Dragging out Existence.

The nervous, weakly invalid does not enjoy life, but merely "drags out existence," as the phrase is. Unfitted for the active pursuits of life, and incapable of partaking of its pleasures, to which health alone can give a zest; disinclined to social intercourse, and a prey to melancholy, the valetudinarian is indeed an object of pity. Yet there is nothing in all this that cannot be remedied by that genial alternative tonic and nervine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which supplies deficient stamina, braces the nervous system, and overcomes those bodily irregularities to which nervous weakness is most frequently attributable. Diseases of the kidney and bladder, imperfect digestion and uterine troubles are fertile sources of debility. This eradication however, becomes a matter of certainty when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are systematically used for that purpose. The Bitters likewise annihilate and prevent fever and ague and debilitating febrile complaints of a malarial ap-7-1m. nature.

MR. EDITOR: - A few days ago I saw,

MR. EDITOR:—A few days ago I saw, in a Perry county paper, the name of JOHN M. POMEROY, of Chambersburg, in connection with the nomination by the Republican party in this District for Congress.

It is a most happy suggestion, and is received here, where Mr. P. is known for years, with market and the country of the count with much favor. Mr. P. was tormerly a resident of the part of Franklin county contiguous to us—was a Representative in our State Legislature, and his record there was highly creditable. Subsequently he has been largely engaged in active life, and is now conduc now so much needed, and imperatively de manded by the people—namely, honesty and capacity—and would, no doubt, if chosen to purposes, and that the blindness, &c., was all feigned. He has also the popular qualities to make a good run in the canvass, and would likely develop the vote of the District about as well as is prac April 12, 1876.

MILL CREEK, PA., April 8, 1876. MR. J. R. DURBORROW-Dear Sir :- 1 see that Mr. Jeffries has another sermon on spirit ualism in the last Globe. Mr. Jeffries is rather a shrewd man. He always introduces his doctrines at weak points, where they will be most likely to take, and in having his sermon published in the Globe he no doubt thought that he would have an editor and a class of readers that would be more likely to take with his errors than any others in the county. And we do think he has shown no litt shrewdness in this matter. Mr. Jeffries claim that Christian spiritualists have the same pow was commenced in Pittsburgh by Mr. John
