

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1875. Circulation LARGER than any other Paper in the Juniata Valley.

CHANGE OF DAY OF PUBLICATION. Hereafter the JOURNAL will be issued on Friday, instead of Wednesday, as heretofore.

It is said that Blaine will be an applicant for Senator Morrill's seat in the United States Senate.

CONGRESS will meet on the 6th proximo and already the hordes of hungry Democrats are heading towards Washington.

THE Prince of Wales, owing to the coolness of the native Indian Princes, will return from India immediately.

THE fight for the Speakership of the National House of Representatives is fierce. Kerr, of Indiana, appears to have the advantage.

THE Harrisburg Daily Patriot, made its appearance, on Monday last, in quarto form.

It is thought that the Legislature will pass a general stay law immediately upon its assembling.

THE report that Hon. M. S. Quay was about to retire from the cabinet of Gov. Hartranft, lacks confirmation.

SINCE the elections the Third Term has loomed up quite prominently, and we are free to admit that it has many more advocates now than at any previous time.

THE Market Street bridge, across the Schuylkill, in Philadelphia, was burned down on Saturday last about four o'clock.

THERE was quite a stir in diplomatic circles, a few days ago, growing out of our government looking after the interests of our people on the island of Cuba.

As will be seen, by reference to another part of this paper, Vice President Henry Wilson died in Washington City, on Monday morning last, after a brief sickness.

THE Bridge, valued at $300,000 to build, and remained a toll bridge in the hands of the company until 1839, when the city purchased it for $80,000 in cash.

THE Times, Col. McClure's paper, came to us last week in an enlarged form and printed from stereotype plates on one of Hoe's fast presses.

DURING the last two weeks of Court, we have had the pleasure of meeting many of the honest yeomanry of this county, and it gives us pleasure to say that we did not find a single one who, for a single moment, attempted to palliate or justify the late unparalleled treason and treachery.

THE Market Street bridge was a direct route to the New York depot and the Centennial grounds. Its loss will be a serious one to the freight traffic of the Pennsylvania railroad.

HARTRANFT FOR PRESIDENT.

The Republican State Convention, which met at Harrisburg, August 19, 1875, adopted the following:

Resolved, That entering the fullest confidence in the high integrity, ability and statesmanship of Governor John F. Hartranft, we unhesitatingly present him to our Republican friends throughout the State as a candidate for nomination for the Presidency for 1876.

The resolution stands, to-day, as the deliberate act of the Republican party of the State; and as Gov. Hartranft has just been re-elected by a decisive majority, demonstrating his popularity and availability, he is now in a much stronger position, as a Presidential candidate, than he was when the resolution was adopted.

There is certainly no other man in Pennsylvania, or out of it, around whom the Republicans of this State could rally with half the zeal they would show if Hartranft were their Presidential candidate.

There are, of course, other men in other States, around whom the Republicans of Pennsylvania can rally with earnestness and zeal; but we know of no one whose name can stir their hearts like that of Hartranft.

CONGRESS will meet on the 6th proximo and already the hordes of hungry Democrats are heading towards Washington.

THE Prince of Wales, owing to the coolness of the native Indian Princes, will return from India immediately.

THE fight for the Speakership of the National House of Representatives is fierce. Kerr, of Indiana, appears to have the advantage.

Death of the Vice President.

The Sad Event Occurred on Monday. Senator T. W. Ferry, of Michigan, Succeeds Him as Acting Vice President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The Vice President died very suddenly at 7:30 this morning. He rested well last night, awoke about 7 a.m., and expressed himself as feeling bright and healthy.
