THE BOSTON JOURNAL, in a count

ays: "Picture to yourself what a magazine for hildren ought to be-how bright and winning in THE CHICAGO INTER-OCEAN says: St. Vicholas is an institution of which Young and old America are as proud as England is of Pauch. A house without St. Vicholas, continues the riter, "does not deserve to ewn any boys as rls; no dog should wag its little tail while pro ng its noise through the area railings, empha cally, we would observe that should the sun con send to shine upon that house, his solar majest desend to shine upon that house, his solar majesty would make a big mistake."

The first volume of St. Nicholas was a surprise even to the public that heartily welcomed it, number by number. Newspaper crities expressed enthusiastic approval: children and parents were alike delighted, and congratulatory letters from distinguished men and women poured in upon the sublishers and editors. CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER wrote: "I do not see how it can be made any better, and if children don't his it, it is time to change the kind of children in this country:" WHITTIER, our great poet, wrote: "It is little to say of this magazine that it is the best child's periodical in the world;" and words of hearty commendation came across the ocean from such carnest workers and popular favorites of the young as GEO. MACDONALD, CHRISTINA ROSSETTI, and CANON KINGSLEY.

Beautifully bound, superbly illustrated, and filled with resolutions. Beautifully bound, superbly illustrated, filled with good things from the best writers cluding three long serial stories, the first volume of St. Nicholas, complete in itself, is a finer Christ-mas gift for girls and boys to-day than any single ook in the market, excepting contemporaries."

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES says: "A cleaner, purer, more trustworthy periodical for children, cannot be named. The magazine does not claim to be religious, but it is on the side of all that is true and good, from beginning to end."

The religious press all over the country heartily commends St. Nicholas, and virtually echoes the opinion of the New York Christian Union, that it is "A DELIGHTFUL MAGAZINE FOR ALL CHILDREN BETWEEN FUE AND ELIGHTY CHILDREN BETWEEN FIVE AND EIGHTY SEVEN."

Promises even greater attractions than the pressure vious volumes. A strong feature of the new volume is an AMERICAN SERIAL SRORY, "THE BOY EMIGRANTS," BY NOAH with wonderful truthfulness and skill.
