Our next issue, Nos. 14 and 15, will be a splendid DOUBLE NUMBER complete and unabridged, with EIGHT characteristic illustrations, containing the famous "Twenty Thousand Leagues under the Seas," By JULES VERNE.

This wonderful book is descriptive of a voyage of 20 000 leagues UNDER the surface of THE SEA! No one acquainted with Verne's peculian and dramatic style need be told that this (his greatest book) is most intensely interesting. lays bare the mysteries of the mighty deepunken wrecks : submarine forests : the grotesque sunken wrecks; submarine forests; the grotesque, indeous and awful creatures who dwell therein; the beautiful coral caves; its treasures of gold, silver and jewele lost in Spanish ships of olden lays. Yet so quaintly, and with such an air of candor, is the story told, that you can hardly believe that you are not reading a transcript from a ship's log-book.
