

Farm and Household.

BORROWING FARM TOOLS.—There are many cases in which it is pleasant to be accommodating and lend farm tools, and equally honorable to borrow them. As a general thing, however, every farmer ought to own, and have every tool needed to do work on the farm; that is, all the tools required in ordinary farming, and every fair and judicious farmer will have such and take care of them too—keeping them in proper place and condition, so that they will always be handy and ready for use when wanted—readily found, in proper place without loss of time in hunting them up. To such a farmer, it is justly vexatious and annoying to find that his tools are away among his neighbors, he knows not where, just when he most wants them, having been obligingly loaned to a neighbor, at a time when not needed by himself, under the promise that they would surely be returned very soon; but the promise was neglected, with no regard, apparently, very often, for honor in promise, or the wants and convenience of the owners. In such cases, it would almost seem that a man is not entitled to the ordinary privileges of a neighbor to be accommodated with the loan of needed tools. Where people are prompt and conscientious to return borrowed tools, there is a pleasure in accommodating them with their use. But when they recklessly keep them so long that the owner and his family almost forget where they are, it really becomes a criminal act. There are some tools of a character that one farmer scarcely ever needs—perhaps hardly once a year—that another has need of often, so as to make it pay to buy and own them; in such cases a farmer is justified in borrowing, but he should be scrupulously careful to return them at once, and not subject the owners to trouble and loss of running over the neighborhood to find them.

FARMERS AS HORSE BREEDERS.—The farmers here are overstocked with horses and each one wants to sell from one to four good work horses. During the war they sold all the horses they could spare at good paying prices, and have been raising horses on nearly ever since, till they are running over full of good team horses, which they want to sell in droves, and no man is hardly willing to take one as a gift until he can rid himself of what he has. They seem to be the worst stock kept to be overstocked with, for they are not an eatable article, yet they are an eating commodity. I think there is more danger of the farmers in Dutchess county being overstocked with horses than with any other stock. There is such an ado about fast horses, so many graded tracks to train them on, so much ignorant selfishness existing among all classes, and about every man thinks his own colt the fastest, that the great danger now is too much "choss." Every candid man in the country knows of several instances where too much hoss has ruined his owner. Young man do not get hoss on the brain, for it is a terrible complaint to get rid of, when it is once fairly seated. Besides it fastens almost all other bad diseases on you, in spite of all you can do to keep them off—such as chewing, smoking, drinking, gambling, swearing, idling away your time—and if scarcely too much to say that too much hoss is the mother of vices.—Poughkeepsie Telegraph.

HORSE LAWS.—It has been decided that when a horse or carriage is let out for hire, for the purpose of performing a particular journey, the party letting warrants the horse or carriage fit and competent for such a journey. If the hirer treats the horse or carriage as any prudent man would do, he is not answerable for any damage that either may receive. But he must use the horse for the purpose for which he hired him. For instance, a horse hired for saddle must not be used in harness. If the hirer violates this express condition of the contract, he is liable for any damage that may occur. If the horse is stolen through the hirer's negligence, such as leaving the stable door open all night, he must answer for it. But if he is robbed of it by highwaymen, when traveling the usual road at usual hours, he cannot be held for damages. As these questions are frequently in dispute, these decisions may be interesting.

DRAINING WET LANDS.—A correspondent of the New England Farmer has drained a once worthless part of his farm, and made it wonderfully productive. The meadow was divided by brooked stream, which rendered it too wet for cultivation, but by digging straight ditches through it, three feet wide and three feet deep, with permanent walls to support the banks, and running other drains into this, the land has been improved, until it now produces immense crops of hay and grain. Seventy-five bushels of corn, and from seventy-five to one hundred bushels of oats to the acre, have been raised on the land since the drains were completed. The expense of draining the land has been paid for several times already.

A Veterinary Surgeon writes to the Country Gentleman that his experience with sawdust is that it is the best bedding to be had for horses or cattle. It is superior to straw in many respects. It is a much better absorbent than straw and is much cleaner. For a paving horse it is much better, inasmuch as it displaces the bedding only where the foot touches the floor of the stall, while straw, being long, is displaced generally by the act of pawing.

Wire worms in gardens may be trapped by placing slices of potatoes slightly covered in the soil. These should be visited every morning and all the worms collected underneath gathered up and killed.

LIFE, GROWTH, BEAUTY. LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER. LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER. Not a Dye; makes harsh hair soft and silky, cleanses the scalp from all impurities, causing the hair to grow where it has fallen off or become thin. Can be applied by the hand as it does not stain the skin or soil the finest linen. As a Hair Dressing it is the most perfect the world has ever produced. The hair is renovated and strengthened, and natural color restored without the application of mineral substances. Since the introduction of this truly valuable preparation into this country, it has been the wonder and admiration of all classes, as it has proved to be the only article that will absolutely, without deception, restore gray hair to its original color, health, softness, lustre and beauty, and produce hair on bald heads of its original growth and color. This beautiful and fragrant perfume article is complete within itself, no washing or preparation before or after its use, or accompaniment of any kind being required to obtain these desirable results.

HERE IS THE PROOF OF ITS SUPERIOR EXCELLENCE.

Read this Home Certificate, testified to by Edward B. Garrison, one of the most competent Druggists and Chemists of Philadelphia, a man whose veracity none can doubt. I am happy to add my testimony to the great value of your London Hair Color Restorer, which restores my hair to its original color, and the hue appears to be permanent. I am satisfied that this preparation is nothing like a dye but operates on the secretions. It is also a beautiful hair dressing and promotes the growth. I purchased the first bottle from Edward B. Garrison, Druggist, 7th and Coates street, who can also testify my hair was quite gray when I commenced its use. MRS. MILLER, No. 730 North Ninth street, Phila.

Dr. Swayne & Son, Respected friends:—I have the pleasure to inform you that a lady of my acquaintance, Mrs. Miller, is delighted with the success of your London Hair Color Restorer. Her hair was falling rapidly, and quite gray. The color has been restored, the falling of entirely stopped, and a new growth of hair is the result. E. B. GARRISON, Druggist, cor. Tenth and Coates, Phila. BOSTON TESTIMONY. July 22d, 1871.—Dr. Swayne & Son: Last winter while in Trenton, N. J., I purchased six bottles of your London Hair Color Restorer, which I like very much, in fact better than anything I have used in the last nine years. If you please, send me one dozen bottles C. O. D., care of W. S. Fogler & Son, Druggists, No. 723 Tremont street, Boston. Respectfully yours, ADA BAKER, No. 59 Rutland Square.

"London Hair Color Restorer," which has completely restored my hair to its original color and natural beauty, and caused a rapid and luxuriant growth. MRS. Dr. Dalton, of Philadelphia, says of it: The London Hair Color Restorer is used very extensively among my patients and friends, as well as by myself. I therefore speak from experience. 25 cents per bottle; six bottles $1.50. If you send me one dozen bottles I will send you by express, by address, on receipt of price. THE LUNGS. CONSUMPTION! This distressing and dangerous complaint, and its preliminary symptoms, neglected cough, night sweats, hoarseness, wasting fever—permanently cured by "DOCTOR SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY." BRONCHITIS—A precursor of Pulmonary Consumption, is characterized by catarrh, or inflammation of the mucous membrane of the air passages, with cough and expectoration, short breath, hoarseness, pains in the chest. For all bronchial affections, sore throat, loss of voice, cough, &c. DR. SWAYNE'S Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry IS A SOVEREIGN REMEDY. Hemorrhage, or Spitting of Blood, may proceed from the larynx, trachea, bronchia or lungs, and arises from various causes, as undue physical exertion, plethora, or fullness of the vessels, weak lungs, overstraining of the voice, suppressed evacuations, obstruction of the spleen or liver, &c. Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action and invigorating the nervous system. The only standard remedy for hemorrhage, bronchial and all pulmonary complaints. Consumptions, or those predisposing to weak lungs, should not fail to use this great vegetable remedy. Its marvelous power, not only over consumption, but over every chronic disease where a gradual alternative action is needed. Under its use the cough is loosened, the night sweats diminished, the pain subsides, the pulse returns to its natural standard, the stomach is improved in its power to digest and assimilate the food, and every organ has a purer and better quality of blood supplied to it, out of which new restorative and plastic material is made. SWAYNE & SON, 330 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia. SOLD BY ALL PROMINENT DRUGGISTS.

ITCHING PILES! PILES, PILES, ITCHING PILES! POSITIVELY CURED by the use of SWAYNE'S OINTMENT. HOME TESTIMONY. I was sorely afflicted with one of the most distressing of all diseases Pruritus or Dracny, or more commonly known as Itching Piles. The itching at times was almost intolerable, increased by scratching, and not unfrequently became quite sore. I bought a box of "Swayne's Ointment," its use gave quick relief, and in a short time made a perfect cure. I can now sleep undisturbed, and I would advise all who are suffering from this distressing complaint to procure "Swayne's Ointment" at once. I had tried prescriptions almost innumerable, without finding any permanent relief. JOSEPH W. CHRIST, (Firm of Rosell & Christ), Boot and Shoe House, 344 North Second Street, Philadelphia.
