themselves. This is a plan well worth adopting in many gardens where neat dividing lines are desired. It is quite possible to train espaliers of the chociest va. rieties of pears so that they shall, in time, be self-supporting. Established trees crossed in this way should not be allowed to get into a rough hedge-like condition, but, on the contrary should be trained as neatly and perfectly as trees on a trellis or wall. No fraying of the branches, resulting from their being interlaced, need take place. A shoot should be taken along the top so as act as a finish and tend to hold all tightly together, and thus constructed the whole will look much firmer and neater than the ill trained espaliers that one often sees.

To Clean a Rusty Plow.

Take a quart of water and pour slowly into it half a pint of sulphuric acid. The mixture will become quite warm from chemical action, and this is the reason why the acid should be poured slowly into the water, rather than the water into the acid. and let it remain on the iron until it evap orates. Then wash it again. The object is to give the acid time to dissolve the rust. Then wash with water and yoa will graduates of this college now in successful busi-ness in the principal cities and towns of the United see where the worse spots are. Apply some more acid and rub on these spots with a brick. The acid and the scouring will remove most of the rust. Then wash the mould board thoroughly with water to remove all the acid, and rub it dry. Brush it over with petroleum, or other oil, and let it be till spring. SOMETHING NEW.

Dry the Fruit.

Dried fruit, of almost all kinds, has ruled low for the past two years, but it must certainly be high the coming year, for there is no kind of a mistake but that the fruit erop is light. Those who have orchards will certainly dry all they cannot sell green, but Takes pleasure in announcing to all who want to the amount in the North-West cannot be large. The Southern people have large targe. Ine Southern people have large crops, and they will do well to engage in the business energetically. They should, however improve the quality for they have however improve the quality, for they have dried peaches on kilns poorly protected from wet, and appless on scaffolds that could not well be covered. Their best plan by far is to construct light drying houses with well shingled roofs. Shelves or slats are to be made inside, conviently arranged, and the house being heated by a stove, fruit can be perfectly dried in from 24 to 30 hours, and being so dried it will however improve the quality, for they have 24 to 30 hours, and being so dried it will 24 to 30 hours, and being so dried it will bring a price more than sufficient to pay for the house, while the expedition with the the more than sufficient with for the house to expedition with the tas I BUY LOW FOR CASH, and having can sell at such low prices as will make it the in-terest of buyers to call at which the work can be carried on will afford an additional profit. In this I say nothing of the several steam drying pro-" cesses. I only urge upon the farmers to do the best they can this season.
