

W. L. FOULK, Agent of the Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia Press Association.

Is the only person in Pittsburgh authorized to receive advertisements for the JOURNAL. He has our best rates.

REDUCTION!

Until further notice, we propose to insert special, or local, in our local columns—not among the items, but distributed through the local matter—at TEN CENTS per line, eight ordinary words constituting a line. No charge, however, will be made for less than fifty cents.

HUNTINGDON POST OFFICE.

Time of Arrival and Going of the Mail. Mails arrive as follows: From the East, 8:30 a. m., 8:40 p. m. West 8:20 a. m., 9:25 a. m., 8:10 p. m. (closed mail from Altoona and Petersburg) and 10:25 p. m. South (Huntingdon and Broad Top R. R.) 8:30 a. m., 8:40 p. m. (closed mail from Altoona and Petersburg) and 10:25 p. m. South (H. & W. R. R.) 8:30 a. m., 8:40 p. m. (closed mail from Altoona and Petersburg) and 10:25 p. m. Union Church (Wednesday and Saturday) at 1 p. m. Close as follows: East at 8:00 a. m., 8:35 p. m. West at 8:10 a. m., 8:35 p. m. (closed mail to Petersburg) 5:15 p. m., 7:45 p. m. South (H. & W. R. R.) 8:30 a. m., 8:40 p. m. (closed mail to Bedford) at 7:45 p. m. South (H. & W. R. R.) 8:30 a. m., 8:40 p. m. (closed mail to Altoona and Petersburg) at 1 p. m. Office open from 6:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m., except Sundays and legal holidays, when it will be open from 8 a. m. to 9 a. m.

J. HALL MUSSEY, Postmaster.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen. Cool evenings. Get registered. The trout season ended on the 15th. The Hildebrand knows the value of printer's ink.

Camp meetings are being held in every direction. Examine the register list and see that your name is upon it.

Don't fail to attend the delegate elections on Saturday night.

The "army worm" has made its appearance in portions of Cambria county.

Allen Stoen, Esq., has been appointed postmaster at Middleville, this county.

Huntingdon was well represented at the Shaver's Creek harvest home, on Friday.

Don't spend your money, foolishly, by patronizing the show to exhibit here to-morrow.

It is claimed that raw onions, applied to the wound of a snake bite, are a sure and speedy cure.

An ice-house was burned in Hollidaysburg, last week, and about three tons of ice was destroyed.

A party of gentlemen, in Mount Union, are about chartering a car for a trip to Denver, Colorado.

Pollman Miller had an obnoxious individual quartered in the lock-up, on Saturday night.

The Circus will exhibit in Fishers' lot, opposite the Hildebrand's Wholesale and Retail Liquor Store.

The Rev. of last week, published a "serious" resolution passed at the Mt. Union meeting on the 31st ult.

In order to vote, at the approaching November election, you must be registered on or before the second of September.

The famous Athletic ball club, of Philadelphia, passed through this place, one day last week, on a Western tour.

Summers & Boring will furnish the soda water for the thirsty at the Juniata Valley Camp. Another "monopoly."

One hundred and twenty boxes have gone up in Oceola since the fire, which is at the rate of two boxes a day. They "push things" out there.

"Fidiotic fringe" is the right name for the present style the ladies have of cropping the hair and letting the ends hang down over their forehead.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company should provide a policeman, at Newton Hamilton, during the continuance of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting.

A proof-reader who can spell and punctuate correctly? The leader, in the last issue, was simply horrible.

Mrs. W. H. Rex, of Mapleton, has a cucumber which measures 1 1/2 inches in length, 10 inches in circumference, and weighs 3 pounds. Who can beat it?

A little daughter of John Bars, Esq., of Mt. Union, during the prevalence of the heavy thunder storm, Friday a week ago, was stunned by lightning.

Politics are getting interesting in Huntington county. We only need a few more organizations. Can't the disaffected Democrats get up a side-show?

The JUNIATA VALLEY CAMP JOURNAL will be issued for 25 cents for the term exclusive of postage, or 30 cents, postage included. Send in your subscriptions.

John W. Fitzgerald has been lodged in Bedford jail charged with forgery and embezzlement as the agent of the Victor sewing machine company of Altoona.

If dog days did end on the 12th inst., they still have their nights, judging from the amount of yelping and howling in the neighborhood of Fourth and Millin streets.

The commissioners of Blair county have awarded the building of the new court house to John Schriener, of Pittsburgh, at $103,700. Mr. Schriener was the lowest bidder by $1,200.

At the recent annual session of the State Society of Spiritualists, held in Lancaster, on venerable friend, John S. Lett, Esq., of Spruce Creek, was chosen one of the Vice Presidents of the Society.

Rev. Asbury Clarke, of Shamokin, formerly of this place, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, in this borough, on Sunday morning and evening, and preached to large and attentive congregations.

The Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West Virginia Press Association will meet at Cresson Springs to-morrow, (Thursday), and a good time may be expected. Maj. E. S. Christian, of the Washington Reporter, will deliver an address.

The sale of the Virginia lands, advertised by us as being postponed until the 10th of September next. Now is the time for our people to come forward and buy good land cheap, in one of the best climates in the country.

The wife of W. J. Fleming, Esq., one of the editors and proprietors of the Altoona Evening Mirror, died, at her residence, in that city, Sunday a week ago, after a protracted illness. We sympathize with Mr. Fleming in his bereavement.

A traveling mountebank gave a street performance, of acrobatic feats, in the neighborhood of the Washington Hotel, on Thursday evening last, but he found that wasn't a paying business, as he did not get a single "Spinner" when he passed the hat.

The "harvest home" of our colored citizens, held in Oriskany Grove, on Thursday last, was rather slimly attended, but we understand that those present had a pleasant time. A band of colored musicians from Altoona furnished the music for the occasion.

We had been congratulating ourselves that this place would be free from the curse of a circus this season, when, lo! one is billed for Thursday. We hope our people will put their money to better use than helping to swell the treasuries of these annual nuisances.

The JUNIATA VALLEY CAMP JOURNAL will be issued from this office every afternoon, except Sunday, during the approaching Camp Meeting, at 25 cents per term to those who reside in this county. All others will be charged 30 cents to cover postage. Send in your subscriptions at once.

The Board of Pardon, at its recent session, in Harrisburg, recommended the pardon of John Sidgiler, who was convicted of manslaughter in shooting and killing William Wingate at Tyrone, on the 4th of July, 1872. The circumstance will be remembered by many of our readers.

The Cambria Guards, of Ebensburg, propose marching to this place, on the 20th inst., carrying with them flags, banners, etc., and to read the review of the Fifth Regiment which comes off here on the 9th of September. It is expected that the Ebensburg Corn Band will accompany the Guards.

Rev. M. P. Doyle, of Huntington, and J. Walker, of Altoona, says the Everett Press, will commence a series of meetings at Tatesville, on Saturday evening, August 21st, inst. If the weather is favorable the services will be held in the grove near the town, and an interesting time is earnestly expected.

How terribly sarcastic some ladies can be. A few mornings ago we entered a car crowded with not the most prepossessing set of men. A lady innocently inquired: "Is there a Democratic Convention going on anywhere?"

On next Sunday, the 22nd of August, Right Rev. Michael Donnell, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburgh, will preach and give Confirmation in Most Holy Trinity Church at the 10 o'clock Mass. In the evening at 7 o'clock, the learned prelate will lecture on the following subject: "What are the views of the Catholic Church on the Bible."

A small show, with a tremendous title, is advertised to exhibit here on Thursday. We judge it to be a very small affair, because it desired to pay the printers in tickets. If this is its rule and any of our people have any old boots, or anything of no account, we advise them to exchange for admission; but, as you value the community in which you live, don't pay any money. The community has none to spare.

Mr. Edward Yocum, of Walker township, accidentally shot and killed himself on Thursday afternoon last. He had taken his gun for the purpose of shooting a hawk, and in order to ascertain whether it contained a load put his foot upon the hammer of the lock and blew in the muzzle. His foot slipping, the gun was discharged and the ball entered his mouth killing him instantly. He was highly respected in his neighborhood.

If you want a pattern for any kind of a garment whatever, enclose a two cent stamp to pay postage and forward to the JOURNAL STORE, and we will, by return of mail, send you a pamphlet containing styles of all the garments made, and you can select for yourself, and by forwarding price given and postage we will send you a pattern at once. The "Domestic" Paper Patterns have the reputation of being the best offered to the public.

On Monday, of last week, as Wm. Gay was driving C. A. Ash's team of six mules over the Stone Creek bridge, near Crownover's Mills, one span of the bridge gave way, submerging the team and wagon in the stream. One of the mules became entangled in the harness and was drowned. William Ward, who was near at the time, rendered efficient aid in saving the rest of the team. A good bridge is badly needed at this point, and we hope that the county will see to it at once.

The second quarterly meeting, of the Cassville branch, of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, was held in the M. E. Church, at Newburg, on the evening of the 31st of July, in presence of a good congregation, for the evening. A number of addresses were made on the occasion, and quite an interest manifested for the cause. Some eight or nine new members were added. The third quarterly meeting will be held at Pine Grove School house, on the evening of the 30th of October next.

Mark C. Harvey, who resides near Nef's Mills, this county, and who has been engaged in mining coal near Houtzdale, Clearfield county, relieved a fellow miner named Miller, of thirty-nine dollars by abstracting it from the ground after making the fearful haul, and advertising herself of some articles of clothing, which were afterwards found on the track, committed suicide by jumping into the river below. It is stated that she was a wealthy, intelligent and refined lady, traveling alone to San Francisco from England to see some friends, and that before leaving her native place, she was not a particle deranged, but after leaving New York city insanity was noticed in her actions. Her derangement was brought on, it is supposed, by the tempt of a hot rummer in New York to commit an outrage upon her. She was but twenty two years of age, and her tragic death will cause deep sorrow when the news reaches her friends.

RE-NOMINATION OF W. E. LIGHTNER.—We have noticed the announcement of W. E. Lightner, Esq., as a candidate for re-nomination for the office of Register & Recorder. No better nomination could be made. As an officer no better could be found anywhere. He has filled the office with credit to himself and the people of this county, especially as far as his knowledge of the office could be obtained during the first term, as any person who has any knowledge of that office will admit that it requires the first term to become familiar with the method of conducting the business of the office. He has established a custom of continuing an officer in this office for two terms, because of the great advantage to the public in having an officer familiar with the duties of that office. The interest of the people therefore demand that Mr. Lightner be continued another term. He has proved himself a very accommodating and efficient officer, and is worthy of having the role or custom of the party extended to him, by giving to him re-nomination. HENRY STONE.

CAMP MEETING.—A couple of Clerical gentlemen went over to the Cumberland Valley Camp Meeting, from Huntington, and this is the sort of trouble they got into, according to the Harrisburg Telegraph of the 11th inst: "The sermon of yesterday forenoon was preached by Rev. J. S. McMurray, of Huntington. His text was Matthew vi, 19, 20, 'Lay not up for yourself treasures on earth,' &c. Rev. McM. delighted his audience with a discourse, was convincing, and led many to think seriously, as the treasures of heaven were brought in contrast with those of earth. Last night Rev. J. B. Akers, of Huntington, preached a great sermon, founded on Hebrew vii, 25—'Wherefore he is able also to save to the uttermost that come to God by him.' At the end of the sermon penitents flocked to the altar in great numbers. There were many conversions before the exercises closed. In the great hereafter scores of redeemed souls will rejoice on account of their being saved through the means of this camp meeting."

LETTERS FROM DRUGGISTS.—There is no case of Dyspepsia that Green's August Flower will not cure. Come to the Drug Store of S. S. Smith & Son, and inquire about it. If you suffer from Constipation, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, or derangement of the Stomach or Liver try our Three or three doses will relieve you. Boche's German Syrup is now sold in every town and city in the United States. We have not less than five hundred letters from Druggists, saying it is the best medicine they ever sold for Constipation, Throat or Lung disease. Sample bottles of both 10 and 25 cent. Regular size 75 cents. [Sept-75-81m.]

Mrs. E. M. SIMONSON, formerly E. M. Africa, has just returned from Philadelphia, with a handsome assortment of hats, choice goods and novelties of the season. All are invited to call. Corner of Fifth and Penn Sts., Huntington, Pa. tf.

SENSELESS.—The Lewistown Gazette says: Some structures have been made on the action of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association giving the Huntington Journal the exclusive right of sending a Daily Camp Journal in connection with the periodical business. We cannot see much wrong in it, as they delegate nearly every other business to some person. One good Journal would be much better than half a dozen poor ones, and if Durborrow & Co. will issue a paper worthy of the name, they are welcome, so far as we are concerned, to all the trouble and all they can make out of it.

The Journal this week justly came headed on the Altoona Tribune for its article headed "Rather Incredible," in which the Directorship of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association is assailed for giving Durborrow & Co. the exclusive control of the newspaper publishing and vending business at the approaching meeting. He shows conclusively that the Directorship have the right to control this business as much as any other, if they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

MONEY UNION CLUB.—The Lewistown Gazette says: Some structures have been made on the action of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association giving the Huntington Journal the exclusive right of sending a Daily Camp Journal in connection with the periodical business. We cannot see much wrong in it, as they delegate nearly every other business to some person. One good Journal would be much better than half a dozen poor ones, and if Durborrow & Co. will issue a paper worthy of the name, they are welcome, so far as we are concerned, to all the trouble and all they can make out of it.

The Journal this week justly came headed on the Altoona Tribune for its article headed "Rather Incredible," in which the Directorship of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association is assailed for giving Durborrow & Co. the exclusive control of the newspaper publishing and vending business at the approaching meeting. He shows conclusively that the Directorship have the right to control this business as much as any other, if they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and all. Moreover its efficiency must necessarily be dependent on its being enjoyed exclusively. We think the Directors did right.—Huntingdon Globe.

Messrs. Durborrow & Nash, of the Huntington Journal, have secured the exclusive control of the publishing and newspaper vending business, on the grounds of the Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association. This will of course exclude all other contemplated rival dailies to that of the proposed Daily Journal, and they can limit some, they can this, and