The Huntingdon Journal.

J. R. DURBORROW, - - J. A. NASH, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS. Office in new JOURNAL Building, Fifth Street

THE HUNTINGDON JOURNAL is published every Friday by J. R. Durmorrow and J. A. Nash, under the firm name of J. R. Durmorrow & Co., at $2,00 per annum B ANANCE, or $2.50 if not peid for in six months from date of subscription, and $3 if not paid within the 3m 6m 9m 1 yr 3m 6m 9m 1yr Resultings of Associations, Communications of or individual interest, all party announcements ices of Marriages and Deaths, exceeding five lines charged 'Ex carns per line. . . and other notices will be charged to the party those invasions. og Agents must find their commission outside these figures.

All advertising accounts are due and collectable on the advertisionent is once inserted.

OS PRINTING of every kind, Plain and Fancy Colors, as with neatness and dispatch. Hand-bills, Blanks, its, Pamphleis, &c., of every variety and style, printed the shortest notice, and everything in the Printing e will be executed in the most artistic manner and at lowest rates.

Professional Cards

R. A. B. BRUMBAUGH, offers his professional service to the community. Office, No 523 Washington stree one door east of the Catholic Parsonage. [jan4,71

(TEO. B. ORLADY, Attorney-at-Law, 405 Penn Street Huntingdon, Pa. [nov17,75

W. BUCHANAN, Surgeon Dentist, No. 228, Pen J. FRANKLIN SCHOCK, Attorney-at-Law, Hunting J. don, Pa. Prompt attention given to all legal business. Office, 229 Penn Street, corner of Court Hous

J. B. DURBORROW, Attorney-at-Law, Huntingdon, Pa., J. will practice in the several Courts of Huntingdon county. Particular attention given to the settlement of estates of decedents. Office in the JOURNAL building.

S. GEISSINGER, Attorney-at-Law and Notary Public Huntingdon, Pa. Office, No. 230 Penn Street, opposite Court House. [feb5,71 S. F. FLEMING, Attorney-at-Law, Huntingdon, Pa., office in Monitor building, Penn Street. Prompt and careful attention given to all legal business. [aug5,74-6mos

WILLIAM A. FLEMING, Attorney-at-Law, Huntin Pa. Special attention given to collection or legal business attended to with care an Office, No. 229, Penn Street. [ap19,71]

Miscellaneous.

The Testimony of the Whole World. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, SORES AND ULCERS.

All descriptions of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is a folly; for should the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition remains underneath to break out with tenfold fury in a few days. The only rational and successful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Olintinent as salt is forced into meat. This will cause the malignant humors to be drained elf from the hard, swollen and discolored parts round about the wound, sore, or ulcor, and when these humors are removed, the wounds themselves will soon heal; warm bread and water ponitices applied over the affected parts, after the Olintment has been well rubbed in, will soothe and soften the same, and greatly assist the cure. There is a description of ulcer, sore and swellting, which need not be named here, attendant upon the follies of youth, and for which this Olintment is urgently recommended as a sovereign remedy. In curing such poisonous sores it never fails to restore the system to a healthy state if the Pills be taken according to the surface of the pills be taken according to the surface of the pills be taken according to the pills of the pills be taken according to the pills of the pills be taken according to the pills of the pills be taken according to the pills of the pills be taken according to the pills of the pills be taken according to the pills of the pills be taken according to the pills of the pills be taken according to the pills of the pills be taken according the pills of the pills of the pills be taken according the pills of the BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, SORES AND ULCERS.

bing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throw and neck of the patient, it will soon penetrate, and girmmediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth mu operate upon the whole system ere its influence can feit in any local part, whereas the Ointment will do it work at once. Whoever tries the unguent in the above the diseases named, or any similar disorder affecting the chest and throat, will find themselves I lieved as by a charm. All sufferers from these complain should envelop the throat at beddine ir a large bread at water poultice, after the Ointment has been well rubbin; it will greatly assist the cure of the throat and che To allay the fever and lessen the inflammation, eight.

cally cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pill taken night and morning, as recommended in the printer instructions. When treated in any other way they only up in one place to break out in another; wherea this Ointment will remove the humor from the system and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being.—It will require time with the use of the Pills to Insure a besting and the system of the patient and the system of the Pills to Insure a besting and the system of the Pills to Insure a besting and the system of the Pills to Insure a besting and the system of the Pills to Insure a besting and the system of the Pills to Insure a besting and the pills are the patient of the Pills to Insure a besting and the Pills to Insure a besting an

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS, PARALYSIS, AND STIFF JOINTS.

Although the above complaints differ widely in their origin and nature, yet they all require local treatment.—
Many of the worst cases, of such diseases, will yield in a comparatively short space of time when this Ointment is diligently rubbed into the parts affected, even after every other means have failed. In all serious maladies the Pills should be taken according to the printed directions accompanying each low.

We have just received the largest assortment of the latest styles of WEDDING PAPERS. ever brought to Huntingdon. We have also bought new fontes of type, for printing cards, and we defy competition in this line. Parties wanting Cards put up will save money by giving us a call. At least fifty per cent cheaper than Philadelphia or New York.

ap7-tf.]

J. B. DURBORROW & CO.

Printing.

J. R. DURBORROW, - - - J. A. NASH. The Huntingdon Journal,

EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, -IN-

By art or toil beneath the sun; And unto common good ordain This rivalship of hand and brain. Thou who hast here in concord furled The war flags of a gathered world, TERMS:

Beneath our western skies fulfill The Orient's mission of good will, Aud, freighted with Love's golden fleece Send back the Argonauts of peace. For art and labor met in truce For beauty made the bride of use, austere virtues strong to save,

The manhood never bought or sold ! O! make Thou us, through centuries long In peace secure, in justice strong; Around our gift of freedom draw The safeguards of Thy righteous law, And, cast in some diviner mould, Let the new cycle shame the old!

The Careless Word.

Twas but a word, a careless word, As thistle down it seemed as light

Another lip caught up the word. It gathered weight as on it sped, That careless word, in its career.

Then rumor caught the flying word, And busy gossip gave it weight, Until that little word became A vehicle of angry hate.

Its mission was a thing of pain, For soon it fell like lava drops Upon a wildly tortured brain.

With burning, scalding tears was blurred; A load of care was heavier made, Its added weight, that careless word.

That careless word, oh! how it scorched A fainting, bleeding, quivering heart! 'Twas like a hungry fire, that searched Through every tender, vital part.

Deep agony its fountains stirred; It calmed, but bitter ashes mark The pathway of that careless word.

The Story-Teller.

by the rich folds of the lace curtains that hung from the lofty French windows like little rustic guest. A girl with plenty of common sense, and an innate delicacy of refinement that Alexouma and Ethelberta een proud to have possessed. one, unless-and just the faintest possile little quiver ran through her pretty a mansion on Fifth Avenue, not to menand liked him none the less when Alexo riously strange about it and the elegance of aunt Grenville's city nouse, that made her so uncomfortable.

Until the sound of Sydney Ellis' voice

Mr. Ellis. Just imagine the incongruity the floor, and took her hand warmly. of the thing!" Miss Ethelberta Grenville laughed, and looked straight into Mr. Ellis' eyes.

He smiled, as if amused.

intended to be the very poetry of motion | wife !"

The Muses' Bower. Mrs. Wyndham's face, as at the ready re- eyes as he bent over her head. ply of his friend Helsinger.

the surprise and growing coldness on Mrs. joke; but thank God he did, for I have Vyndham's pretty face.

Ellis looked quickly up at her, and tween gold and dross!" Wyndham's pretty face.

"Miss Lily, add your condolence, please. These ladies are harrified because Helsinger has foolishly blundered over a piece of news I hoped to have kept quict.' A delicious flush surged over Lily's cheeks. Somehow—and how egregiously foolish it was!—she felt glad Mr. Ellis had lost all his wonderful lot of money. "I cannot see why Mrs. Wyndham need feel horrified. I can assure her there is no life like country life." Then lifting her eyes timidly to Sydney's oddly-ex-pressive face, she added: "I think you Ethelberta arose from her chair, lan-"Come Allie," Mrs. Wyndham said, "I promised you a glimpse of my new Duchess set. Mr. Helsinger, Mr. Ellis you will excuse us."

will be happy and contented, Mr. Ellis."

Ellis was on his feet in a moment. "Ladies, there is not the slightest need of you taking such pains to manifest your cratic affair, made up entirely of republi sudden lack of interest in me-or rather Helsinger, remain and entertain the la-sight of the his wealth and position made him very de-

And a peculiar toss of her head and compression of her lips finished her remark far better than words could have done. A dainty, daisy-faced girl, with a complexion as fresh as the morning; with a plexion as fresh as the morning; with a pointed you all—shall I include you, Miss Deane?" She turned her flushed cheeks toward the group more bravely than she had ever done anything in her life.

Mrs. Wyndham tittered maliciously. t to Mr. Ellis, Mr. Helsinger.

ing myself the sort of friend Miss Deane describes, I shall carry what you call is not in a very cheerful frame of mind. your readers to come and see it. Come to cheerful, and do not have to hear sermons thought that had, somehow, come to be Quixotism still further—I shall select His prospects or by no means rose colored, Philadelphia to see the great show, come

After he was gone, Alexouma turned | bled. and met her so many times in her aunt with a scowl to Lily still standing beside Grenville's drawing room, there was not the low ebony etegere, with the same ne who would care when she should be sweet, flushed excitement on her pure face. "You brazen little witch! why couldn't You you have kept your mouth shut? see what you have done—actually driven Mr. Helsinger from our house!"

"I think not, Allie. If you will be reasonable, you will see it was your own winter—from the very day that Alexouma introduced him, and told Lily after he had Mrs. Wyndham laughed hysterically— Mrs. Wyndham laughed hystericallyshe really was terribly cut up at Ellis'

> Miss Deane, you would not refuse to apply Lily looked quietly at the vexed woman, but made no reply, and then went to her ama had whispered to her, in greatest pos- own room, where she was to pass the last sible confidence, that she and Mr. Ellis night of her long visit-the visit during were so nearly engaged that it was as good which she had learned so much of the Liked him none the hollowness of society, so little of what was less, certainly, but somehow she felt cu- ennobling, save and except her love for Sydney Ellis. She knew it now-knew it was a conviction strong as death-that the ill-fortune that had come to him had developed in her what it had crushed in Eustacle Wyndham. She admitted it, with thrills of glad, solemn joy, and prayed God to give her his love before she laid her bonny head on the pillow that night. With the morrow he came-to bid her

"good by," as he had said the night before. talking to a group of girls near her, "good by," as he had said the night before aroused her from that sad, distressful The parlors were deserted—the shrewd mood that had taken complete possession of her.

women of the Greenville household took excellent pains to keep out of the way of evening, they were startled by a very loud "Then you consider me a fair subject the penniless man, who might have Lily and sharp explosion, apparently in the r pity, ladies?"
and welcome, if she were fool enough to next block to everybody. It was louder "Only we don't believe a word of it, take him. He met the girl half way across than any fourth of July cannon, and rang your womanly words of encouragement; next neighbor had committed suicide, or and more-I want to tell you that you killed a rat with a large charge of powder, have inspired a holier feeling than even or there was a soda fountain explosion, or "The incongruity of what, Miss Bertie? the highest respectful admiration. Lily, something. The latter guess, as usual, can you not see that I love you dearly, was right. The next morning all the city dearly? Look up, little one, and tell me | was aquiver over the explosion of the pow-left you from the wreck of your fortune?" her in his arms, and she did not see the shook the ground, and rolled the ships in Ellis laughed, as much at the horror on loving smile on his lips, the pride in his the bay, which before was perfectly still.

out at this juncture, in good time to see had no idea Helsinger would carry on the the guilt, of blood guiltiness.

although she is ready to expire with envy whenever she meets Lily in her elegant phæton; and the Greenvilles never tire of Select Miscellany.

Our New York Letter.

New York, May 29, 1876. The Insult to Bristow-The Democratic

Troubles—Beecher and Bowen—Car Elevator Accident—Another Charity
Fair—The Centennial—Business—Ru under its bloody wreex. Hardly any of the twenty-seven passengers escaped without injury, and several have since died. benstein-The Weather.

THE INSULT TO BRISTOW.

A parcel of shyster politicians seem determined to nominate Bristow, whether or no. The Union League Club is an aristocans, and is supposed to represent republiyour disappointment to learn that I am no can sentiment in the city. A number of had its fill, and picked the pockets of evelonger elligible as a wealthy bait. Pray, admirers of the Secretary put up his name for membership, expecting as a matter of dies, and I will retire. Mrs. Wyndham, Helsinger, remain and entertain the ladies, and I will retire. Mrs. Wyndham Miss Grenville, Miss Ethelberta, good night! Miss Deane, if fortune favors me, I hope to say good-bye to you to-morrow."

And with a dignity that would have benefitted a duke, Ellis went away, leaving Helsinger at the mercy of three curious women's tongues.

The widow Wyndham sank back among the blue cushions—she always made a point of getting where there were lovely acure tints to show off her petite, blonde acure and indiscretion, it has nagged everybody impartially, therich for their checks, and the poor working women for their five and ten cent pieces. The result is a gor their one desire is to be let alone, and that their treatment of women is the result of an unexpressed, though strongly felt, and is of no earthly use, except to flatter the vanity of a few women who cannot when the measure of the curious women's exhibits, and is of no earthly use, except to flatter the vanity of a few women who cannot when the measure of the curious when the selection is a contemporary has recently said, that we cannot in all places—in the hunting field, the distinction is a contemporary has recently said, that we can a contemporary has recently said, that there were the companionship of women in all places—in the hunting field, the distinction is a contemporary has recently said, that there were the companionship of women in all places—in the hunting field, the distinction is a contemporary has recently said, that there were there was a contemporary has recently said, the every donors' name to be read at the next center and indiscretion, it has nagged every body impartially, therich for their checks, and the poor working women for their five and the poor working women for their five and the poor working women for their five and the center in a contemporary has recently said. The said indiscretion, it has nagged every donors' name to be read at the next cence and indiscretion, it has nagged every donors' name to be read at the next cence and indis The widow Wyndham sank back among the blue cushions—she always made a point of getting where there were levely black-balls—two morphoses are the point of getting where there were levely black-balls—two morphoses are the point of getting where there were levely black-balls—two morphoses are the point of getting where there were twelve black-balls—two morphoses are the vanity of a few women who cannot be account thankfulness on her pretty face.

"Oh, Wr. Helsinger, I feel as if I never could sufficiently thank you! Only suppose I had accepted him, what on earth would I have done?"

Helsinger looked innocently at her.

"Oh! I didn't mean to say he had accepted him."

A vivid hush deepened on her face.

"Oh! I didn't mean to say he had a tally offered, you know. But if he had, and I had accepted him?"

"Oh!" who was a construction of the morning in Albany as soon as it be caully offered, you know. But if he had, and I had accepted him?"

"Oh!" who was a construction of the control of the morning in Albany as soon as it be caully offered, you know. But if he had, and be her account if he was making fun of her.

"Bocause, you see," Miss Ethelberts a shell be an and the sheet were trained to the work was the beginning of a very dirty raid upon Bristow."

The was making fun of her.

"Bocause, you see," Miss Ethelberts and selection of the same face and have a point of getting where there were the were twelve black-balls—two morphisms and is of no certifyly use, except to flater the vanity of a few women who cannot be the vanity of a few women who cannot be exact from men a behavior such as above the vanity of a few women who cannot be a capture of the vanity of a few women who cannot be a capture of the vanity of a few women who cannot be an advanced to the vanity of a few women who cannot be accompanied to make the vanity of a few of the women to make the vanity of a few women who cannot be an advanced to the vanity of a few of the vanity of a few of the women the vanity of a few of the vanity of a few of the vanity o "Because, you see," Miss Ethelberta went on, almost indignantly, "Mr. Eliis has been so attentive to us all, and indeed, his wealth and position made him very desirable. But now—"

But now—"

"Because, you see," Miss Ethelberta and the black-balling was the begin and that the black-balling was the begin and the black-balling was the begin clothing, as well as a thriving book and which will give the idea that with the good things must be taken all the stock was given to the concern, was clear profit. To add to the attractions, the owners of private picture galleries loaned their picture galleries loaned their picture. the club included, are indignant at the ator Conklin to say that neither he nor "Why, my dear, what a beautiful dis- world, Republican as well as Democratic, vance, and New York was well-nigh de Grenville, her twin cousins, might have play of Quixotic interest. Pray do repeat want a square expression this year, and serted. The next day the majority came glittering generalities will not satisfy them. back, all, indeed, except those who had He arose gravely.

"I shall do so, Mrs. Wyndham, and betion by the use of money, and trust to the during the exposition. The Centennial is Tilden will undertake to carry the conven- goods to exhibit, and who propose to stay outrage, and there are thousands of Bristow men to-day where there were hundreds yesterday. It is only justice to Sen-afresh, and this time more virulent than cheap one. Don't attempt any style whatever. Bowen has knowledge, so he claims, which will settle the whole matter. But he will not divulge, unless he is permitted can. See all that is to be seen, at the lowto do it in the way that he wants to. He says that the knowledge he has involves a go before a committee of disinterested men with their wives and daughters, ought to great many other people, and that he will and tell it all, they pledging themselves to come East this season, if they never do it secresy, simply making public their verdict as to the guilt of Beecher. This Mr. Beecher declines. At the last meeting of continues dull, though the merchants have Plymouth Church there was a spicy time. a hope that the influx of visitors to the Bowen and Beecher got by the ears, the lie was passed as sweetly as at a town-meet- Real-estate is on the decline, and rents are ing, members were ordered to "get out," going down as rapidly as possible. There and the proceedings would have done no are nothing but long faces on the street. discredit to a nominating convention in a Democratic ward in New York. In the are as common as blackberries,—indeed meantime Moulton is pressing his suit, they have become so common that they Bowen is getting ready to find some way excite no attention whatever. To fail is a to get at Beecher without involving others, fashionable thing, and has become rather and there is a prospect for a Kilkenny creditable than otherwise. There may be fight of the hugest dimensions. How it an improvement next month, but I doubt will all result, no one knows. But the it. I believe that New York has lost a world wishes that it was over in one way or another. Tilton is lecturing in the city is as large now as it will be for twenty West, and his wife and her mother are years to come. There are thousands of keeping boarders.

Last Saturday night, just as the honest from. But let us hope for the best. burghers of New York were putting on like the crack of a rifle. People poked "Miss Lily, I want to thank you for their heads out of windows, concluding their Alexouma flirted her fan in a manner I am to have you for my darling, my der magazine on the crest of Bergen hill, "Why, the idea of you, of all men, leaving the city and burrying yourself in the horrid country! What on carsh will you do with yourself?"

Mr. Ellis looked across the group the Her eyes answered him before her lips trerest Mrs. Eustacie Wyndham in a conversation—pretty little widow Wyndham, who had her eyes on Sydney Ellis for her deceased husband's successor.

"Helsinger, what do you think? Shall I stand it, if I emigrate to my Wisconsin farm all there is and any of the windows and the control of a map to the windows and the creating a fine trend the words.

"Your Wisconsin farm all there is a map to the windows and the windows and the creating of the words."

"Your Wisconsin farm all there is a map to the windows and the windows and the words and the words and the words and the creating of the throne, where and the profined by the gaze of the man who had been the words and the trend the words. This was a heavy charge, and the trends map to the tunnel, and about 300 pounds of giant powder. This was a heavy charge, and the tunnel, and about 300 pounds of giant powder. This was a heavy charge, and the trends map to the tunnel, and about 300 pounds of giant powder. This was a heavy charge, and the trends may be treated the words.

"Shrink from it! Oh, Sydney, I always loved the country, and with you it will be a paradise! I am used to it, you know, dear, and I can see to the butter, and gegs, and poultry, and everything. I will try to be so good, Sydney, and severything." I will try to be so good, Sydney, and severything. The shock was felt at Yonkers, and ten miles away, on Staten Island, its force was 16.095.

"Wy noble, brave darling." He took three quarters of a mile from the Hoboken

THE CAR ELEVATOR ACCIDENT. It is wonderful that so little harm to Mrs. Wyndham never visits the Ellises, other which took place on Monday night, half a mile from the scene of the explosion, was more horrible in its results. The cars which run from the Hoboken ferry are boasting of "the Ellises—our cousins, you hoisted up the hill by a steam elevator, saving nearly an hour lost by going up the pose; we lose the dignities of life in owes its color to a fixed oil, to a persist grade in the old way. The two fore-wheels of the car had just passed on the platform of the elevator, when the wires, probably disarranged by the shock of the explosion, gave the signal all right, the elevator began to move, and the car toppled over, falling thirty feet, throwing passengers from the platform, and burying others under its bloody wreck. Hardly any of picture galleries loaned their

ANOTHER CHARITY FAIR.

"Indeed you may not. Mr. Ellis is the same to me now as he was when he owned his mansion and horses and money, and a true friend of his will esteem him none the certain to lose New York, and they can't was literally emptied. The trains to Philadodge so as to satisfy both. The business delphia were loaded for three days in adgraces and sweetnesses of manner .- The same agency to secure his election, but he a great success, and I advise every one of thought that had, somehow, come to be quixous still further—I shall select His prospects or by no means rose colored, out to see the great show, come of the quite natural to her, these few last weeks great in the sold backer last weeks and see the great me over to New York and see the great me over to New York and see the great me over to New York and see the great me over to New York and see the great me over to New York and see the great me over to New York and see the great me the old bachelor looks care-worn and trou- tropolis. and go home wiser and better men and women. It won't happen again for an hundred years, and we shall none of The Beecher trouble has broken out us have another chance. Make the trip a little sympathy. When Elijah sat down cheap one. Don't attempt any style what-ever, and above all don't be ashamed to ever, and above all don't be ashamed to ask questions, and look about you all you can. See all that is to be seen, at the low. too easily; despondency is a dreadful thing, never give way to it." No, the lowe and Christiancy made long legal arfarmer and mechanic in the United States, > large per cent. of its trade, and that the empty stores, and tens of thousands of empty houses, and I can't see where the business or people to fill them are coming meat that shall strengthen thee.

strumental in convicting Rubenstein, was as dramatic a performance as was ever seen. "The curse of the God of my fath-

A Word to the Wise,

yes as he bent over her head.
"Listen, then, Lily, while I tell, you the work of strikers, who refused to work day of degeneracy of modern manners, and British Reyal Society, extending over two "Listen, then, Lily, while I tell, you have actually lost everything else? I thought surely you meant it for a sort of lark, you know, I supposed there was a delightful little cottage, and a carriage and everything romantic."

Lily parted the lace curtains and came out at this juncture, in good time to see

"Listen, then, Lily, while I tell, you then write tell, you have of strikers, who refused to work in the tunnel for $1.25 a day. There had been much trouble with the men previous been much trouble with the men previous ly, and when strikes occurred, the giant powder was always carefully removed, which this time, had not yet been done. Wonderfully, no lives were lost, and the strikers, if they committed this terrible deed, are spared the crime, though not the guilt, of blood guiltiness.

The work of strikers, who refused to work in the tunnel for $1.25 a day. There had been much trouble with the men previous ly, and when strikes occurred, the giant powder was always carefully removed, which this time, had not yet been done. Wonderfully, no lives were lost, and the strikers, if they committed this terrible deed, are spared the crime, though not the guilt, of blood guiltiness. permit abruptness of manner and mode of that irrespectively of recorded evidence permit abruptness of manner and mode of address that would have been shocking no very great number of years ago, may probably be the result of that general onward movement and fastness of the age, which recommends a special version of one of Shakespear's plays because it takes so short of silver and a solution of infine, does not a time in the acting. We rush onward produce any change of color except in the and imagine that we have no time for re-

> ANOTHER CHARITY FAIR.
>
> It is really thought by the sagacious, that the reign of fashionable charities is over for the season, and that no further be only the women making special claims in the case of persons under strong emotions. appeals will be made on the pockets of generous New Yorkers till the demand for mid-summer excursions for the poor comes extend, this is by no means the case.—
>
> Brandy and Cheerfulness.

What we call "low spirits" is frequent of children; too much love, not one. ly the result of bodily weakness or disease. People, with few exceptions, love to be and lectures upon the subject to appreciate easily put out of tune, and despondency is very apt to accompany the small ills which seem but slight, and for which we find but prophet was suffering from bodily weakness and weariness. The good man allow ed him to rest, first of all; mark that. Sleep and rest are often all that is needed to cure low spirits. Then a miraculous meal was prepared, and the angel touched the Monday last with a wheelbarrow of ore for sleeper and said: "Arise, and eat, for the the centennial, which he had pushed from ourney is too great for thee." How sym. Missouri.

of cases where despondency holds sway:

"The journey if too great for thee." The toils and cares press so heavily that the mortal frame is out of order, and despondency medal for the best English poons mortal frame is out of order, and despon-dency is the result. Avoid over fatigue, taking too much thought of the morrow, grumbling and brooding, and anything that is hurtful to physical nature. remember, that the greatest cheerfulness is induced by a firm trust in the Lord. When the journey necessary is too great for thee, the angel will come and give thee

The river that runs slow, and creeps by the banks, and begs leave of every turf of grass to let it pass, is drawn into little hollows, and spreads itself in smaller portions, and he kept his resolution till he was so weak that death was inevitable. His father took charge of his dead body, and had it buried according to the rites of the rigid Jewish church. His cursing the detective who was instrumental in convictions. Believed the hollows, and spreads itself in smaller portions, and to creep into holes, but runs into the sea through full and useful channels. So is a man's recess, while the Sanday question is clearly and recess, while the Sanday question is clearly and the clear and the into holes, but runs into the sea through full and useful channels. So is a man's prayer; if he moves upon the feet of an abated appetite, it wanders into the society of every trifling accident, and stays at the corners of the fancy, and talks with every object it meets, and cannot arrive at heave.

How George H. Boker, United States minister to St. Peterburg, has been granted leave to come home to Philadelphia

Change in the Color of the Hair

striving after its rapidities

But, at least, there lingers here and there a recollection of what used to be; and now and then the elders of the community are found to wish that something of old fashioned politeness might become boiling water unless for a long time applied. prevalent. As far as regards women, at and under pressure, when it suffers distance any rate men's manners are beginning to lose some of the courtliness which made a to the sun will bleach hair, but this will man polite to all women. This change not account for any very sudden change of may be the result of the claims which women are making to hold places in the favor of the affirmative of this question.

Brandy and Throat Disease.

Not with reproof for any of thus day's tures for exhibition, and this afforded a Greek and Latin. She is not justified in ever heard a little creature sighing or sonfine chance for the everybodies to see paintings that are usually inscrutable to the vulgar eye.

Greek and Latin. She is not justined in five of all customary usages because she has become acquainted with the higher mathematics; nor is she ex any of his trusted friends had anything to do with the matter.

THE DEMOCRACY
are in a dilemma. They want Tilden, but they see if they nominate him they lose are beginning to look are beginning to be felt in New York and is not compelled to abide to a has crept trustingly to its mother's brewe, you may have seen in whose childhe home "Dignity" and "Severity" stood where Love and Piety should h

Too much indulgence has rained thou

A ressel drawing 15 feet and 8 inches

The mustang race is to be rus over again on Thursday with a new rider, who is expected to make 155 soils in seven hours, or lose a pile of money for his buck-guments against the jurisdict journey is too great for thee." How sympathizing and tender were these words!

Elijah did according to this bidding, and we have no more complaints of that kind ings on Saturday to insist apon the opening of the centennial grounds and buildings on Sanday. And a call is out for a continue to sustain the commission in by a resident undergraduate to one who iesn Independence.

The indemnity deman government for each of the two consule murdered at Salonies is $250,000 gutting the value upon a German seagon a French consul. It was a dear price of religiou enthusiasm for the Sultan.

Sheriff Kirkendaft, of Lazerne

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the follow Bad legs, Cancers, Cancers, Sore Nipples, Contracted & Stiff Sore throats, Stunions, Bite of Moschetoes and Sandfies, Coco bay, Chiego foot, Chilplains, Chilplains, Channel flands, Reumatism, Reumatism Chapped Hands, Rheumatism, Scalds, sizes. N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot * [apr28, 76-eow-ly

WEDDING CARDS!

WEDDING ENVELOPES, and

MARK THESE FACTS!

DIPTHERIA, ULCERATED SORE THROAT, AND SCARLET AND OTHER FEVERS. Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rub ag the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat allay the fever and lessen the inflammation, eight a Pills should be taken slight and morning. The Oir ent will produce perspiration, the grand essential in a ses of fevers, sore throat, or where there might be a pression of the chest, either from astluma or oth PILES, FISTULAS, STRICTURES.

The above class of complaints will be removed by night by fermenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in the Ointment. Persons suffering frem these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for a considerable, thus two or three times day that it was be

INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH :- SORES AND ULCERS. Blotches, as also swellings, can, with certainty, be radi-cally cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills

Corns(Soit) Scalds,

CAUTION:—None are genuine unless the signature of

J. HATCOCK, as agent for the United States, surrounds each lox of Pills and Ointment. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties coun terteiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing

WEDDING CARDS!!

PUBLISHED

No paper discontinued, unless at the option of the publishers, until all arrearages are paid.

No paper, however, will be sent out of the State unless absolutely paid for in advance.

Transient advertisements will be inserted at twelver and advertisements will be first insertion, seven and a-stale centre for the second and five centre per line for all subsequent insertions.

Regular quarterly and yearly business advertisements will be inserted at the following rates:

$2 00 per annum, in advance; $2.50 within six months, and $3.00 if not paid within the year. PROGRESSIVE

REPUBLICAN PAPER.

00000000 Subscribe. 00000000

TO ADVERTISERS:

— Circulation 1800. —

A FIRST-CLASS

> 5000 READERS

> > WEEKLY

ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

The JOURNAL is one of the best printed papers in the Juniata Valley, and is read by the best citizens in the county. It finds its way into 1800 homes weekly and is read by at least 5000 persons, thus making it the BEST advertising medium in Central Pennsyl are sure of getting a rich return for their investment. Advertisements, both local and foreign, solicited, and inserted at reasonable rates. Give us an order.

vania. Those who patronize its columns

商

JOB DEPARTMENT:

Hast Presses, all the latest styles of New Type, Borders, da full supply of all kinds of material necessary for the nt of a FIRST-CLASS OFFICE, we are prepared to do s of Jobbing, such as Posters of any size, Circulars, Businder, Wedding and Visiting Cards, Ball Tickets, Program-noert Tickets, Order Books, Segar Labels, Receipts, Legal Photographer's Cards, Bill Heads, Letter Heads, Pam-Paper Books, etc., etc., etc., our prices are those of Philadelphia, and our work will compare favorth any done in the State. We make it a point to employ the best of workmen, and will not permit an apple butter be done in our Job Rooms. Satisfaction guaranteed in stance. Send along your work, and see what we can do.

- COLOR PRINTING A SPECIALTY. - dressed to J. R. DURBORROW & CO.,

Huntingdon, Pa.

We thank Thee, while withal we crave The honor proof to place or gold.

Centennial Hymn.

Our father's God! from out whose hand

The centuries fall like grains of Sand,
We meet to-day, united, free,
And loyal to our land and Thee,
To thank Thee for the era done,

And trust Thee for the opening one.

Here where of old, by Thy design,

Whose echo is the glad refrain

Of rended bolt and falling chain, To grace our festal time from all

The zones of earth our guests we call. Be with us while the New World greets

The Old World, thronging all its streets Unveiling all the triumphs won

It paused a moment in the air, Then onward winged its flight.

And then that word was winged with fire, And then another page of life

How wildly throbbed that aching heart!

GOLD AND DROSS. BY MARY REED CROWELL. Lily Deane sat busily copying a favorite nests in Mrs. Grenville's drawing-room hillows of foam. warm, rosy glow on the healthful skin, and wine-bright sparkles in the big, velvety, gray eyes. A happy, earnest-hearted girl, on whom all the finesse of her parental aunt, the fashionable Mrs. Grenville, of Lexington Avenue, had been wasted in vain, in so far as that lady had attempted to make a stylish city young lady of the Now, nestling away among the foamy curtains, Lily listened to the ripples of onversation that eddied past her; thinkg-in the vague, half-distressful way of of that short, delightful winter spent in good-night." New York-that of all these people who

He had been very good to her all that gone that he was one of the most eligible gone that he was one of the most engine young men in the city, worth a couple bundred thousands and a perfect love of 'Cruelty! hollow-heartedness! Perhaps, hundred thousands, and a perfect love of tion his country seat on the Hudson. an antidote to Mr. Ellis?" Lily had liked him from the very first-as accomplished. Not that she was in love with him-ined, no! She had told herself a thousand imes that she was in love with nobody, and tried her best, and almost succeeded in convincing herself, that it was only a little reluctance at leaving all the luxury for pity, ladies?"

who had her eyes on Sydney Ehrs for her deceased husband's successor.

will be a paradise! I am used to it, you know, dear, and I can see to the butter, and ear, and I can see to the butter, and ear, and it, if I emigrate to my Wisconsin and eggs, and poultry, and everything. I stand it, if I emigrate to my Wisconsin and eggs, and poultry, and everything. I and windows all over Jersey City and Hobsen, reaching across the river, and felt in New York. On the west side, shop windows were shattered, and the gas put ion of New York on dress parade. Sun-

THE BERGEN EXPLOSION.

Centennial will enliven things somewhat.