Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscriptions and Arrearages.

The following is the law relating to newspapers and subscribers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as continuing their subscription.

2. If subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, the publishers may continue to send them until they are notified to the contrary.

3. If subscribers neglect to pay their periodicals from the office, or to give notice, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and order of them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The publishers are authorized to refuse to take periodicals from the office, or to give notice, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and order of them discontinued.

6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, or who has ordered it or to be held liable to be a subscriber.

7. If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher, at the end of their term, if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of arrears, is sent to the publisher.

Some of the streets, in West Huntingdon, are in a terrible condition.

Doc. Fleming has a printed notice in his window notifying corner loungers that they may expect the full penalty of the law if they vegetate about his hawk.

Rev. J. A. Peters, of Alexandria, will preach in the Reformed Church of this place next Thursday evening, Friday morning and evening, and Saturday morning. All are invited.

The Bedford Inquirer is assured that the "row" which it represents with getting into with a "club of the law" does not amount to very much of itself. Only be aisy and await the result.

We learn that our young mercantile friend, Alex. McMurrie, has been appointed Train Agent, on the P. R. R., between Harrisburg and Philadelphia, and that he has accepted the position.

Gen. Chas. Albright's adopted, only son, Gen. Mrs. Anna A. Hines, wife of Lieutenant Hine of the United States Army, died suddenly at Washington, D. C., of hemorrhages, a few days ago.

Charley Slaughter, who has been confined in jail, at Lewistown, since September last, for selling liquor, has been released, and is now at home, in West Huntingdon, in very delicate health.

Rev. Riddle preached his first sermon in this place, in the M. E. Church, on Sunday morning last, and created a favorable impression upon the large and attentive congregation that was in attendance.

Our town was thrown into great excitement, on Friday last, by a report that two men had been drowned in the dam, two miles west of this place, while fishing from a mill. The rumor was unfounded.

The gentleman, Dr. E. C. Stockton, who bought out E. J. Green is raising quite a sensation among the signposts of the town. Dr. Green recommends him very highly as a Dentist. See card in another column.

The Evangelists, Washburn and McPherson, were in town on Saturday, endeavoring to procure a hearing. They have a right to be heard. Every man, or set of men, who design to make men better deserve respect.

We learn with pleasure that our old friend A. C. Mullin, esq., late of Ashland, Schuylkill county, has been appointed Secretary to the Pennsylvania Board of Centennial Managers. He is the right man in the right place.

Hays Hamilton, esq., and his family, have left Huntingdon, Pa., and taken up their residence in the State of Iowa. For many years Mr. Hamilton was prominent man in this county. He is sorry to lose him.

If the law regulating vagrancy was enforced, by the arrest of all parties who lounge about without any "visible means of support," Fort Henderson would be full of overflowing, and out of them some would be disappointed.

Capt. H. C. Weaver, has received an appointment in the Main Exhibition Building on the Centennial grounds and has left for the fields of labor. He has also procured positions for G. L. S. Baker and Harry Wright.

From the Mirror we have the gratifying intelligence that W. H. Schwartz, esq., local editor of the Standard, has so far recovered from his late mental affliction that it is thought by his friends that he can return home in a few days.

Under the proposed consolidation of the revenue districts, this district will be the fifth and will embrace the counties of Adams, Bedford, Franklin, Somerset, Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon and Millin, with headquarters at Huntingdon.

The Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church have issued a circular inviting ministers and members of the denomination to unite with them in observing Friday, April 28th, as a day of fasting and special prayer to God for his blessing on the General Conference, to assemble at Baltimore in May.

The Greensburg, Pa., Democratic Times of the 6th inst., says: "It is reported that a Glasgow, Scotland, iron firm has purchased the coal underlying the Kemp farm, south of this place, and during the coming summer will erect a large number of coke ovens, and manufacture coke on an extensive scale for shipment to Scotland."

"Moving Day" in Pennsylvania should be postponed until the 15th of April or the 1st of May. There are more fatal colds taken on "Moving Day" than all the balance of the year. A few weeks delay would find the weather much more moderate and subject those who have to change their residences to much less risk.

We would call attention to the column of Dr. Swayne & Son on the fourth page next to the Agricultural column. Their medicines are a household word. Long experience has proved their worth. We can recommend them to our readers. Persons needing any of the specifics which they advertise would do well to give them a trial.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company now runs a Pay Car. This movement has enabled the company to pick up fellows who have been carrying dead-loads. One chap at Altoona, it is said, carried a dead man along on his roll for three years. One of the employees thinks the greedy fellow ought to have been satisfied with two years.

The Evangelists, Revs. J. M. Washburn and J. W. McPherson, advocates of the Higher Christian Life, will hold a series of meetings and Bible readings in Penn Street Hall, Huntingdon, beginning on Monday evening, April 24th. Persons desiring to hear what the Higher Christian Life is, are cordially invited to attend. The meetings are non-denominational.

On the 18th day of July, 1870, Frank I. Hotteinstein, son of Dr. H. P. Hotteinstein, of Selinsgrove, Penn., left home and has not since been heard of. He was then about fifteen years of age. When he left he bought a ticket for Philadelphia. His parents will be very thankful to any one who can give them any information concerning him. Papers publishing this item will confer a favor.

The late railroad accident on the Tyrone and Clearfield branch of the Pennsylvania railroad turned eighteen happy children into orphans. Mr. Campbell was the father of three, Mr. Shannon eight, Mr. Miller five, and Mr. Waters two. It gives us pleasure to learn that the officers of the Pennsylvania railroad have resorted to every possible means to render the widows and orphans as comfortable as possible.

We are sorry to learn that some young ladies in this place have concluded to go to Philadelphia on the strength of the letter that is being circulated in the country towns, which appeared in the Journal last week—promising employment at remunerative wages, to all "good-looking girls." It is a fraud, and we warn our fair readers not to be caught in the snares of these scoundrels. There is no employment, and they only seek the ruin of the young and unsuspecting.

The Huntingdon Presbytery, which assembled at Bell's Mills, last week, is severely censured for the manner in which it treated Messrs. Washburn and McPherson, who are represented to be accredited ministers of the White Water Presbytery in the State of Indiana. The course of the Presbytery is said to have been extremely intolerant in not extending the usual courtesies to those licensed ministers, extended to ministers of other denominations. The query is: Was the Presbytery afraid of them?

The use of set, dip, or other nets of less than three inches mesh is punishable by a heavy fine, half of which goes to the informer, and it is the sworn duty of constables to return all persons who, to their knowledge, may be guilty of an infraction of this law. During the past week large numbers of persons lined the banks of the streams fishing with dip nets, and scarcely a day passes that fish are not offered for sale that have been caught in this unlawful manner. The Fish Commissioner should appoint a Fish Warden for this place whose duty it would be to have all violators of the law arrested and punished.

The Altoona Mirror, of the 14th inst., says that Col. James P. Milliken, District Attorney of this County, was arrested at his home in Hollidaysburg this week, on a charge of "irregularity" in a certain case at the last term of Court in that district. A detective named Carlin, employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad, made the information against him, before Mayor Gilland, of Altoona, and he was promptly furnished for the appearance of the accused at the ensuing session, which convenes at Hollidaysburg on the 24th inst.—Messrs. Blair and Neff have been retained to prosecute the case, and he will be defended by Messrs. Landis and Hewitt.

MONTGOMERY has the best assortment of Ladies' Misses' Childrens' Gents' and Youths' Buttons and Lace Shoes, Hats, Fine Calf Boots, &c., of any store in town. Also, a splendid assortment of Hats, Shirts, Neckwear, Collars, Suspensives, Trunks, Satchels, &c., all sold at prices to suit the times. Corner Fifth and Washington streets.

HUNTINGDON PRESBYTERY.—The Presbytery of Huntingdon met in the Presbyterian church of Logan's Valley, on Tuesday, April 19th, at eleven o'clock a. m., and was opened with a sermon by the retiring Moderator, A. H. Parker, from John 6:37. "All that the Father gives me shall come unto me, and him that cometh unto me I will in nowise cast out."

After the sermon the Moderator offered prayer and the Presbytery proceeded to the transaction of business. There were present at the calling of the roll about thirty seven ministers and twenty-seven elders.

The election of officers being then in order, the following were elected: Moderator, Rev. H. S. Butler, of Clearfield; and clerks, Rev. N. H. Miller, of Osceola, and Rev. D. H. Campbell, of Fruit Hill.

Rev. Ambrose N. Hollifield presented a certificate of dismission from the Presbytery of Westminster and requested that he be received as a member of this Presbytery, and after the usual examination Mr. H. was received.

The call of his pastoral services from the church of Huntingdon was then read, found in order and excepted by the pastor-elect, when the following committee were appointed to install him on Monday, April 17th: Rev. Moore to preside and preach the sermon, Rev. Dr. McLean to charge the pastor, and Rev. Dr. Wilson to charge the people.

Rev. M. N. Cornelius presented a letter of dismission from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh and after the usual examination was received as a member of this Presbytery.

Mr. Jas. Ramsey, Jr., having kindly invited the Presbytery to take a trip up the Bell's Gap railroad, the invitation was accepted with thanks, the trip taken Tuesday afternoon from four till six o'clock, much to the enjoyment of the Presbytery.

Rev. W. W. Campbell presented a letter of dismission from the Presbytery of Carlisle, and after the usual examination was received as a member of this Presbytery. Mr. Campbell is now teaching in the Academy at Huntingdon.

On Tuesday evening a very profitable children's meeting was held at which interesting addresses were delivered by Messrs. Hollifield, Crittendon and S. T. Wilson.

Mr. O. A. Kerr, of Princeton Seminary, then preached his trial sermon for licensure, from Romans 5:1, after which Presbytery adjourned until Wednesday morning at half-past eight.

WEDNESDAY'S SESSION.—Presbytery met at 8 1/2, according to previous adjournment. From 8 1/2 to 9 was spent in devotional exercises, after which the roll called, minutes of Tuesday read and approved.

Mr. C. C. Duncan, after an examination conducted by Rev. Mr. White, of Williamsburg, was received under the care of the Presbytery for education for the ministry.

The stated clerk not being in attendance, the Rev. J. C. Kelley was elected to fill that office in this meeting.

Several committees were then appointed, amongst which was one to visit Dubois, Clearfield county, with the view to effect a church organization at that place.

Considerable discussion was elicited in reference to reading a letter from the stated clerk of Northumberland Presbytery to the stated clerk of this Presbytery. It was finally decided, however, to read it, which was done. The letter contained certain charges against Revs. Washburn and McPherson for teaching the unscriptural doctrine of the so-called higher life. At this point another paper from Dr. Gibson, was also read containing certain resolutions respecting them, which were read and it was placed upon the docket—Upon these papers there was quite a feeling plainly to be seen bubbling up all over the Presbytery, and among the spectators there was a decided anxiety shown to have the subject investigated, but a consideration of the subject was necessarily postponed on account of the absence of some persons at that time.

The treasurer's (Rev. R. M. Wallace) report was then read and referred to the Auditing Committee, and by them approved.

A brief survey of the religious work of the Presbytery was then brought out, which was a very encouraging result, there being over 1,500 persons received during the year. The largest accessions were in the churches of Huntingdon, Altoona and Hollidaysburg, Huntingdon 186, First Altoona 184, Hollidaysburg 108, Second Altoona 73.

The Rev. R. M. Wallace was by his request dismissed from this Presbytery to that of Lehigh.

At 5 p. m., the meeting adjourned till 7 p. m. [We are sorry to say that we failed to obtain a synopsis of the later proceedings. The following extract, from the minutes of the Presbytery, have been handed us.]

The unfinished business (being the preamble and resolutions offered by Rev. Dr. Gibson) was resumed. A substitute for the original paper was offered and adopted, and is as follows:

WHEREAS, It has come to the knowledge of this Presbytery, that Rev. J. M. Washburn, a minister, and J. W. McPherson, D. D., licentiate of the Presbytery of the State of Indiana, have been preaching within the bounds of this Presbytery, without having obtained leave of Presbytery, or presented their credentials to this Presbytery, or in any way shown their ecclesiastical authority for so doing; preaching, moreover, doctrines known as the "Higher Life," and represented to us, are not in accordance with the truth as we hold it, and therefore dangerous and pernicious—

Resolved, (1.) That a committee of three be appointed to represent these facts to the White Water Presbytery, and request that Presbytery to take such action in the case, as is prescribed by our Book of Discipline, Chapt. V, Sect. 1.

Resolved, (2.) That these brethren are hereby admonished not to disregard the authority of the church, and are forbidden to preach further within our bounds, or our churches, until they have presented themselves to the Presbytery and obtained its approval.

The following committee was appointed to carry out the instructions of the Presbytery, viz.: Rev. W. W. Campbell and J. C. Barr, and Elder D. L. Wray.

Done by the Presbytery of Huntingdon, on the 14th day of April, 1876, during its sessions held in the Logan's Valley Presbyterian Church.

Barney Williams, the Irish actor, is about to die, but still the people go to MONTGOMERY to buy their clothing. Reason: He sells them goods worth the money they pay for them.

INSTALLATION OF REV. HOLLIFIELD.—The incident of the week was the installation of Rev. A. Nelson Hollifield, as pastor of the Presbyterian church, on Monday when presided by the Committee appointed by the Presbytery to perform this solemn duty. At an early hour, in the evening, the church was filled with a large and interesting congregation. The floral decorations were very tastefully arranged, and their fragrance filled the church. The ministers of the town occupied the pulpit with the Committee. The services commenced with an anthem by the choir, invocation and reading of hymn by Rev. David W. Moore, reading of the Scriptures by Rev. Focht, of the Lutheran church, prayer by Rev. F. B. Riddle, of the M. E. church, reading of hymn by Rev. W. W. Campbell, the installation sermon then preached by Rev. David W. Moore. The charge to the pastor was delivered by Rev. O. O. McLean, followed by the charge to the people by Rev. Samuel F. Wilson. The installation prayer was made by Rev. Moore, of Tyrone, the closing hymn read by Rev. M. P. Doyle, of the United Brethren church, and the benediction by the Rev. Hollifield. After which the members of the congregation were received by the pastor and the right hand of fellowship generally tendered. The ceremony was impressive and was listened to throughout by the vast audience with great interest.

Do you want a suit of clothes? Go to MONTGOMERY, three doors north of the JOURNAL office. The people buy from him and they go away happy.

THE "MYSTERIOUS ISLAND"—We have just received Vaux's last famous story, "THE MYSTERIOUS ISLAND—DROPPED FROM THE CLOUDS!" It is an intensely interesting book, by the celebrated author of "20,000 Leagues under the Sea!" "Four of the men in 80 days!" &c., and gives the exciting adventures of five United States prisoners, who, during our late war, escaped from Richmond, Va., in a captured balloon! They were driven by a wild hurricane across the entire continent, and fell upon an uninhabited island in the Pacific ocean. Here they lived several years, unable to escape. Finally a vessel appeared, but proved to be a pirate ship, and instead of rescuing, endeavored to murder them. During the combat a mysterious agent destroyed their vessel! The castaways had frequent exciting adventures with wild animals, and also met with many mysterious incidents that were apparently supernatural. Their ingenious contrivances to better their condition are highly interesting. In short, it is Vaux's best book, and that is the highest possible commendation.

The ordinary price of "DROPPED FROM THE CLOUDS" is $2.00, but the copy before us, "THE LAKEBIDE LIBRARY" edition, handsomely illustrated, is sent prepaid for only 12 cents! It is also sold by all Newsdealers. If you want a genuine treat, get it.

Dragging out Existence.

The nervous, weakly invalid does not enjoy life, but merely "drags out existence," as the phrase is. Unfit for the active pursuits of life, and incapable of performing any of its pleasures, to which health alone can give zest; disinclined to social intercourse, and a prey to melancholy, the valetudinarian is indeed an object of pity. Yet there is nothing in all this that cannot be remedied by that genial alternative tonic and nerve, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which supplies deficient stamina, braces the nervous system, and overcomes those bodily irregularities to which nervous weakness is most frequently attendant. Diseases of the kidney and bladder, imperfect digestion and uterine troubles are fertile sources of debility. This eradication however, becomes a matter of certainty when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are systematically used for that purpose. The Bitters likewise annihilate and prevent fever and ague and debilitating febrile complaints of a malarial nature. ap-7-1m.

A full line of interesting Games, for the Holiday season, at big prices, 100, at the JOURNAL Store. Come and look at them and hear how cheap they are.

EVERYBODY goes to the Cottage Planning Mill Company, at Huntingdon, for their Bedsteads, Chairs, Sinks, Doughtrays and Refrigerators. They warrant every piece, and their prices are down, DOWN, DOWN. Samples can be seen at HENRY & CO'S Warehouse, April-14.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Are you suffering with Consumption, Cough, Severe Colds settled on the breast, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs? If so go to Duggitt's S. S. Smith & Son, and get a bottle of BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP. This medicine has lately been introduced from Germany, and is selling on its own merits. The people are going wild over its success, and druggists all over our country are writing us of its wonderful cures among their customers. If you wish to try its superior virtue, get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Large size bottle 75 cents. Three doses will relieve any case. Tr.
