From all parts of the county the information comes that Henry R. Shearer' "leads" well. If he did pull in a " Mule ticket" three or four years ago, he is square up now, and, with his companions, will knock the hind sights off that other hybrid concern at the approaching election.

The old files of the JOURNAL have been searched over by the Monitor and Globe to find something that was said against Henry R. Shearer, but they only found a "Mule's Nest." They just cackle the least bit ; but then Democratic roosters never cackle very much, and latterly "crow"

Democrats complain to us daily of the domineering character of the Speer Ring, and swear they mean to strike down the Grasshopper ticket, but they have not the courage to do it. While they compose a large majority of the party they have nobody to lead off, and Speer tramples their wishes under his feet.

This is what the Globe says :-"The Republicans of Huntingdon county the whole party looked as if clean shirts must stand up to a man for our party on the State Ticket. Though we join with the Democrats in the local county issues. we must manfully sustain our party in the State. Let there be no defalcation here. vote of the party in this county." And Thos. W.
