The contagious and destructive disease that has destroyed so many herds in England and the continent has again reached the United States, and several cases of what appears to be a genuine foot and mouth disease have appeared in Indiana, Kentucky and Missouri. Unfortunately but little can be done, but unquestionaby no precaution should be neglected. Even uniform laws permit almost perfect govenmental supervision, it has been found impossible to establish sufficiently rigid quarantine, and in our own large area, under the many State codes, we may not hope to the supervision.

Neglected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually excloser from the system every taint of SCROFULOUS HUMOR, TUMORS, CANCER, CANCEROUS HUMOR, ENYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM, SYPHILLTIO DISEASES, CANKER, FAINTNESS at the STOMACH, and all diseases that arrises from impure blood. But we can do something and profit by the experience of our Euglish Cousins. The plague differs from those familiar to American stock raisers, poisonous secretions being continually given off from the head and feet and carried upon the feet of animals to other places. Even birds have been known to carry the contagion from one herd to another. Mr. Henry Reese, the distinguished verterinarian of England, gives the following advice in case of an attack:

The secretion of the nostrils and feet | the above FIER yet of an animal effected with the disease is so of it be rubbed on the nostrils of a sound animal the disease is communicated in a few hours. So, if the instant symptoms of the disease are observed, the effected animal is isolated in some secure place and kept well littered down with straw, and the feet and nostrils are carefully cleaned night and morning with a solution of carbolic acid-one part of acid to forty of water-it will effectually destroy all powers of infection and prevent the spread of the

The feet after being cleaned, should also be washed with a strong solution of earbolic acid, say one pint of acid to ten pints of water, and then sureared with an ointment of one part of tar to two of palm-oil. The ani mal if possible should be fed on green food, with a fair allowance of grain, and drink allowed only after each dressing. The Corn Crop.

The September report of the depart-

For CATABRIH, DYSPEPSIA, HABITUAL COSTIVENESS, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, HEADACHE, PHLES, NERVOUSNESS AND GENERAL PROSTRATION OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleances all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system. The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and was it in their own families.

What is Vectine? It is a compound extracted from barks, root, and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly narmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is no carrishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers; for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep—as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the Vegetime. Give it a fair trial for your complaints; then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it; it has cured me."

VEGETINE, for the complaints for which it is recommended, is having a larger sale throughout the United States than any other medicine. Why? Vegetine will cure these Complaints.
