VOICE OF THE PEOPLE. FROM TROUGH CREEK.

EDITOR JOURNAL, Dear Sir : I am happy to inform you that the thing, calling himself a Trough Creeker, if such a thing did say to A. L. Guss, what he says he did, in the Globe of the 28th, or consent to all Guss says, he most wofully misrepresents the people of Trough Creek. Those who are willing to fol low Guss entirely into the Democratic party are very few, and far between, they are not yet entirely void of common sense. If Guss choose to make a fool of himself he can do so, but he will find he cannot make fools of many

He need not think that we were led by him heretofore, we know when we did step aside from the regular Republican ticket, that we had a leader in W. H. Woods that had some brains at least, he was our Moses not Guss and now that an honorable settlement of all our difficulties have been made, we are ready as a body with him to return to our ranks and do good service for the whole Republican party, and I believe I speak the sentiments o our whole wing of the party, except a very few sore heads that have fears they will like Guss fail to be nominated now, and never should be nominated.

We never were a Guss faction, we were Woods faction, and are yet, and are willing to follow him, and the more Guss abuses him the brighter he will shine, everybody in the lower end of the county knows what ails Guss give him the same assurance of a nomination that the Democrats do, and he would be with us even unto death, and his blowing about his many letters and opinions from the Lower near the bottom now-had we known him be fore as we know him now, we would have droped him long since. A JOURNAL OF Fashion, Literature, and Art.

"How a Journal of Fashion can combine fashion and literature at very low terms is well shown by this periodical. The May number, besides a colored Fashion Plate, has thirty-six pages, profusely illustrated, on the fashions of costumes for ladies and children, seasonable fabrics, trimmings, millinery, linguierie, coiff ware, and domestic art, and yet with all this there is room for poems and tales, by popular authors, notices of new books, etc., and the price of all this matter is only $1.50 per annum. Take it all in all, we know of no periodical of which readers get so much for their money as those of the "DOMESTIC" MONTHLY."—N. Y. Evening Mail.

those of the "DOMESTIC MONTHLY,"—N. F. Exeming Mail.

"If one wishes the latest information concerning the latest fashions, the 'DOMESTIC' MONTHLY is ready with the intelligence, aided by abundant illustrations. It does not, however, neglect current literature, as it contains poems, a serial story, some interesting miscellany, and art notes."—N. Y. World.

"It combines literary merit with a great deal of information in regard to Indies' costumes, fabrics, toilettes, etc. It is plentifully illustrated in its fashion articles, and its list of contributions is deserving of much praise."

N. Y. Commercial Advertior.

"A far better periodical than many of the so-called weekly papers."—Terrelowne Republican, Hoisma, La.

"One of the best Fashion Magazines that comes to our office."—Clarendon Freza, Manning, S. C.

"The most delightful of the Fashion Magazines."—American Standard, Jersey City, N. J.

"We can heartily recommend it."—Fort Madiam [lows) Demacrat.
