ECLECTIC MAGAZINE

FOREIGN LITERATURE,

THIRTY-SECOND YEAR. The Eclectic reprints the best Essays, Reviews, Scientific Papers, Tales, Stories, Poems, and Biographical Sketches from the whole field of fureign literature, and it commends itself especially to those gaders who seek profit, as well as amusement, in solid and healthful literature.

LITERATURE. In the department of general literature, the Eclectic is unsurpassed by any of the literary monthlies. A class of writers contribute to the English periodicals such as sed on appear in American magazines, and the choicest of their articles are reproduced in the Eclectic. Among the writers recently represented in its pages are the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone, James Anthony Froude, Matthew Arnold, Charles Kingsley, Robert Buchanan, Lestie Stephen, Arthur Helps, Alfred Tennyson, Thomas Hurhes William Black, Mrs. Oliphant, Thos. Hardy, William Morris, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Alexander, and other equally eminent.

It is believed that in this department the Eclectic is more comprehensive and complete than any other magazine not exclusively devoted to the subject. Its articles are written by the leading authorities in their special fields; as Profs. Huxley and Tyndail, Richard Protor, B. A., Prof. Owen, Dr. B. Carpenter, Max Muller, J. Norman Lockyer, Herbert Spencer, all of whom have been represented in recent issues of the Magazine. BIOGRAPHY.
