TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

We have appealed to our Republican friends to pay up their indebtedness, but there has been comparatively little response to our earnest solicitations, and we are left to grope our way without money. If our business were like any other business we would have closed it up weeks ago and quit, but as it is we have been obliged to go on, in the face of the most terrible depression known to the region, without scarcely a single effort to help us. ATTENTION. VOTERS.

The following information is of decided interest to all persons entitled to exercise carefully. It is of vital importance that every citizen should familiarize himself with the provisions herein laid down:

with the provisions herein laid down:

The act of January 20, 1874, regulating elections in this Commonwealth, which was pussed in pursuance of the requirements of the New Constitution, requires that the Assessors of the various election districts in the State shall, in the month of June, go in person through their respective districts, and make up a complete list of all the legal voters therein, including those who will become such before the election, and return a list of the same, with the occupation and residence of each voter, to the County Commissioners. These lists are now in the hands of the County Commissioners of each county, and they are required to put a copy of the same in each district prior to the first Monday in August. The Assessors are required to add any name omitted therefrom, and assess him with a tax, upon the personal application of any voter, and to be at the place of election during the two secular days prior to the sixty-first day before the first Tuesday of November, for that purpose, and to strike off all who have died or removed from the district, or have been erroneously assessed. It will thus be seen that—

I. The Assessors must return a complete list of voters in each district in the month of June.

II. That any voter whose name is omitted from this

II. That this list must be put up in each district by the first Monday of August.

III. That any voter whose name is omitted from this list may have the same added by the Assessor, upon personal application to him for that purpose. And

IV. That the assessor must attend for that purpose at the election-place upon two secular days prior to the sixty.

the election-place upon two secular days prior to the sixty-first day before the election.

The election takes place this year on Tuesday, November 7th. The sixty-first day before this will be the 7th of September; so that all assessments upon the registry lists must be made by September 7th, to enable the voter to vote, unless otherwise qualified.

The Constitution provides that no one who has the qualifications of a voter shall be deprived of the right to vote because his name is not on the Registry; but the process of getting in an unregistered vote is tedious and annoying. It requires the voter to establish his right to vote by a written affidavit, and to produce proof by another voter, of his residence. It is best, consequently, to avoid this annovance, if possible, by getting every Republican voter of his residence. It is best, consequently, to avoid the annoyance, if possible, by getting every Republican vote registered.

> LAND, N. J., free of cost. The following is an extract from a description of Vineland, published in the New York Tribune, by the well known Agriculturist, Solon

> Robinson: All of the farmers were of the "well-to-do" sort, and some of them, who have turned their attention to fruits and market gardening, have grown rich. The soil is loam, varying from sandy to clayey, and surface gently undulating, intersected with small streams and occasional wet meadows, in which deposits of peat or muck are stored, sufficient to fertilize the whole upland surface, after it has been exhausted of its natural fertility.

It is certainly one of the most extensive tracts, in an almost level position. and suitable condition for pleasant farm ing, that we know of this side of the Western prairies. We found some of the oldest farms apparently as profitably productive as when first cleared of fore. fifty or a hundred years ago.

The geologist would soon discover the cause of this continued fertility. The whole country is a marine | DOBBINS STARCH POLISH. deposit, and all through the soil we found evidences of calcareous substances, generally in the form of indurated calcareous marl, showing many distinct forms of ancient shells, of the tertiary formation; and this marly substance is scattered all through the soil, in a very comminuted form, and in the exact condition most easily assimilated by such plants as the farmer desires to cultivate.
