HUNTINGDON POST OFFICE.

Times of Arrival and Closing of the Mail.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

Subscribers for the JOURNAL.

Read the first page carefully.

Don't fail to hear the Silby Minstrels next week.

The Mt. Union Herald has entered upon its second volume.

The Silby Minstrels will give our people a rich treat next week.

The season for putting up stores is at hand.

The pavement on Sixth street front of the Catholic church has been graded and relaid.

Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Gettysburg, has been engaged to take charge of the Huntingdon Academy.

Liberal advertisers always sell goods cheap.

Don't forget the Brady Agricultural Exhibition which commences to day, 29th, and continues for three days.

A substantial brick drain has been put down between the tracks of the P. R. R. from Third to Fourth streets.

Everybody is going to hear the Silby Minstrels next week, and everybody will be pleased, for the Silby's are hard to beat.

A boy was arrested, the other day, for stealing five dollars from his father.

The Broad Top road is as smoothly as a carriage over a Nicholson pavement.

Our old friend J. K. McCahan, esq., has broken ground for the erection of a house adjoining his residence on Washington street.

Mr. Lloyd, of Altoona, has made an assignment, and appointed John Riley, John Loudon and Max Kinkaid as his assignees.

Capt. Adams, conductor on the Broad Top, is justly popular. He is as clever a gendarme as you will find this side of sundown.

The painters are giving Port's new building, on the corner of Fifth and Washington, the finishing touches, and it presents a very handsome appearance.

Gen. John Williamson and P. M. Lytle, esq., of this place, were among the speakers at the Republican Mass Meeting held in Bedford on Tuesday night of last week.

Some one sent us $2.50 from Graysville, but neglected to attach his name to the letter in which it was enclosed.

Ellsworth, the able editor of the Philadelphia Journal, popped in to see us on Monday last.

While we remained in Bedford last week we stopped at the JENKINS Hotel kept by Mrs. Mary J. Hill. It was crowded all week and gave universal satisfaction.

Dr. B. B. Hamlin of Chambersburg, spent last Friday night among his friends in Huntingdon. He is as jovial and entertaining as ever.

Mr. Pike, of the Cambria Freeman, who was a candidate for county treasurer, was unsuccessful and he can now pull up his coat, roll up his sleeves and go to work for his successful rival.

Rev. D. W. Hunter, of the First Baptist Church, of this place to the high and honorable position of Chaplain of the aforesaid Fifth. This is an excellent appointment and will give entire satisfaction.

Some time ago a gentleman in this place sent a sealed letter to a medium, in New York city, some of the questions in which were answered. To test the identity of the spirit more thoroughly, another letter was dispatched, more elaborately sealed, and containing questions which no person but the spirit could possibly answer.

A tramp, who stopped at Jacob Zillius', in West Huntingdon, about two weeks ago, sick and out of funds, was taken in and cared for by that gentleman. On last Saturday afternoon Mr. Z. went up stairs to see his patient, but upon going to his room he found the bed empty and his occupant gone.

THE HUNTINGDON COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—We are sorry to say that there is not sufficient interest taken in this matter. Why it is we are scarcely prepared to say. There is one thing certain, those whose business has been to inform the public and stir up an interest, have not comprehended their duties.

It appears they have thought that it was only necessary for them to down certain printers and give the Premium List to those who would do it for the least amount of cash, and then for them to retire to their holes. It is not the way to do business. It is their business to advertise the Fair.

THE HOUSEKEEPER is an illustrated monthly, unique in plan, that will please an immense number of housewives and husbands. It claims to show how a household may be conducted with the least care and expense.

Wines for DELIBERATE FEMALES.—Some time since we stopped at Passaic, N. J., and were really surprised to see the amount of Mr. Speer's stock of Port Grape Wine on hand.

P. T. BARNUM'S GREAT TRAVELING WORLD'S FAIR.—The most notable event in the amusement annals of Huntingdon will be the first visit of P. T. Barnum's gigantic combination of diverse exhibitions, which is to pitch its tenting cars of tents here on Saturday, Oct. 9th.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.—Letters remaining in the Post-Office at Huntingdon, Sept. 25th, 1875: J. Z. Gregg, Mrs. Harriet Johnston, L. G. Long, Mrs. Maria Lloyd, Jno. C. Osterlich, Miss M. E. Smith, Edward Williams.

Persons desiring advertised letters forwarded must send one cent fee, for advertising. J. HALL MUSSER, P. M.

Persons who have become thoroughly chilled from any cause, may have their circulation at once restored by taking into the stomach a teaspoonful of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment mixed in a little cold water, well sweetened.

GRAND PITTSBURGH EXPOSITION.—Readers must not overlook the advertisement elsewhere of the First Grand Exposition of the Pittsburgh Tradesmen's Industrial Institute. It will be a great novelty in our section, but its success has already been assured, and it will undoubtedly be the grandest and most attractive display ever held in Pennsylvania.

THE MULTIPLICATION OF DISEASES. Diseases multiply. One begets another. A trifling indisposition may, therefore, originate a complication of dangerous maladies. Investigation begins for more formidable diseases; a multitude of symptoms are recognized, constituting fever and ague, malarial fever, and other ailments.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE. FROM SANTILO. SANTILO, Pa., Sept. 25th, 1875. Editor Journal.—Dear Sir—As you don't seem to have a correspondent at this place, I purpose sending a few items. Our town is improving more this season than any other along the E. P. R. R. from Union to Robertsdale.

GOING AND DONE IT.—Lieut. D. Harry Munson, an attaché of the Tribune office, has deliberately left the ranks of bachelorhood, and joined those of the Benedicts. We had the pleasure of being present in the First M. E. Church on Thursday evening to witness the imposing ceremony, which united our young friend in the holy ties of matrimony with the lady of his choice, Miss Beattie Schneider, daughter of Christ F. Schneider, esq., of this city.

THE HOUSEKEEPER is an illustrated monthly, unique in plan, that will please an immense number of housewives and husbands. It claims to show how a household may be conducted with the least care and expense, and with the greatest attractiveness and comfort.

Wines for DELIBERATE FEMALES.—Some time since we stopped at Passaic, N. J., and were really surprised to see the amount of Mr. Speer's stock of Port Grape Wine on hand, it is almost fabulous. Four Storehouses are filled, and tiers upon tiers of casks up and down stairs, and in some cases huge vats, offer every available spot, leaving only little alleys ways through which to walk.

THE DAILY MORNING PATRIOT, ten hours earlier than any other eastern paper, for sale at the JOURNAL News Depot. Leave your orders immediately.

IS YOUR LIFE WORTH TEN CENTS?—Sickness prevails everywhere, and every day complaints of some disease during their life. When sick, the object is to get well; and we say plainly that no person in this world that is suffering with Dispepsia, Liver Complaint and its effects, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart, Depressed Spirits, Bilelessness, &c., can take GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER without getting relief and cure.

Now is the time to buy your winter clothing and the place to buy it is three doors east of the depot where you will find a large stock of ready made clothing for men and boys, overcoats, hats, caps, underclothing, overalls, flannel shirts, muslin shirts, paper cuffs, collars, and fronts, (latest styles) and other articles too numerous to mention, all of which I will sell cheap. I sell for cash only and I sell low.

Mrs. E. M. SIMONSON, formerly E. M. Africa, has just returned from Philadelphia, with a handsome assortment of hats, choice goods and novelties of the season. All are invited to call. Corner of Fifth and Penn Sts., Huntingdon, Pa. tf.
