Literary.

1876. SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY. 1875

We invite the attention of the public to SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY, which now deserves rank among the BEST ILLUSTRATED PERIODICALS OF THE WORLD. The papers Illustrative of American Scenery which have appeared in its pages, among which were included "The Wanderers of the Yellowstone," "The Grand Canyon of Colorado," "The Wide-spread Admiration on both sides of the Atlantic," and "The Great South Sea Islands," are the most beautiful ever engraved. For the coming year we have broader plans than ever before. The magazine will be enlarged, and there will be Three Remarkable Serial Stories by American Writers.

"GABRIEL CONROY," BY BRET HARTE.

Of which the Boston Post says: "It is a serial that will make every number of Scribner's successively read for, if it had nothing else to recommend it."

The Louisville Courier Journal says: "The second installment is even stronger than the first, justifying all that was looked for."

What is in January

"PHILIP NOLAN'S FRIENDS," BY EDWARD EVERETT HALE.

This is an historical romance. The scene is laid in the South-west, at a time when that territory was first Spanish, then French, and then American, and when war was eminent, to obtain the control of the mouth of the Mississippi. It is likely to be the greatest romance of the Mississippi Valley, as GABRIEL CONROY will be of the Pacific Slope.

"THAT LASS O' LOWRY'S," BY FANNY HODGSON BURNETT.

The friends of "Scrubber" who have read "Scrubber's Trouble," "One Day at Arie," "The Fire at Grandville Mills," and others of Mrs. Burnett's short stories, will not be assured that they have a rare treat before them. The scene of the new novel is laid in an English mining town, and from the first page to the last the interest is unflagging.

Among other notable papers we mention the following: "A SCENIC FARMER'S VACATION," "THE COUNTRY LETTERS," A SERIES OF ILLUSTRATED ARTICLES ON AMERICAN COLLEGES. The series includes William and Mary, Yale, Michigan State University, Princeton, Union, Bowdoin, Trinity, and other typical institutions of the country. Recently the illustrated articles on OLD NEW YORK, illustrated papers on AMERICAN CIVILIZATION.

Wayside Gatherings.

ROUTE—FROM URBUSUS COLLEGE TO HUNTINGDON, PA.

BY AL. R. THOMPSON.

Many miles to-day I'll travel,

And may as well my thoughts unravel,

As I have time to spare, and I'll renew

Mingling with the busy throng;

Listening to their conversation,

Noting off their destination.

What is the life that they came,

What is life to be their aim.

Some are talking of the weather,

Some of a dozen things together;

Some of the rapid moving train,

And some of the pressure of the grain;

And some of them not near so sweet—

I think I heard one mention "scholar,"

But the word most used is "dollar."

All seem to love that "dreadful evil,"
