

Circulation LARGER than any other Paper in the Juniata Valley.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

GOVERNOR: MAJ. GEN. JOHN F. HARTMAN. STATE TREASURER: HENRY RAWLE, of Erie.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE: HENRY R. SHEARER, of Shade Gap. PHOTOGRAPHER: THOMAS W. MYTON, of Huntingdon.

REGISTER AND RECORDER:

WILLIAM B. LIGHTNER, of West.

TREASURER:

H. CLAY WEAVER, of Huntingdon.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY:

GEORGE B. ORLADY, of Petersburg.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS:

BARTON GREEN, of Onedia, ANDREW G. NEFF, of Porter.

DIRECTOR OF THE POOR:

OHAS K. HORTON, of Broad Top City.

AUDITORS:

JOHN W. MATTER, of Huntingdon, WILLIAM H. REX, of Mapleton.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS WILL BE HELD AT THE FOLLOWING NAMED PLACES:

- Tuesday, October 19th, Salsburg and Mill Creek. Wednesday, October 20th, McKays Fort, Markleburg and Green School House.

MONEY WANTED!

Within the last two weeks we have sent out in the neighborhood of five hundred dms. To these about thirty or forty have responded, but the great mass have not yet paid any attention to them.

The Philadelphia Bulletin says that Mr. R. Milton Speer declared at the Democratic mass meeting held in this city on Saturday night, a week ago, that the volume of currency has been contracted over $300,000,000 since the war.

The man who seeks the position of Director of the Poor ought to be a man of charity, of large heartedness, not a soulless, tight-fisted man. How do the candidates of the respective parties for Director of the Poor in this county compare in this respect?

Wm. E. Speer and a few others have formed a Ring to elect a Democratic ticket, and now the Professor appeals to the people to throw the Literati, People's League, Woods and Orlandy vote for their Ring.

Wm. E. Lightner must be an awful man! Both the Globe and Monitor go for his scalp as if they meant to take every hair. The pitch of the matter is that Lightner has been asking Republicans and Democrats to vote for him in preference to another who claims to be a straight Republican.

The Globe wants us to say something about Mr. Woods. Why Mr. Woods needs no defence at our hands. We are sorry we cannot accommodate the editor who is "spilling" for a "jaw."

The Monitor has not told us yet whether Stonerrod, the old wheel-horse of Democracy; Isenber, the most popular man in the Democratic party, outside of Huntingdon, and Conrad the popular candidate for Treasurer, are in favor of the Guss-Speer Fusion?

Mr. Speer blandly tells Republicans who will listen to him, that "Weaver may be elected, but there is no chance for Shearer." Ah, Mr. Oily Gammone, the wish is father to the thought; Stenger Democrats, this only shows how deeply he is interested in the election of Heeter.

The soldiers universally commend Wm. E. Lightner, esq. They say he never charges them for vouchers executed before him. This is true; Mr. Lightner's kindness to the unfortunate soldiers, in this respect, is universally appreciated.

When Mrs. Keed, of Tod township, the wife of a soldier, sought assistance at the hands of the Relief Committee, John Griffith, the wealthiest man in that township and the Fusion candidate for Director of the Poor, said "let her take in sewing and make her own living."

The editor of the Globe is presenting a game of bluff. He claims 300 majority for Fusion in Huntingdon borough, 100 for Fusion in Huntingdon, 1000 in the county. And all that sort of stuff.

A Hartman Club was organized on Monday night, in the rooms above the Post Office, and on Wednesday evening they turned out and paraded through the streets with two hundred torches.

"Honest old John Griffith is just the man to put in office to look after the poor," says the Globe. There is some question whether the man who skimped poor soldiers' widows during the war, and who, by successful manipulations of the assessors of Tod township, has obliged the county out of $1000 tax is the proper man for the Poor House?

Henry L. Reinhardt, well known to a number of our citizens, has retired from the Bloomsburg Cadetship and Messrs. Brodway and Hivell succeed him. We wish both retiring and incoming parties success.

The Woods man is only too glad to malice the Cassville business, and now Speer has taken it up. The Guss-Speer Fusion Democrats, will you carry it?

Wilbur F. Cunningham, the great and good Wilbur, attended the Mooreville Camp Meeting and insisted upon good Republicans voting for him on the ground that he was a straight-forward Republican.

Our old friend, W. C. Hollahan, esq., is the Republican candidate for District Attorney in Clinton county, and we hope, if it is possible to elect a Republican in that county, that he may be elected. He is an active, intelligent, polished gentleman and well qualified for the position.

That little account of the Professor's visit, in company with Wilbur F. F., to the "classie shade of Cassville" made that individual as mad as a hornet. He calls us a "fool" and sashes around like a half-dressed in a clearing. Who, Professor, don't go on so, we will give you something to get mad about before the campaign is over.

The Republican who cuts the ticket because there is some man on it whom he does not like makes a great mistake. We made concessions, and formed a union to save the Republican party in Huntingdon county, and we are not fighting to elect any particular individual, but for the whole ticket, to give Republicans the supremacy. For the supremacy of the Republican party in Huntingdon county, vote for your bitterest enemy. Don't scratch a name; vote for principles, not men.

The editor of the Globe thinks that we are injudicious and lack tact. We are well pleased to leave him think so. He may change his mind before the campaign is over.

The editor of the Globe is presenting a game of bluff. He claims 300 majority for Fusion in Huntingdon borough, 100 for Fusion in Huntingdon, 1000 in the county. And all that sort of stuff.

A Hartman Club was organized on Monday night, in the rooms above the Post Office, and on Wednesday evening they turned out and paraded through the streets with two hundred torches.

"Honest old John Griffith is just the man to put in office to look after the poor," says the Globe. There is some question whether the man who skimped poor soldiers' widows during the war, and who, by successful manipulations of the assessors of Tod township, has obliged the county out of $1000 tax is the proper man for the Poor House?

Henry L. Reinhardt, well known to a number of our citizens, has retired from the Bloomsburg Cadetship and Messrs. Brodway and Hivell succeed him. We wish both retiring and incoming parties success.

The Woods man is only too glad to malice the Cassville business, and now Speer has taken it up. The Guss-Speer Fusion Democrats, will you carry it?

Wilbur F. Cunningham, the great and good Wilbur, attended the Mooreville Camp Meeting and insisted upon good Republicans voting for him on the ground that he was a straight-forward Republican.

Our old friend, W. C. Hollahan, esq., is the Republican candidate for District Attorney in Clinton county, and we hope, if it is possible to elect a Republican in that county, that he may be elected. He is an active, intelligent, polished gentleman and well qualified for the position.

That little account of the Professor's visit, in company with Wilbur F. F., to the "classie shade of Cassville" made that individual as mad as a hornet. He calls us a "fool" and sashes around like a half-dressed in a clearing. Who, Professor, don't go on so, we will give you something to get mad about before the campaign is over.

The soldiers universally commend Wm. E. Lightner, esq. They say he never charges them for vouchers executed before him. This is true; Mr. Lightner's kindness to the unfortunate soldiers, in this respect, is universally appreciated.

When Mrs. Keed, of Tod township, the wife of a soldier, sought assistance at the hands of the Relief Committee, John Griffith, the wealthiest man in that township and the Fusion candidate for Director of the Poor, said "let her take in sewing and make her own living."

The editor of the Globe is presenting a game of bluff. He claims 300 majority for Fusion in Huntingdon borough, 100 for Fusion in Huntingdon, 1000 in the county. And all that sort of stuff.

A Hartman Club was organized on Monday night, in the rooms above the Post Office, and on Wednesday evening they turned out and paraded through the streets with two hundred torches.

"Honest old John Griffith is just the man to put in office to look after the poor," says the Globe. There is some question whether the man who skimped poor soldiers' widows during the war, and who, by successful manipulations of the assessors of Tod township, has obliged the county out of $1000 tax is the proper man for the Poor House?

Henry L. Reinhardt, well known to a number of our citizens, has retired from the Bloomsburg Cadetship and Messrs. Brodway and Hivell succeed him. We wish both retiring and incoming parties success.

The Woods man is only too glad to malice the Cassville business, and now Speer has taken it up. The Guss-Speer Fusion Democrats, will you carry it?

Wilbur F. Cunningham, the great and good Wilbur, attended the Mooreville Camp Meeting and insisted upon good Republicans voting for him on the ground that he was a straight-forward Republican.

Our old friend, W. C. Hollahan, esq., is the Republican candidate for District Attorney in Clinton county, and we hope, if it is possible to elect a Republican in that county, that he may be elected. He is an active, intelligent, polished gentleman and well qualified for the position.

That little account of the Professor's visit, in company with Wilbur F. F., to the "classie shade of Cassville" made that individual as mad as a hornet. He calls us a "fool" and sashes around like a half-dressed in a clearing. Who, Professor, don't go on so, we will give you something to get mad about before the campaign is over.

The soldiers universally commend Wm. E. Lightner, esq. They say he never charges them for vouchers executed before him. This is true; Mr. Lightner's kindness to the unfortunate soldiers, in this respect, is universally appreciated.

When Mrs. Keed, of Tod township, the wife of a soldier, sought assistance at the hands of the Relief Committee, John Griffith, the wealthiest man in that township and the Fusion candidate for Director of the Poor, said "let her take in sewing and make her own living."

The editor of the Globe is presenting a game of bluff. He claims 300 majority for Fusion in Huntingdon borough, 100 for Fusion in Huntingdon, 1000 in the county. And all that sort of stuff.

A Hartman Club was organized on Monday night, in the rooms above the Post Office, and on Wednesday evening they turned out and paraded through the streets with two hundred torches.

"Honest old John Griffith is just the man to put in office to look after the poor," says the Globe. There is some question whether the man who skimped poor soldiers' widows during the war, and who, by successful manipulations of the assessors of Tod township, has obliged the county out of $1000 tax is the proper man for the Poor House?

Henry L. Reinhardt, well known to a number of our citizens, has retired from the Bloomsburg Cadetship and Messrs. Brodway and Hivell succeed him. We wish both retiring and incoming parties success.

The Woods man is only too glad to malice the Cassville business, and now Speer has taken it up. The Guss-Speer Fusion Democrats, will you carry it?

Wilbur F. Cunningham, the great and good Wilbur, attended the Mooreville Camp Meeting and insisted upon good Republicans voting for him on the ground that he was a straight-forward Republican.

Our old friend, W. C. Hollahan, esq., is the Republican candidate for District Attorney in Clinton county, and we hope, if it is possible to elect a Republican in that county, that he may be elected. He is an active, intelligent, polished gentleman and well qualified for the position.

That little account of the Professor's visit, in company with Wilbur F. F., to the "classie shade of Cassville" made that individual as mad as a hornet. He calls us a "fool" and sashes around like a half-dressed in a clearing. Who, Professor, don't go on so, we will give you something to get mad about before the campaign is over.

The soldiers universally commend Wm. E. Lightner, esq. They say he never charges them for vouchers executed before him. This is true; Mr. Lightner's kindness to the unfortunate soldiers, in this respect, is universally appreciated.

When Mrs. Keed, of Tod township, the wife of a soldier, sought assistance at the hands of the Relief Committee, John Griffith, the wealthiest man in that township and the Fusion candidate for Director of the Poor, said "let her take in sewing and make her own living."

The editor of the Globe is presenting a game of bluff. He claims 300 majority for Fusion in Huntingdon borough, 100 for Fusion in Huntingdon, 1000 in the county. And all that sort of stuff.

A Hartman Club was organized on Monday night, in the rooms above the Post Office, and on Wednesday evening they turned out and paraded through the streets with two hundred torches.

"Honest old John Griffith is just the man to put in office to look after the poor," says the Globe. There is some question whether the man who skimped poor soldiers' widows during the war, and who, by successful manipulations of the assessors of Tod township, has obliged the county out of $1000 tax is the proper man for the Poor House?

Henry L. Reinhardt, well known to a number of our citizens, has retired from the Bloomsburg Cadetship and Messrs. Brodway and Hivell succeed him. We wish both retiring and incoming parties success.

The Woods man is only too glad to malice the Cassville business, and now Speer has taken it up. The Guss-Speer Fusion Democrats, will you carry it?

Wilbur F. Cunningham, the great and good Wilbur, attended the Mooreville Camp Meeting and insisted upon good Republicans voting for him on the ground that he was a straight-forward Republican.

Our old friend, W. C. Hollahan, esq., is the Republican candidate for District Attorney in Clinton county, and we hope, if it is possible to elect a Republican in that county, that he may be elected. He is an active, intelligent, polished gentleman and well qualified for the position.

That little account of the Professor's visit, in company with Wilbur F. F., to the "classie shade of Cassville" made that individual as mad as a hornet. He calls us a "fool" and sashes around like a half-dressed in a clearing. Who, Professor, don't go on so, we will give you something to get mad about before the campaign is over.

The soldiers universally commend Wm. E. Lightner, esq. They say he never charges them for vouchers executed before him. This is true; Mr. Lightner's kindness to the unfortunate soldiers, in this respect, is universally appreciated.

When Mrs. Keed, of Tod township, the wife of a soldier, sought assistance at the hands of the Relief Committee, John Griffith, the wealthiest man in that township and the Fusion candidate for Director of the Poor, said "let her take in sewing and make her own living."

Advertisement for THE JOURNAL, 25 CENTS A BOX, and other subscription information.