THE "cause why" Rev. J. Audley Browne was so extremely anxious to beat Hartranft has leaked out. He wanted to be appointed Consul General to Egypt and General Grant refused to appoint him, whereupon J. Audley, the Reverend J. Audley, got his back up and resolved to defeat the Republican candidate for Governor and make the outlook seem blue, from Pennsylvania, for the election of a Republican President. And to carry out this "true inwardness" a large number of respectable ministers and laymen were willing to aid him.
