.

FRANKLIN SCHOCK, Attorney e at-Law, Huntingdon, Pa. Prompt attention given to all legal business. Office 229 Hill street, orner of Court House Square. SYLVANUS BLAIR, Attorney-at-Law, Huntingdon, Pa. Office, Hill stree hree doors west of Smith.

R. DURBORROW, Attorney-at-G e Law, Huntingdon, Pa., will practice in the several Courts of Huntingdon county. Particular attention given to the settlement of estates of dece-

Office in he Journal Building. [feb.1,'71. W. MATTERN, Attorney-at-Law o and General Claim Agent, Huntingdon, Pa., Soldiers' claims against the Government for back pay, bounty, widows' and invalid pensions attended to with great care and promptness.

Office on Hill street.

[jan.4,771.

S. GEISSINGER, Actoric, Law, Huntingdon, Pa. Office one doo [Feb.5-1 S. GEISSINGER, Attorney-at

K. ALLEN LOVELL. J. HALL MUSSER TOVELL & MUSSER.

Aug.5.'74-6mos.

Attorneys-at-Law,
HUNTINGDON, PA.
Special attention given to COLLECTIONS of all kinds; to the settlement of ESTATES, &c.; and all other legal business prosecuted with fidelity and dispatch dispatch.

R. A. ORBISON, Attorney-at-Law,
Patents Obtained, Office, 321 Hill street. Patents Obtained, Office, 321 Hill street, Huntingdon, Pa. [may31,'71. E. FLEMING, Attorney-at-Law, nearly opposite First Nutional Bank. Prompt and careful attention given to all legal business.

WILLIAM A. FLEMING, Attorneyat-Law, Huntingdon, Pa. Special attention given to collections, and all other legal business stended to with care and promptness. Office, No.

DICKSON HOUSE. (Formerly Farmer's Hotel,) North-east corner of Fourth and Penn Streets, HUNTINGDON, PA.,

SAMUEL DICKSON, - - Proprietor. Having lately taken charge of the Dickson House, (formerly Farmer's Hotel,) I am now prepared to entertain strangers and travelers in the most satisfactory manner. The house and stable have both undergone thorough repair. My table will be filled with the best the market can afford, and the stable will be attended by careful hostlers. May 5, 1875-y

WASHINGTON HOUSE Corner of Seventh and Penn Streets. HUNTINGDON, PA., LEWIS RICHTER, - - PROPRIETOR. Permanent or transient boarders will be taken at this house on the following terms: Single meals 25 cents; regular boarders $18 per month.

Aug. 12, 1874

MORRISON HOUSE,

OPPOSITE PENNSYLVANIA R. R. DEPOT HUNTINGDON, PA.

J. H. CLOVER, Prop. April 5, 1871-1y.

Miscellaneous.

ROBLEY, Merchant Tailor, No. 813 Mifflin street, West Huntingdon, Pa., respectfully solicits a share of public patronage from town and country. [oct16,72.

Printing.

The Huntingdon Journal

TERMS: $2 00 per annum, in advance; $2.50

PROGRESSIVE

REPUBLICAN PAPER.

00 Subscribe. 000

TO ADVERTISERS:

— Circulation 1800. —

A

FIRST-CLASS

ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

5000

READERS

WEEKLY

The JOURNAL is one of the best printed papers in the Juniata Valley, and is read by the best citizens in the county. It finds its way into 1800 homes weekly, and is read by at least 5000 persons, thus making it the BEST advertising medium in Central Pennsylvania. Those who patronize its columns are sure of getting a rich return for their investment. Advertisements, both local and foreign, solicited, and inserted at reasonable rates. Give us an order

JOB DEPARTMENT:

its, and a full supply of all kinds of Jobbing, such as Posters best Cards, Wedding and Visiting Cass, Concert Tickets, Order Books, Sanks, Photographer's Cards, Bill Flets, Paper Books, etc., etc., etc., low as those of Philadelphia, and orly with any done in the State. We with the best of workmen, and wind to be done in our Job Rooms.

OFFICE, we are prepared to do ers of any size, Circulars, Busig Cards, Ball Tickets, Programs, Segar Labels, Receipts, Legal sill Heads, Letter Heads, Pameto, etc., etc. Our prices are and our work will compare favoroms. Satisfaction guaranteed in work, and see what we can do.

- COLOR PRINTING A SPECIALTY.

All business letters should be ad-

J. R. DURBORROW & CO.

dressed to

While thou shalt sit with princes and with kings Rich in the jewel of a ransomed soul. within six months, and $3.00 if The Story-Teller. not paid within the year.

LEONIE.

The Muses' Bower.

Wanted -- Men, Heroes, Souls.

men, Men who shall join its chorus, and prolong The psalm of labor and the song of love.

The age wants urrors—heroes who shall dar

To struggle in the solid ranks of truth;
To clutch the monster error by the throat;
To bear opinion to a loftier seat;

If thou wilt be a man in all thy thoughts,

To blot the era of oppression out, And lead a universal freedom in.

"Miss Cameron." Leonie Cameron, lazily looking out of a bow window upon a garden flaming with autumn tints and sunset glow, lifted a pair of soft dark eyes to Mrs. Tollman's face. It was an anxious face just at that moment, and being usually full of placid "The w content, the anxiety was very apparent to Leonie. So after the first careless glance she straightened herself in her low chair, and said, quietly, yet with every appearance of interest—
"What is the matter?"

An awkward pause followed that ques-

"John Furber."

Miss Cameron's face seemed to freeze.

It was a very beautiful face, with pride for a leading expression. Sweetness lurk"Yes" ed in the mouth, intellect beamed from the radiant dark eyes, but pride shadowed all. It carried the small head gracefully erect, it swept the folds of the rich dresses with a regal motion. It touched the small patrician hands, and was evident in the well modulated tones of the refined if the well would tell you to shun, the threads it is to be all to the total the well modulated tones of the refined in the well modulated tones of the refined in

"There," Mrs. Tollman said, despair ingly, "I've made you mad already, and haven't said anything."

my aunt keeps me here from charity?"

"I know you have offended your fathe at the good woman's consternation.—

But you have not told me what troubles you."

pair at your age."
Her words cut him like a whip-lash.
The dark blood mounted to his forehead

"It's-it's John, Miss Cameron, and-" as he repeated : by a fear of her own inability to finish her self-appointed task, she hurried on.— but," and here his tone was bitter, and by the Republican party are in every way worthy of public confidence and of a hearty "Ho's my nophow, miss, as you know, ly worth though his father is a rich man, very rich, Money? and John is above his mother's place in ed somewhere between the year she died | wages." and two years ago. I don't know where idleness to drinking, gambling and bad away your life." ways is an easy road. His father is a hard man and he thrust him out near a year ago and disinherited him. He came here, for I love him. I've nothing else to love;

I love John." man's face, but Leonie's was blank, save for an air of polite interest.

"He was most desperate when he came nere, but I've coaxed him up a bit. But I want to say. You are beautiful, rich- and sweet, murmured low in his ear-. a lady far above me in education and position, and only staying here for country quiet. I've no right to find fault, butut-don't flirt with John. He is in trouble, despondent, disinherited, and he's falling in love with you as fast as he can I believe, if you play with him, he will kill himself, body and soul."

Fairly out of breath with her own earest utterance, Mrs Tollman paused, looking pleadingly in Leonie Cameron's face. The expression of polite interest never wavered, as that young lady

"If I understand you aright, you wish me to ignore your nephew. It is not so easy, as he is in your house, so I had better leave it."

"Goodness!" cried the widow, ahgast at meant that. Where can you find another friends that she was not engaged, so there boarding-place near here? "I can return to London."

"I've put my foot in it. John will disconsolately.

face, and she turned away at last, perplex-Leonie, sinking back in her chair again, elaborately thanking that young lady for ooked at the sunset clouds and variegated a hamper of dainties, addedfoliage, and thought it was time to return "Do you remember my nephew John the Federal Government has no power to

She had come to S-form, and forgive the evident traces of dissipation, if it was only known that he drive him away by showing my heart too With the prominence at was the son of a rich man, and had been plainly? Well, even so, I am glad I have by the Democratic party to its one distinguishing doctrine of State sovereignty, as what holy horror it would turn away with uplifted hands when it was known that Mrs. Tollman, I do remember John."

garanting doctring of State Solvering the poposed to that of National sovereignty the advent of that party to power in the he was disinherited, with no home but a room in the house of a widowed aunt eke-ing for the opera, when a visitor was and danger of a second assertion of the right ing out her narrow income by taking hounced.
boarders. It would smile at his biting "What a barbarous hour," she murmurwhat a barbarous hour," she murmurprevious experience of the inability of the sarcasms, his brilliant conversation, his ed, not looking at the card. "In a few cynical sneers, if he was reinstated in his moments, Jane." father's favor, but how rude these would Leonie, from thinking of society's opinion, quite unconsciously glided into considering her own. This dark-browed man cloak from the maid's hand, she looked at Shou had made a fair portion of her summer the cardpleasure, for three months had been her cavalier in many country walks, drives and sails, had quoted poetry under trees, sung in a superb baritone upon murmuring only a soft tint upon the fair cheeks, and upon the free transportation of persons or waters, looked into her eyes on a moonlit in the dark eyes a light of happiness har- produce, or in removing natural obstrucporch and whispered delicately-worded monizing well with the smiling lips.

be in a poor man.

he world wants MEN-large hearted, manly woman who wounded hearts with merely careless grace. Musing in the sunset, it was impressed a happy truth as, taking it, she said: upon the proud heart that unconsciously thought he might be upon a dangerous in the face. Leonie, you bade me—precipice, waiting for the clasp of the hand Blushing brightly, she took up the words And Heaven wants sours-fresh and capacious souls,

To taste its raptures, and expand like flowers, o draw him back, or its repulse to thrust as he paused-Beneath the glory of its central sun, It wants fresh souls—not lean and shriveled him over. She passed in review her hosts of male friends, and found none who had It wants tresh souls, my brother—give it thine. If thou wilt be a MAN in all thy thoughts,
In all thy acts and all thy purposes;
If thou wilt be a HEBO, striving more
To help thy fellow than exalt thyself,
Thy feet, at last, shall stand on jasper floors,
Thy heart, at last, shall seem a thousand hearts;
Each single heart with myriad raptures filled—
While thou shalt sit with princes and with kings. done, who had met her fairly in so many

Finally, lifting her eyes with a soft sigh, she saw him leaning against a tree opposite the low window, looking at her. A vivid flush stained her cheek on the stained her arguments and worsted her, and she could only remember soft flattery of her "won-

"What can you have been thinking of? You have not stirred for half an hour. Only that your eyes were open I should have thought you asleep."
"Your powers of observation are marvelous," she answered lightly. "I was

"Of what?" "The world in general, my world in particular. It is almost time I returned there." She was prepared for some polite show of regret, but not for the ghastly change in his face. She shuddered, remembering his aunt's words. "Going away! Why, of course you

Mrs. Tollman fideeted under the inquiring glance of the dark eyes, cleared her throat twice, and finally said with nervous emphasis—would be soon," be said, trying to speak carelessly, while his yes hungrily devoured her face, and his white, parched lips were drawn as if in sharp physical pain. "I have been here three months," she said, feeling her own heart ache at his

"Yes, Yes! You will go, certainly."
"And you," she said, very gently, "you will be in the city, I presume. I should life till it is too late to take up the threads again. You do not know, perhaps, that "I know you have offended your father," "I am not mad," Leonie answered, and there certainly lurked a smile in her mouth by thirty, and it is cowardly to talk of des-then rapidly, as if the words were forced "Coward! I might fight the world yet, orth winning. What would I gain?

ney? I do not value it. Postion? I have thrown it behind me. I have her life. She's dead, and John was spoil- played the fool, and I must take a fool's "I will not have you say so, she said, he took to bad ways. He was brought up roused by an carnestness she never had an idler upon his father's money, and from intended to betray. "You shall not throw A hope sprang to his eyes, new there, lighting them to a dazzling radiance. "Miss Cameron-Leonie," he cried, were there a prize to win, were one heart's husband and children in the graveyard, so hope centered upon me, I would trample down these demons of temptation. I would There was a piteous pleading in the wo. | prove myself a man if I had any motive." There was no mistaking the prayer in his eyes, the pleading in his voice.

Only for one moment, close now to the low window, before a hand like a snow--but-O, Miss Cameron, you know what flake fell upon his shoulders, a voice, low "Be a man, for my sake."

She was gone before he spoke again, and he wandered off to the woods to muse upon a possibility of this new life. The next day Mrs. Tollman lost her summer boarder. Society, languidly con-templating Miss Cameron for the next three years, found her eccentric. She was gay and grave by flashes, fascinating in either mood, but she was unap-

The bravest suitor found himself met at the point where friendly attentions merge into lover's devotion by a wall of icy reserve that was impassable. She never flirted, but she had the reputation of a flirt, because she was popular and admired, and remained single till she was twenty seven. She was known to be truthful, and she had this interpretation of her words. "I never distinctly told several inquisitive lady render the existence of the Republican was not even the spice of romance in the gossip. -knew her not in those three years, never forgive me," said Mrs. Tollman, but Mrs. Tollman was the recipient of various hampers of city delicacies from her, But there was no sympathy in Leonie's and would acknowledge the same by letter. One of these, dated three years after the ed and more anxious than ever. And beautiful Miss Cameron left S-, after

Furber? He left me the day after you -, weary with a did, and I fretted more than a little. But round of fashionable life, tired of flattery he took a turn for good, heaven be thank-dancing, flirting, and she had found rest ed. He worked himself up, and to day and quiet under Mrs. Tollman's motherly he writes me he has made friends with his care. She was rich, richer far than the father again, and is to be taken partner Buchanan was still in office as President, landlady had any idea of; but she had in a commercial house. His father's to no near relatives, only a second cousin to keep her lonely home, and play prohard, honest work. O, my dear, I'm hap pier than I ever thought to be. Perhaps there was no power in the General Gov-Society constituted itself her amateur guardian, and lying back in her cushioned chair, in the sunset glow, she wondered pier than I ever thought to be. Fernange there was no power in the General Government to coerce a State. Had that respectively the pier than I ever thought to be. Fernange there was no power in the General Government to coerce a State. Had that respectively the pier than I ever thought to be. Fernange there was no power in the General Government to coerce a State. Had that respectively the pier than I ever thought to be. Fernange there was no power in the General Government to coerce a State. Had that respectively the pier than I ever thought to be. Fernange there was no power in the General Government to coerce a State. Had that respectively the pier than I ever thought to be. Fernange the pier than I ever thought to be a pier than I ever the pier than I ever the pier than I ever the pier th indolently what society would say about thought perhaps you'd remember John." would have been at once successful. Under "In London," Leonie murmured; "so the Democratic idea of State rights, Mr. perfection of manly beauty of face and near me all these three years, and yet nev- Buchanan would have been compelled to

She was robed in her fleecy dress of white lace, over pale blue silk, had clasped danger of entrusting the Government to diamonds on throat and wrists, and in the

"John Furber." A great heart throb sent the blood over in any matter of general concern, as, for man had done. A beauty and rich, Miss Cameron had looked upon more than one languishing suitor and forgotten him when to the window where he stood.

other world, in the radiance of her beauty, party from legislating upon it, Congres sionally. The National Government cannot, in fact, be carried on successfully, nor her amusement wearied her. Scarcely a He had not heard her light step, but he flirt, for she encouraged no down-right turned when she was near, showing the love-making, but a beautiful, fascinating stamp of his better life in his noble face. He held out his hand, looking earnest-

"I am glad to see you." sinking. There were capabilities for better things than dissipation and suicide in John Furber, and she shivered as she where I am not ashamed to look any man ly into her face, and sceing she spoke only "To be a man, John, for my sake." "And I obeyed you, my love, my darawaked her heart to hours of such keen ling. I have come for my reward, Lconic. pleasure as John Furber had given her.— loving you with all my heart, daring now oving you with all my heart, daring now She tried to recall one mind whose grasp to ask for your love in return."

She tried to recall one mind whose grasp to ask for your love in return."

So, society had a ripple of sensation in a fashionable wedding, when John Furber married Miss Leonie Cameron.

Political.

THE CAMPAIGN. Address of the State Central Committee

To the Republicans of Pennsylvania: The political campaign upon which we are entering is one of more than ordinary importance, and we therefore invoke your hearty co-operation in our efforts to press the claims of the Republican party to pub-c confidence and support. The success of that party is essential, in our judgment, to the prosperity of the State, to the perpetuity of the Union, and to the permanence of the principles upon which the Government is founded. The control of the administration of State affairs fell into Republican hands in 1861, and we point with pride to the record of that control. The State debt has been reduced from forty millions to twenty-three millions of dollars; the State taxes upon real estate and upon the personal property employed in agricultural pursuits have been repealed; the resources of the State have been developed; the admirable school system, which distinguishes our Commonwealth, has been fostered and strengthened; the orphans of her brave soldiers who fell in the war have been fed, clothed, ed ucated, and fitted for active life, and the varied interests of the people have been protected and encouraged. Under no previous administration has the State been so uniformly prosperous and well cared for; and the slight experience which people had last winter of one branch of the Legislature under Democratic control may well lead them to the conviction earned a very high character as a public officer, and his administration of the Exec utive Department has won the respect and commendation of all, without distinction of party. Unflinching integrity, unbending honesty, and a faithful attention to the duties of his office have characterized his administration throughout, and certainly no Governor ever more richly deserved a re-election Our candidate for State Treasurer is a new man to public life, but one in whom is combined all the qualifications of a good public officer. His capacity for the place admitted by all, and his well known character for integrity and business ability is also conceded by his political opponents. Having, therefore, a State ticket strong in all the elements that commend candidate to public favor, a platform of principles which has challenged the admiration of Republicans throughout the country, and a record of State administration to which we can all look back with a pardonable ing that we have faithfully met cur resconsibilities and that we are entitled to ontinuance of public confidence. Parties are worthy of support only so ong as they advance wise and patriotic principles and promote the honest and efficient administration of public affairs; and as the Republican party is entitled to the credit of both, it justly lays claim to a pride, we are justified, as a party, in claim verdict of popular approval. There are many matters of detail in which the Republican party differs from the Democratic; but there is one radical difference which, so long as it exists, will party a public necessity. That difference consists in the fact that the Republican party believes that the United States form Nation, with all the functions of a National sovereignty, while the Democratic party regards the Federal Government as mere league between the States, which are each, in its view, sovereign and independent. The Republicans believe in the indissolubility of the Union of the States, whilst the Democratic party believes that protect its own existence or prevent any State from asserting its independence. This is a difference which involves the very life of the Government. When the rebellion broke out in 1861, while James

With the prominence at present given guishing doctrine of State sovereignty, as the advent of that party to power in the Democratic party in power to attempt the coercion of a rebellious State should certainly be sufficient to teach the people the hands too weak or too unwilling to pro-

Should it ever become necessary, hereafter, to assert the power of the General Government to promote the public welfare, tions thereto, the Democratic doctrine, flattery. No more than many another She looked like some visitant from an faithfully adhered to, would prevent that at the Journal Store.

can the necessities of a people, with inter-to the idea that Government is but a federal legace, of separate and independent state severage in the severage of the array of the State and the suppression of the parts of the State and the suppression and severage of benefits of above as entitled to the protection and interested the suppression and severage of benefits of the construction of all for its upsage and the suppression of the parts that the suppression of the severage of benefits of the suppression of the severage of the suppression of the severage of benefits of the suppression of the severage of the su nterests of the country; in its policy which has led to a reduction of seventeen millions of the State debt, and six hundred millions of the National debt; in its judicious system of internal improvements having for their objects the enlargement of facilities and reductions in the costs of transportation for our inter State commerce; in its firm adherence to the indissoluble Union and to the unity and avergingty of the nothing to gain by a change in the administration of public affairs.

The candidates for State offices presented by the Republican party are in every way worthy of public confidence and of a hearty support. Governor Hartranth, during his six years' service as Auditor General, earned a very high character of the candidates for public support thereachly candidates for support thereachly candidates for public support thereachly candidates for pub public support, thoroughly assured that in their success will be found the true and only road to National unity, National progress, and National prosperity. By order of the con

HENRY M. HOYT, Chairman.

A. WILSON NORRIS, Secretary. Reading for the Million.

Backbone.

An admirable character is the man of backbone. How few there are among us who have a good spinal column. A sound physique argues obedience to God's laws, and there are few things more desirable than "a sound mind in a sound body." A steam engine, if it work well, must have a setting in some substantial material or elsewhen the fires are started there will be a confusion and ruin. And in order to have the mind work up to its best power it should be set in a frame work of healthy nerves and tissues with a powerful muscular development. Our man of backbone regards his body as a sacred treasure, not to be abused; a piece of machinery the conditions and powers of which it is important to understand. Hence he is temperate in eating and drinking while he end average to the secure that measure of exercise which will serve to keep his powers in a fer large that the server force and with a country of the latter of the secure of the secure ular or religious. He is mild without weakness, stern without the use of invective, indignant against wrong and without hatred of the wrong doer.

The Northern Pacific Railroad.

This Road, with all its property and franchises, is to be sold at auction under decree of Court, August 2d, in New York of Pennsylvania, and Jao. M. Denison, of Maryland. The plan of purchase and reorganizing represented by this Committee has been unanimously appoved by a general meeting of the bondholders. All bondholders. All bondholders are the planting of a clearer lad one went to the paradise of God.

THERE is a clearer lad one West the residual problem of the spring of the soul that known to wing the spring of the spring of the soul that known to wing the spring of the sp organizing represented by this Committee has been unanimously approved by a general meeting of the bondholders. All bondholders, who wish to share in the benefits of the plan or desire information, should immediately address THE PURCHASING COMMITTER N. P. R. R., at 23 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

BE CAREFUL —Persons who are compelled to work in the sun cannot be too careful during this heated term. It would be much better, where it can be done, to go to work earlier in the morning and work later in the evening, resting during the middle of the day. The precaution should also be taken to keep a wet sponge or handerchief on the top of the head. Instead of drinking so much water, keep a lemon by you, and when thirsty take a lemon by you, and when thirsty take a lemon by you, and when thirsty take a

Bonner, of the New York Ledger, lies ests so great and so grand as those of the American people, be properly met and provided for by any party holding strictly to the idea that Government is but a federal league, of separate and independent State sovereignties.

The following amoing seems, which coursel recently is a American more than five hundred feet above the level of the Hurison. It can be reached from the Tarrytown depot only by a rough drive over the stony hillside which stretches all the way from the river to the boundaries recites the occurrence in the following amoing seems, which courselings the following amoing seems, which coulselings the following amoing seems, which coulselings the following amoing seems, which coulselings the following amoing seems that the following amoing seems, which coulselings the following amoing seems, which coulselings the following amoing seems that the following amoing

Prominent among his stock are the fol-lowing well known horses: Edward Er-erett, Startle, Dexter, Joe Elliott, Bruno, Mambrino, Bertie, Lady Palmer, Peerless, "This is a wonderful sote," said not produced or augmented by the body itself; of such are ague, typhoid fever, etc. In the latter class of diseases the necessa-In the latter class of diseases the necessary precautions are to try and change the character of the surrounding air by enfor-eing strictly sanitary laws; which is in a great measure different from the course to be taken in avoiding contagious diseases. This courists chiefly in the shunning of all unnecessary contact with the sick and destroying all nozious materials they create.

proper working order.

The man of backbone has intelligent convictions of what is true, and what is duty, and whatever be the consequences he determines to act on these convictions. He is, withal, very frank in the expression of his views, letting men know where he stan is on the great questions of the day, and allowing his name to be associated with his personal views. "Backbone" can give a reason for the faith that is in him, whether that faith concern things see that a new property force and the consequences he determines to act on these convictions. He is, withal, very frank in the expression of his views, letting men know where he stan is on the great questions of the day, and allowing his name to be associated with his personal views. "Backbone" can give a reason for the faith that is in him, whether that faith concern things see that a new property of the consequences he determines to act on these convictions. The convictions of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with a person having a contagion of the same room with the same ro

Science has introduced disinfectants which deserve great merit. Of these the carbolic acid is deemed best of all; an ounce may be put in a gallon of water, and then used by sprinkling. Among others always at hand are wood charcost, jut?" quicklime and fresh errth.

THE GREAT CHANGE.—Conversion is

City, for the benefit of the first mortgage bondholder.

The general body of bondholders have united in a plan for protecting their interests, by causing the Road and property to be bid in for them by a Bondholders Committee, selected for the purpose. This Committee consists of Johnston Living, ston, of New York, Frederick Billings, of Vermont, George Stark, of Massachussets, J. K. Moorehead and J. N. Hutchinson, of Pennsylvania, and Jno. M. Denison, of the soul that knows no wing the most glorious work of God. The creation of the sun is a very glorifying work—when God first rolled him along the sky, scattering out golden blessings on every shore. The change in spring is very work derful—when God makes the faded grass revive, the dead trees put out green lesses, and the flowers appear on the earth. But far more glorious and wonderful is the conversion of the soul! It is the creation of a sun that is to shine for eternity; it is the spring of the soul that knows no wing the start of the soul start of the soul start in the change; the most glorious work of God. The creation of the sun is a very glorifying work—when God first rolled him along the sky, scattering out golden blessings on every shore. The change in spring is very work derful—when God makes the faded grass revive, the dead trees put out green lesses, and the flowers appear on the carth. But for more glorious and wonderful is the conversion of the soul! It is the creation of a sun that is to shine for eternity; it is the start of the soul s the most glorious work of God. The crea-

The noted stock farm of Mr Robert A SCORT WHICH POINTS PTS OWN NORM

Baker; "I only wish somebody me something, and I ownd as something, so that I might come is belongs to me belongs to you. It has com-pleted the round, and we have all had the benefit of it."

"And now it must go around replied she, guyly. "I like to one circulate; it should never lie idle. Susan, you take it. Now I have gold you top dellars." "Dear Grace, here is snother five dell it to Grace.

"And you, Frank, have received to dollars for the matie you bought me, aid Grace, handing it to her brother.

"And I pay you too dollars for a board," he continued and the note on tives—as camphor, hartshorn, vinegar and many other substances, although modern science has branded them as popular delusions.

doubt; and now, my dear Grace, I pay you my indebtodness, with many thanks for your assistance."

I take it with thanks, Aust Summ,"

"Too dillars and sixty two cents," to plied Frank. "Can you change it?" "Let me see; too thir does not depend on circumstances or con-dition; if is did, it could only be for the few. It is not the fruit of good lank or handerchief on the top of the head. Instead of drinking so much water, keep a lemon by you, and when thirsty take a suck of it, and the thirst will be allayed.

Buy your Blank Books and Stationery Buy your Blank Books and Stationery than the first of the spirit of deep the spirit of Jesus, which is the spirit of deep the spirit of Jesus, which is the spirit of deep not shine.