HUNTINGDON POST OFFICE.

Time of Arrival and Closing of the Mails. Mails arrive at 7:30 a. m., 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m., 4:30 p. m.

REDUCTION!

Until further notice, we propose to insert specials, or locals, in our local columns—not among the items, but distributed through the local matter—at TEN CENTS per line, eight ordinary words constituting a line.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen. Read the first page. Christmas is coming.

Send in your job work. Mind your own business. Making your own money.

See Harpers' advertisements. The polar bear has reached us.

The hog crop is a failure this year. Religious revivals are now in order.

Had you a turkey on Thanksgiving? We had a foretaste of winter last week.

We have handsome "cuts for sale books. The juveniles are looking up their studs and skates.

Wilmington has again caught the spelling-bee mania.

New Schedules on the Pennsylvania and Broad Top.

Rev. Lawrence's lecture was well attended the other night.

The attendance at court, during the second week, was not large.

Huntingdon county's school teachers are instituting this week.

Diphtheria, of a malignant type, is scourging portions of Cambria county.

An exchange says, "Knock-kneed girls should not wear pin-backs."

Moody and Sankey, the revivalists, opened in Huntingdon on Sunday last.

"Money saved is money earned." Buy your stationery at the JOURNAL store.

Oysters, the size of a saddle flap, are sold at fifty cents a hundred in Philadelphia.

Some folks are never happy unless they are meddling with other people's business.

Our Joe is on his pins again, after a protracted illness, and has taken up the stick and rule.

The holidays are approaching rapidly. If you have anything to advertise now is your time to do it.

A party of five or six hunters left this place, on Monday morning for a week's hunt in the Broad Top region.

Hon. John Scott was in town last week, attending Court as witness. Pittsburgh appears to agree with him.

The pond, on the other side of the river, was froze over, on Thursday, and Young America was delighted.

The Orbisania Leader has abandoned the patent under, lessened its dimensions and assumed the quarto form.

Large numbers of sparrows have taken up their winter quarters in this neighborhood.—Don't neglect to feed them.

We have not observed so many tramps about the lock-up since the Chief Burgess issued his proclamation relating to them.

Holidaysburg is cured by incendiaries, and a couple of young men have been arrested and held to answer this terrible charge.

The Mt. Union Herald has been enlarged, and had a new "head put on it," and it looks better in consequence of these improvements.

Our friend, Jas. R. Cunningham, esq., has the handsomest looking residence in town.—It is our best ideal of what a home should be.

James Simpson has some handsome specimens of castings on exhibition at his place of business, corner of Ninth and Mifflin streets.

Teachers should call at the JOURNAL store, before leaving town, and lay in a supply of the elegant and cheap stationery to be had there.

On the first page of to-day's issue will be found matter of interest relating to the Geological Survey of the State, and to the Centennial.

A recent change in the game law makes the killing of deer illegal after the first of December, and our hunters will do well to bear this in mind.

Fifty men are employed in removing the debris and working upon the foundation of the paper mill of Messrs. Morrison, Bare & Co., at Roaring Spring.

It is astonishing what a number of correspondents there are in the leading cities who want to correspond for country newspapers. Their name is legion.

TRAGEDY.—The death of J. Ritz Burns.

We cannot recall an instance for a long time when our community was so severely shocked as by a telegraphic dispatch received on Monday afternoon that J. Ritz Burns, only son of Gen. J. Ritz Burns, had been killed on the Allegheny Mountain that morning about 7 o'clock while out hunting.

Now let the good people in the neighborhood of each of these offices, send us a large list of good paying subscribers for the JOURNAL.

Every body should use Lava Pens. They will outlast all other pens. They are not corrosive. They are excellent. Durborow & Co., have the sole agency for the county.—$2.00 per gross. 20 cents per dozen. 2 cents apiece.

This is the kind of weather, says a keen observer, that makes the dashing young man wish that instead of spending a dollar and a half for that massive diamond pin last summer he had judiciously invested it in a pair of drawers.

Whenever you hear a man prating about the local newspapers, assuring his hearers that there is nothing in them and that he means to stop all of them, and all this sort of stuff, set him down as a conceited block of wind and advise him to "go west."

A double building, in Hollidaysburg, used as a farm and a manufactory of agricultural implements, was totally destroyed by fire, on Saturday morning a week ago, entailing a loss of some $100,000. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

Sheriff Henderson and his assistant, took a quartette of prisoners to the penitentiary, on Friday morning last, to serve terms of imprisonment ranging from six years and a half to fourteen months, the whole aggregating eleven years and ten months.

Thanksgiving passed off as usual. Services were held in the German Reformed Church, and an appropriate sermon delivered by Rev. Dole. The weather was lovely, and pedestrians enjoyed the warm sunshine as was evidenced by the large numbers to be seen on the go.

We learn that the convicts, taken to the penitentiary on Friday last, broke down, and one or two of them wept bitterly, when their prison garb was given to them. We trust that they may leave that institution better men, and in the future lead honest and honorable lives.

Quite a large crowd of persons visited the depot, on Friday morning, to see the convicts start on their journey for Allegheny, and it was anything but pleasant to see four young men chained in pairs and kept under the strictest surveillance. Truly, "the way of the transgressor is hard."

All Western Pennsylvania newspapers which believe in having pay for what they do, have long since ceased to do business with any other Pittsburgh advertising agency than that of Col. W. L. Foulk. The smoky city has turned out more swindlers in this line than any other city of its size in the country.—Eric Gamble.

"Business is brightening up since the avalanche of Republican triumphs."—Journal. Where, oh tell us, where.—Standard.

Here, in Huntingdon, our car works have been enlarged to meet the demands upon them; the Cottage Planing Mill has greatly increased its facilities, and almost every branch of trade wears a brighter look.

When an old sport like Thos. C. Fisher makes an excursion and comes home without a feather, game must be mighty scarce. He did this along the "backbone" the other day, and he thinks now that another such trip would not only take the backbone out of a fellow, but disgust him so that he would never bring down another timber doodie.

Small-pox has invaded Cumberland, on the other end of our southern line of road, and might be brought through to this place almost any day. It would be well to take the necessary precautions to prevent its taking a fast hold here. The physicians should proceed to vaccinate everybody. An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure.

Charles Slaughter, (colored) of this place, was last week convicted, in the Mifflin county courts, of selling liquor without license, during the Newton Hamilton Camp Meeting, and sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and costs.—As Charlie's purse is not very plenteous the probabilities are that he will remain in Lewistown for some time to come.

An eight pound sucker was one of the varieties on the Logan House table on Thursday.—Standard.

That's not very hefty; we have "suckers" down this way twenty times heavier than that, and they are among the "varieties" at any table where they can intrude themselves for the purpose of getting a square meal.

"Pike, of the Cambria Freeman, in the last issue of his paper, takes business to his delinquent patrons, and intimates very strongly that unless they "toe the mark" and come down with the "spinnners" he will pull up stakes and leave. The Freeman is a good paper, and our friend Pike deserves better treatment at the hands of the "frothy sons of thunder."

Ladies, now is the time to buy your patterns of Winter styles at the JOURNAL store.—We are selling large numbers daily. The Domestic Patterns are universally admitted to be the best in the market. We refer with pleasure to Mrs. Libbick, Mrs. Mary Burchingham, Mrs. Madara, Miss Sade Search or any other Dress-maker in town. Any pattern not on hand promptly ordered.

An exchange, whose local editor is a noted weather prophet, gives us the following comforting information: "The ground frosts are digging deeper than ever into the earth this fall, and are lining their nests with cotton batting and laying in twice the usual amount of coal. You can look out for a winter that will freeze up a blast furnace and bend shade trees double."

The School Directors of Hollidaysburg have passed a resolution prohibiting the pupils from playing "shinny" on or about the school grounds, or taking "shinny" sticks or balls into the school rooms. A very sensible resolve, for we know of no more dangerous game than this outlandish one of "shinny." Our directors should pass a similar resolution, and see that it is strictly adhered to.

We wish some responsible party would establish an advertising agency in Philadelphia similar to Col. Foulk's in Pittsburgh, who would give some attention to papers in this part of Pennsylvania. Almost all the fine goods used in this section are bought by individuals directly in that city, and much of the shopping is also done there, and yet we seldom get an advertisement soliciting the trade.

The through train, from New York to Pittsburgh, without stopping, passed this place, at 10 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, at lightning speed. The train consisted of a baggage car and three passenger coaches, which contained the railroad officials and newspaper reporters. We are fond of rapid transit, when on the rail, but we must confess we would feel a little shaky at being whirled along at the rate this train passed Huntingdon.

At the late Mifflin county court a charter was granted for the incorporation of a Game and Fish Association, for that county, having for its object the protection of game and fish and the enforcing of the law relating thereto. A similar association should be organized in every county in the Commonwealth, and the members should see to the rigid enforcement of the game laws, and in a few years the woods and streams would abound with all kinds of game and fish. Will some person make a move in our county?

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—We copy from the Monitor the following list of criminal cases disposed of at the November Sessions:
