MILLER.—In Tod township, on the 6th of Octo-ber, Mrs. David Miller, formerly Mrs. Maria Applebaugh, aged 66 years. Mrs. Miller was an efficient member of the M. E. Church, and President of the Cassville Auxiliary of the Woman's Foreign Mission Society from its organization. Possessing in a delicate body a clear mind, a firm will and strong desire to work to-day in the Master's vineyard, she was therefore always ready for every good word and work. The cause of missions was especially dear to her, and the Society prospered greatly under her superintendency. Suddenly called she left no dying testimony; but what better legacy can either the church or her friends desire than the remembrance of an earnest, consistant Christian remembrance of an earnest, consistant Christian life of nearly forty-six years' duration.
